

Dentists, Clerk Will Be Soloists In First Kiwanis Kapers Act

Two dentists and an office clerk will be soloists during the first act in the Medford Kiwanis club's ninth annual Kapers production, "Guys 'N' Disguise," next week at the Medford High school auditorium.

Soloists for the eight scenes which trace the development of Kawanians from infants into stage personalities are Dr. Abner (Cuz) Clark, president of the service club, Dr. Billy Blackstone, and Mrs. Margie Herman, who is employed by Medford Veneer and Plywood corporation.

Fast Moving Show

The Kapers will be presented Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. A fast moving show, livened with songs, dances, gags and skits has been developed from local talent by Randy LaFerr, professional director of Lassen Productions.

While a slapstick and mirthful first act depicts "how a ham gets to be a ham," the second act will have a minstrel show setting with veteran Kapers performers as end men and Kiwanians and their wives, many of them participants in past shows, cast in the singing chorus.

High school girls, Medford secretaries and Kiwanian Dames will appear in dance choruses. The high school chorus appears in the "On With the Show" routine of the opening scene. They'll be in the "Teen-Age Romance" scene in which George Koch will be Romeo, Kris Christenson will play Juliet and Chan Drew will be the drama teacher. The girls will also be in a "Campus Kapers" number.

Chorus Girls

Mrs. Herman will be soloist, Bob Reave's director and the secretaries form the chorus in a "No Biz Like Show Biz" presentation. Kiwanian Dames are chorus girls in the final scene of the act, "Broadway Lullaby," and Clark and Blackstone will sing in this number. Jack Walker, Irv Miflick and Tom Anderson will be touts and other Kiwanians will be Broadway characters and bums.

Members of the service club will form a baby chorus in one scene and other Kiwanians will be dance studio pupils in another portion of the program. Irv

Allen will play Madame Manerly and Dr. William Stram will be Pierre. Kiwanians will be Cub Scouts in one scene with Dr. Ernie Duce as den mother.

John Pietsch, secretary-manager of Jackson County Savings and Loan association and chairman of the county planning committee, will be master of ceremonies for the first act. Piano accompanist for the show is Max Morris and a Medford High school pep orchestra will provide music for the show.

School Dance Girls

High school dance chorus girls are Caron Leffer, Judy Wynore, Myrna Callaway, Rosemary Doolen, Coleen Barr, Shirley Rutherford, Mary Friend, Karen Paschke, Carol McKeown, Susan Hall, Sylvia Morris and Gay Jepson. The secretaries are Gloria Smith, Gwenn Caster, Norma Deneault, Lorraine Morse, Kay Jandreau, Kay Thomas and Margie Herman.

Kiwanian Dames in a chorus number are Suzanne Singler, Jean Edson, Carol Clark, Jolly Anderson, Wilda Barnett, Norma Foland and Mary Jane Dellenback.

The Kapers represent the major fund raising activity of the Kiwanis club. Proceeds will be used for its youth, welfare and philanthropic projects in the community.

Seats can be reserved starting Monday at Barker's Men's store for the Thursday, Friday and Saturday night performances. Only general admission tickets are being sold for Wednesday evening and only on Wednesday will there be a special rate for youngsters. Curtain time will be 7:30 p.m. Wednesday and 8:15 p.m. the other nights.

Second act of the show will be "put together" today and the first act on Monday. Dress rehearsal is set for Tuesday night.

IN KITCHEN SINK

Pacoima, Calif. — (U.P.) — Firemen Friday were called upon to rescue Mrs. Skip Schoen, 34, from the kitchen sink. Mrs. Schoen stuck both hands into a garbage disposal unit, which was not operating at the time, and was trapped bending over the kitchen sink for two hours.

SHOW BIZ—These shapely choristers will be kicking up their heels at the annual Kiwanis Kapers scheduled for a four day run, Wednesday through Saturday, at the Medford High school auditorium. In this rehearsal professional director Randy LaFerr shows the girls how to get more action into their number,

WHOOOPS—Medford businessman Ron Rice, a feature performer in the Kiwanis Kapers Feb. 20 through 23 at the Medford High school auditorium, typifies the kind of high jinks that will take place when the men put on a "chorus girl" act of their own. Rice appears in several numbers of the variety show including the minstrel act. Benefits from the show will go toward Kiwanis youth, welfare and philanthropic projects. Music will be furnished by the Medford High school band.

ROGUE RIVER Birthday Reception Held

By MRS. MYRTLE WHIPPLE

Rogue River — About 50 friends of Mrs. Lois Morgan met at Fellowship hall Sunday afternoon for a reception in observance of her birthday anniversary.

A pink dogwood tree was presented her and on it was a display of dollar bills. Mrs. Morgan and her son, Hurst, are building a new home so the money is for something for the new home and the dogwood tree is for the yard.

The card party given by the Laurel Garden club Thursday afternoon was attended by 57 women. Many came from Grants Pass. A luncheon was served at 12 noon.

Bridge, canasta and pinochle were played and prizes were given. In bridge Mrs. Vivian Brinkley won high and Mrs. Una Miller won low prize. In pinochle Mrs. Marie Hurly won high and Mrs. Lee Demary low. In canasta Mrs. Mildred Golder won high and Mrs. Evelyn Peres won low. All were Grants Pass ladies except Mrs. Demary.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Linstead and son, of Sutherlin, were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Golding.

Nick Niquette of the Nick's Quality market has been named to the city council to replace Don Stamm who is moving away. Niquette took office Tuesday night, Feb. 5.

Mrs. Isa Forsyth returned last week from a stay of several weeks with her son, Tom Webb, and family, at San Diego, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith stopped enroute to Los Angeles and spent the weekend at the home of Mr. Smith's brother Lloyd and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Magerle have purchased the property known as the Elmer Magnuson place at the corner of First and Cedar streets in Rogue River.

Harry Hill, Rogue River realtor, is in the Veteran's hospital in Portland. His address is Ward 1A, Room 115.

Ray Holmes, who has been in the Sacred Heart hospital for some time, is home and reported to be in fair condition.

Holmes accidentally fell in the Rogue River while viewing rescue work at the scene of an accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zelka, who formerly operated the Zelka rug cleaning service here lost all their cleaning equipment and home in a fire recently at Smith river where they have been since leaving Rogue River.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hart Sunday, Feb. 3, in honor of the Harts' 40th wedding anniversary. The Harts were married at Hermilage, Mo., and came to Rogue River in 1943 from Klamath Falls. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Breeding, Mrs. Harts' mother, Mrs. Frances Cooper, and Mrs. Jerusha Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cummings of Keno were in Rogue River over the weekend and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Milton. They also called on Mrs. Cummings' mother, Mrs. Mae Shultz, at the Parkview Rest Home in Grants Pass.

Oregonians Named To Sawmill Posts

Seattle — (U.P.) — Two Oregon men, one from Eugene and one from Portland, were elected to top posts in the Western Council of the AFL-CIO Lumber and Sawmill Workers union Thursday as the council wound up its annual convention here.

John Gamblin of Eugene was named president and Earl Hartley of Portland elected executive secretary-treasurer.

In the closing day's session, the council voted in favor of increased benefits for injured workmen and reaffirmed opposition to "right to work" laws among other resolutions adopted.

Building Valuation Exceeds $1 Million

Portland — Medford was one of six cities in the Pacific northwest reporting a building valuation in January of more than $1 million, according to a statistical report of the Equitable Savings and Loan association, Portland.

Value of building in Medford last month was $2.2 million. Portland and Seattle building valuations both were $4.8 million. Other northwest cities named were Vancouver, B.C.; Tacoma, Wash.; and Pocatello, Ida. Medford's $1,957,425 Rogue Valley Memorial hospital was listed as the project of greatest value now under construction in the northwest.

Medford's January total this year was 1,237 per cent greater than in 1956 when the valuation was $166,140 and 535 per cent greater than the December, 1956, total of $349,375, according to the report.

Course on Siskiyou Plants Scheduled

A five-week course on native plants of the Siskiyou will be held starting March 14, the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce sponsors of the course, have announced.

The two-hour lecture course will be held Thursday nights starting at 7:30 p.m. at Medford High school. Enrollment fee is $10, Chamber officials said.

The course was arranged after discussing possibilities of the lectures with Marcel LePinec. The course will include guest lecturers, and each class will be provided with a mimeographed outline of the lecture prior to the class.

First lecture will include basic elements of botany, and the second class will include basic elements of plant photography as well as a lecture and demonstration on how to collect plant material. Other lectures will cover Siskiyou Wild Lilies, plants of the Siskiyou, where they grow, and what time of the year they blossom, and a demonstration on how to plant a garden for native Siskiyou plants, Chamber officials said.

RUDELY TREATED

Chicago — (U.P.) — An intruder was treated rather rudely Friday night in the Chicago and Northwestern depot by passengers who tied him up and fed him cabbage. The intruder was a stray goat.

Three Are Injured, Poles Damaged in One-Car Accidents

Three people were injured, two power poles were damaged and one mail box was knocked down Friday and Saturday in three one-car accidents in Jackson county, according to state police.

Norman Campbell, 80, Gold Hill, and a passenger in his car, Mrs. Beatrice Cleff, Tacoma, Wash., were hospitalized Friday with injuries suffered in an accident near Rock Point bridge on Highway 99 about 5:21 p.m. According to state police, Campbell was driving across the bridge when the sun apparently blinded him and his car hit a power pole on the shoulder of the highway.

Campbell received chest injuries and Mrs. Cleff received head cuts. They were taken to Rogue Valley hospital by Medford Ambulance service.

Elvis Mitchell, 21, of 872 Iowa st., Ashland, was injured at 6:36 p.m. Friday, when the car he was driving went out of control, hit a mail box and turned over near Crowson rd., south of Ashland on Highway 66, according to police.

Mitchell was taken to Ashland General hospital for treatment of shoulder, chest, and leg injuries. None of his four passengers were injured.

A vehicle operated by James Vanderpool, 20, of 415 Edwards st., Medford, went out of control and struck a power pole north of the Gold Hill underpass on Highway 99 at 1:45 a.m. Saturday, state police said. Officers quoted Vanderpool as saying he had turned to talk to
