Junior Symphony To Give Concert On February 16

Portland — The Portland Junior Symphony will be heard in the second concert of its 33rd year on February 16 at the public auditorium. The 80-piece orchestra conducted by Jacob Avshalomov, has gained national renown for its excellence.

The audience at the concert will have the opportunity to hear the orchestra in a varied and unusual program. Starring soloists of the evening will be Marlene Majovski and Joan Baker who will perform the J. S. Bach "Concerto for Violin and Oboe in C minor." There will be one number, "Fantasy for Brass" by Robert Ward, that will feature the particular sonority of the brass instruments playing alone; Richard Strauss' "Symphony for Winds" will present the brass and woodwind sections only; and for more familiar numbers there will be Weber's "Euryanthe" overture that opens the program, and the final number of the evening, the "Italian" symphony by Felix Mendelssohn. The concert will begin at 8:30 p.m.

The Junior Symphony is made up of the finest young musicians of the area, who represent the Portland public schools, colleges, and young people from McMinnville, Salem, West Linn, Milwaukie, Beaverton, and Vancouver. Wm. Miss Majovski is the orchestra's concertmaster, and Miss Baker plays principal oboe. Both girls also play with the Portland Symphony.

The younger generation of Junior Symphony fans will have the opportunity to hear the orchestra at an 11 a.m. children's concert scheduled for the same day at the auditorium.

Californian To Call for Dance; Party at YMCA

Jacksonville — All square dancers are invited to attend a special dance at the Jacksonville Community hall Sunday, Feb. 17, from 2 to 5 p.m. The caller will be Bill Castner, Alameda, Calif., said to be both talented and popular.

Rogue Valley Square Dance Callers' association is sponsoring the dance.

Mr. Castner is a recording artist for Old Timer records, and is a leader in the San Francisco Bay area where he serves often as a caller and also conducts classes for callers and dancers. He is scheduled to call a dance in Klamath Falls Saturday night and in Eugene Monday night.

Y Knit Twirlers have planned a special Valentine square dance at the YMCA Thursday, February 14, from 8 to 10:30 p.m. All square dancers are invited to attend.

Callers will be Doug Fosbury and Kenneth Hood, and women attending are asked to take desserts for a potluck supper.

Great Religions Studied by Guild

The world's great religions was the topic of discussion at a meeting of Susannah Wesleyan Service guild Monday night at home of Mrs. Carl Burk, 520 Palm street. The program was in charge of Miss Nancy Lamb, and devotions were given by Miss Katherine Petri.

It was announced that Mrs. Jerry Sherman and Mrs. Carl Burk will be the guild's delegates to the Western Jurisdiction conference of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church. The conference will be held in Berkeley February 22, 23 and 24.

Special Session Held by Auxiliary; Projects Planned

Butte Falls — A special meeting of the Butte Falls Lions' auxiliary was held at the Butte Falls General store February 8 to discuss projects for February and March.

One of the auxiliary's annual projects is a boy at the Oregon State School for the Blind and a special surprise valentine was sent to him.

A recent undertaking within the community by the club was a financial obligation of $130 which was paid in full this month. An electric 48-cup automatic coffee pot was displayed to club members. This coffee pot was earned by saving coffee can bands and club members are saving for one more.

Butte Falls community service clubs sponsored a dance February 9 at the grade school gymnasium to raise money for the Community hall. Admission was a donation to the Community hall fund and there was a small charge for refreshments. A cake and pie auction was held.

The auxiliary was scheduled to work with the Grange HEC at the refreshment booth and last minute details of the dance were discussed at this meeting. Auxiliary members serving at the dance were Mrs. Bruce Pringle, Mrs. Charles Capello, Mrs. Page Stauffer and Mrs. William L. Harris.

Mrs. Glenn Cathy reported on chairs to be purchased by the club.

Mrs. Pringle, president, announced that the state spring board meeting has been scheduled for April 7 at Eugene.

It was announced that a bus will be chartered for Lion and auxiliary members in Jackson county wishing to attend the international convention to be held in San Francisco this year in June.

Mrs. Capello and Mrs. Harris are to be hostesses for the potluck meeting to be held at the Union hall, Wednesday, February 27.

Valentine Party Planned Thursday

Sams Valley — Sams Valley Ladies' club will hold the annual Valentine dinner Thursday, February 14, at 7 p.m. in the cafeteria of Sams Valley school. Women attending are to take a salad or vegetable dish, a pie and table service for their family.

Each family also is asked to provide a game or skit as a part of the evening's entertainment.

Business Training Said Good for Brides

Chicago — (U.P.) — The woman president of a labor-placing service said today that brides who have been exposed to the business world adopt to marriage better than coeds fresh from the campus.

Mrs. Donna Workman said bachelors are better off marrying self-supporting working girls because the latter have developed "an aplomb in the face of crises that will aid her in married life."

"The job-trained wife will have a fuller understanding of her husband's business problems," she added. "She will be able to encourage him in his ambitions and console him in the face of setbacks."
