Globetrotter Ducats on Sale At Two Places

Advance ticket sales for the basketball game between the Harlem Globetrotters and Honolulu Surf Riders will start at noon Saturday, it was announced today. Tickets will be on sale at Lampport's Sporting Goods store in Medford and Crater Department store in Central Point.

The two teams, together with a six act variety show, appear at the Crater High school gym at Central Point on Friday night, March 1.

It was pointed out that there are no reserved seats for the game but that purchase of tickets in advance will avoid the possibility of having to stand in line for the buyer.

Harry Chipman, promoter of the show, said seating capacity of the gymnasium will not be oversold but that seating will be provided on a "first come, first served" basis.

Raider Mat Frays Slated

Ashland—Coach Al Aikens and his inexperienced Southern Oregon wrestling team left this morning for matches with Lewis and Clark, and Portland State Saturday.

Wrestling is one of the new sports on the SOC campus and the Raiders have around 10 or 11 candidates out at the present time. Matches will be the first of the season for the Red Raider grapplers. If they perform very well on their Portland trip, Coach Aikens will enter the team in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics district wrestling meet in Portland around March 1.

No Home Meets
Because of the building program now underway on the Southern Oregon college campus, the wrestling team is unable to have any home meets. However, with the completion of the new field house on Fuller field next fall, SOC expects to have a large mat squad and plans to enter the top tournaments in the region along with home and home series with near-by schools.

Making the trip to Portland this week end are: 123 pounds—Al Kimura; 130 pounds—Gary Horton; 137 pounds—George Olson; 147 pounds—Gerald Dilly; 157 pounds—Bill Olson; 167 pounds—Darel Hadley; 177 pounds—Tom Findlay, team captain; 191 pounds—Andy Travis; heavyweight—Jim Tacchini.

Chevrolets took the top three positions in the race for 1957 Chevrolets, Fords and Plymouths on hard-packed beach straightaway at Shermans of Cambridge, Wis., who actually finished second in 118,460 mph compared to Yunik's 119,403 mph, was the official winner. He was followed by Lonnie Hilliard of Palatka, Fla., in 115,849, and Ned Decker of Sherwood, Ohio, in 113,852.

Joe Huston Reconsiders

Portland—(U.P.)—Joe Huston today replaced Joe Huston as football coach at Lewis and Clark.

Huston, who announced his resignation last December, said he had reconsidered and school officials announced yesterday he would remain at the helm.

Miami, Fla.—(U.P.)—Willie Hartack, the nation's leading jockey the past two seasons, ran his 1957 victory total to 34 Thursday at Hialeah Park when he accounted for three winners. His latest streak gave Hartack 11 victories in three days. Thursday he scored on Battlement $9.20, Lady Beaver $3.80 and Eds Day $6.10.

Idaho Vandals Take Turn With Bears; UO Engages Washington

By NEAL CORBETT
United Press Sports Writer
The University of Idaho Vandals will get two chances this week end to slow California's march toward the Pacific Coast conference basketball title and the NCAA regional playoffs at Corvallis, Ore.

However, four teams have already had two chances — and the Bears are still the only undefeated team in the PCC.

Second place UCLA will entertain Stanford, still hopeful Washington will visit Oregon, and Southern California travels to Washington State. The Oregon State Beavers take a breather.

The University of San Francisco Dons have taken the bit in their teeth in the California Basketball Association and are galloping along the trail that led them to two consecutive national championships.

The Dons host College of Pacific tonight, while Loyola plays at San Jose State, Santa Clara plays a crucial at St. Mary's, and Pepperdine visits Fresno State. Saturday finds USF at Fresno, Loyola at Santa Clara, Pepperdine at COP, and St. Mary's at Sacramento State in a non-conference game.

Bears Not Worried
Idaho shouldn't be too much of a threat to the Bears, who will be playing on their home court. The Vandals have lost eight out of 10, while California has won eight straight.

However, the Bears haven't crossed horns with Washington and UCLA yet — and the Vandals can testify that those fellows notch a lot of figures in your loss column.

Second place UCLA, which had its conference record winning streak of 23 games chopped by Washington last Saturday, will be out to start another against Stanford.

The Indians have upset some of the best of them, but a victory over the Bruins on their home court is more in the class of a miracle.

Washington, with an 8-2 mark, should romp over cellar-dwelling Oregon. And the Huskies are still in grabbing distance of first place, should California or UCLA falter.

Beck In Action
Southern California gets the distinction of operating against Washington State's Larry Beck.
