

Ike May Have To Talk About Red China in UN

Thomasville, Ga.—(AP)—President Eisenhower today studied the prospects of having to talk with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan about the admission of Red China to the United Nations.

Fate of Air Force Plan At Woodburn Pondered

Portland—(AP)—A report that the Air Force may be planning to negotiate with the Port of Portland for extension of its runway had officials wondering today if it planned to change its mind about a base at Woodburn instead of the Portland International airport.

United Nations, N. Y.—(AP)—Russia has offered to quit supplying arms to the Arabs if the western big three will close down their Middle East bases. Moscow dispatches said today.

GOLD HILL Lodge To Honor Members

BY MRS. CLYDE KELL

Gold Hill—Plans were made at a meeting Wednesday, February 6, of Amethyst Rebekah lodge, to observe the anniversary of the lodge at the next regular meeting. Two living charter members will be honored at that time. They are Mrs. Carrie Puhl, who lives on Garden Row in Gold Hill, and William Carter whose home is in Portland, Ore.

All officers were present for this meeting, except three. Mrs. Norman Gail, good of the order chairman, will be in charge of the program Feb. 20. The presiding noble grand, Mrs. Lester Parker, appointed Mrs. Wilmer Bailey and Mrs. J. Lee Graffis to assist the February committee next meeting.

rews the last year, displayed three oil paintings she had recently completed.

Refreshments were served to twenty five ladies by Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. William Hittle, and Mrs. William Ferguson.

Mrs. Mae Spears of Pueblo, Colo., visited two weeks at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith. Mrs. Spears left Monday, Feb. 11, for California, where she will visit relatives in various parts of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ferguson went to Hillsboro, Ore., the weekend of Feb. 2 and 3, where they visited at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Lanford.

Richard Bickel left Tuesday, Feb. 5, after a five day visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Bickel, at their home on Blackwell Hill. Richard is stationed at the Keesler Air Force base, in Biloxi, Miss., where he is attending an electronics school. Upon completion of his basic training, he was one of the seven selected, from a group of over 300 men taking tests to qualify Mrs. K. R. Bickel, leader of the Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship group, has announced that regular meetings are held each Sunday evening at 7 p.m. in the Community Methodist church on Fourth avenue. Mrs. Bickel stated that all sixth, seventh and eighth grade students are welcome even though they are not members of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Mae Spears, of Pueblo, Colo., spent Tuesday, Feb. 5, in Klamath Falls, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thomas and sons, Jack and David. Mrs. Thomas is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith and son Randy, in Jacksonville Sunday, Feb. 3. Present from Gold Hill were Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Keys, and children, Karen, Kenneth and Larry. Others included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson, their children, Virginia and Donald from Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Garnier and children, Mike and Cathy of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnston and daughters, Janet, Joyce and Janie, of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Swindler and daughter Lexie Ann, from Redding, Calif., James Smith of Redding, and Mrs. Mae Spears from Pueblo, Colo.

Mrs. Hannah Routh has returned to her home following a month's visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Rosie Simairs, in Exeter, Calif. Mrs. Simairs accompanied Mrs. Routh to Gold Hill for a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Cecil Gabie was taken to a Medford hospital last week.

Miss Darlene Allison was appointed publicity chairman for the Youth Group of the Christian church, at Feb. 3, meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lenard Andrew on the Upper River road.

The minister, Bill J. Miller was in charge of the Bible study. Following the games, refreshments were served to Mary, Robert and Jeanie Governor, Fred Governor Jr., Howard Freeman, Virginia Munday, Mike Johnson, Miss Allison, Mr. Miller, John and Steven Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Swindler and daughter, Lexie Ann, of Redding, Calif. visited the weekend of Feb. 2 and 3 in Gold Hill at the homes of Swindler's mother, Mrs. Lester Thompson, and with Mrs. Swindler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith.

Among those in this area, who make improvements to their home the "do it yourself" way are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Malone, who recently completed a new addition to their home. It is a 15 by 25 foot living room, with picture windows and a flagstone fireplace. Malone did all of the work himself except for the fireplace, which was built with the help of George Smith, who lives on Sardine creek road. Smith also assisted with the stucco on the outside of the new room. The Malones moved their furnishings in and occupied the new living room for the first time Saturday, Feb. 9.

A birthday dinner was given Saturday, Feb. 9, for Mrs. George Dorman at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Dusenberry, in Sams Valley. Others present for the dinner were Mrs. Maybelle Rains of Gold Hill and the Dusenberry's son, Gary.

Miss Delores Cooper is convalescing at home following a major surgery in a Medford hospital. Miss Cooper is the daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Ernie Cooper.

Mrs. Cassie Johnson, who lives in Central Point, visited with friends in Gold Hill last week. Mrs. Johnson is a former resident of this area.

Mrs. Lola "Gussie" Beman returned Monday, Feb. 11, to the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Al Beman on highway 99 north, from a Grants Pass hospital.

"Whom shall I send?" was the title of the lesson given by Mrs. Howard Walton, wife of the pastor of the church, at a meeting of The Womens Society of the Community Methodist church, Friday, Feb. 8, at the home of Mrs. S. M. Christiansen on highway 99 north.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Roy Eskew, preceding the business session, which was conducted by the president, Mrs. Fred Jones. Plans were made for the rummage sale, which ladies of the church are assisting the Gold Hill Health unit in giving at the FehI building on Ivy street in Medford. Profits from this sale will go into the parsonage fund of the Community Methodist church. All women of the church are urged to help. Those needing transportation are reminded to be at Walker's Station by 10 a.m. Wednesday, Feb. 20. Cars will leave by 8:30 a.m. on the last two days of the rummage sale, Feb. 21 and 22.

It is requested that all residents having donations for the sale, should leave it at Walker's Station or The Oaks motel in Gold Hill. Group two will be in charge of the dinner, which will be given for those who attend the sub-district meeting on Monday, Feb. 18, at 6:30 p.m. in the Community Methodist church. A nominal fee will be charged for the dinner to help raise money for the parsonage fund.

Refreshments of Strawberry shortcake and coffee were served by Mrs. Christiansen and Mrs. Sam Jones to 16 members. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Erwin Huffman, who lives on highway 99 north.

WORTHY OF YOUR TRUST

Beam's old-fashioned Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey is distilled and aged under a formula passed on from generation to generation for over 162 years.

It's the lighter and milder whiskey for friendly entertaining.

only BEAM tastes like BEAM. only BEAM tastes so good.

JIM BEAM

BEAM... distillers of the world's finest bourbon for 162 years—1795-1957

$4.65 4 1/2 Qt. $3.00 Pint

JIM BEAM Bottled in Bond 100 PROOF FULL SIX YEARS OLD $5.90 4 1/2 Qt. $3.80 Pint

86 PROOF KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY JAMES B. BEAM DISTILLING CO., CLERMONT, KY.

RACING TO FIRST PLACE in the Miami-Nassau is the yawl Finisterre, in 28 hours, 14 minutes, 37 seconds. The 38-foot craft beat Cuba's entry, Criollo. (International)

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

Dr. Ashley Montagu, 52-year-old anthropologist, on his decision to keep $32,000 he had won on a TV quiz program and not try for more.

Washington—Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) of the House Immigration subcommittee, on his plan to ask the administration to stop the flow of Hungarian refugees to the United States.

Miami Beach—Former President Truman, attacking "political budget-cutters" in the Eisenhower administration.

Thomasville, Ga.—President Press Secretary James C. Hagerty on Russia's "hands off" proposal for the Middle East.

New York—Actor Errol Flynn, on whether he would keep his $30,000 TV quiz show prize or take a chance on winning $100,000.

"The laws of probability being what they are, I've decided to take the money."

"Economic conditions behind the Iron Curtain are so frightful that everybody will start running if there is a break in the curtain."

"It is a lot better to have a strong national defense than a balanced budget."

"Obviously, this is a move to try to discredit or stop the Eisenhower play in the Middle East."

"I think I'll take it and run. I've been receiving threatening letters—or I should say telegrams—from my family."

tant, too, is the fast, friendly way these claims were handled. And no wonder! Allstate's growing service organization now includes over 2,900 state licensed agents and more than 9,500 other employees conveniently located in over 1,000 offices throughout the U. S. and Canada.

Allstate paid over $125,000,000 in auto insurance claims in 1956!

After all, what really counts in auto insurance is how the company keeps its promise of protection. And the record of Allstate, the auto insurance company founded by Sears, speaks for itself!

Last year the Allstate Insurance Company paid over $125,000,000 to protect its policyholders. That's an average of over $10,000,000 every month! Important, too, is the fast, friendly way these claims were handled. And no wonder! Allstate's growing service organization now includes over 2,900 state licensed agents and more than 9,500 other employees conveniently located in over 1,000 offices throughout the U. S. and Canada.

See or phone your Allstate Agent today! DOUGLAS H. HINESLY and JOHN J. FRANTZ 40 South Central, Medford, Oregon Phone 3-4722 You're in good hands with... ALLSTATE INSURANCE COMPANY STOCK COMPANY PROTECTION

Pontiac takes over the Top Spot in Performance

Competing in the toughest tests the California Highway Patrol could devise—for performance, roadability, comfort and safety—Pontiac outclassed six of America's top-performance cars and got the order... for 300 cars! Here's proof about as official as you can get that Pontiac is America's Number One Road Car. Your first pulse-quickenng experience with the smooth, instant response of Strato-Streak power will tell you why the experts call it the industry's most advanced V-8 engine. Sample Pontiac's precision-touch control and know what the pros are raving about the first time you round a corner or maneuver a tight spot. Head for the roughest road in town and repave it smooth as glass under Pontiac's Level-Line Ride. Altogether, Pontiac has rounded up more than six dozen "firsts" and wrapped them in the cleanest look on wheels. Better come in soon and get in on the fun!

Stop Dreaming—Price It! DEAN & TAYLOR PONTIAC CO. West Sixth and North Grape - - - Medford Phone 2-5241