

Swedish Actress Dies From Brain Ailment

Stockholm, Sweden — (U.P.) — Swedish actress Maria Toren died early today of a rare brain ailment in Stockholm's South Hospital. She was 31.

Dr. Goesta Von Reis, who described her condition as "hopeless" when she entered the hospital Sunday in an extremely serious condition, said that there was nothing he could do.

Miss Toren had been in Stockholm playing the leading part in a Swedish comedy hit. She was stricken after the Saturday evening performance.

Her husband, playwright Leonardo Bercovici, arrived here for a visit shortly before she was stricken.

Miss Toren went to Hollywood 10 years ago after attending Stockholm's Royal Dramatic School where Ingrid Bergman and Greta Garbo were trained. She performed in 18 movies, most of them in Hollywood.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

Miami—Joseph Dubrony, who did a nude sculpture of actress Anita Ekberg, on bodies of modern women: "It's not the size but the shape. Women today have more bust, less stomach. Things have just moved up."

Washington—Rep. William H. Ayres (R-Ohio) of Veterans committee rejection of a bill to raise interest on home loans to 5 per cent: "Without an increased interest rate the GI loan in my opinion is a dead duck. The committee has made a serious mistake."

Richmond, Ind. — Mrs. Cynthia Coraditti, 23, who married seven men but divorced only four, on being sentenced to 90 days in jail for bigamy: "I only came to the police to be helped, not to be judged."

Chicago—Everett R. Clinchy, head of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, predicting the possible "re-emergence" of the Ku Klux Klan in the South: "If the southern people are afraid of intermarriage, let's assure them that mixing at the polls and in schools and restaurants does not lead to intermarriage."

New York — F. R. Kappel, president of American Telephone and Telegraph Co., reporting that the record 1956 net income of more than $750 million of the Bell Telephone System was inadequate to finance future expansion: "The Bell companies are applying for rate increases in many states and will vigorously pursue this program."

Washington—Sen. Theodore F. Green (D-R.I.) chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, urging approval of the Senate's modified version of the Eisenhower Doctrine on the Middle East: "It is much more clear and forthright to state that the 'United States is prepared' to take action than to state only that the President is authorized."

On The Side

Have you an idea for a patent or invention? If so, you should read that remarkable book of helpful hints by M. Penn Laughlin titled "Money From Ideas." Has your wife come to the point where she feels she should give a thought to facial rejuvenation? That she would be happier if she appeared 15 years younger than she is? If so, she should read that interesting book titled "The Face" by Dr. Charles Will. And you, sir, are you interested in judging the comparative speed of thoroughbreds and wagering on your opinions? If you are not making as many visits to the cashier's windows as you like to, you should read that clever work by Les Conklin on handicapping titled "Pay Day At The Races."

Rides

Ever hear of a triple wedding ceremony with three sisters as the brides? Following this unusual event the three couples went on their honeymoons together. After that they all went to live together in an 18 room house. Three honeymoon couples in one house seems quite a crowd.

Asking

Queries from clients. Q. Are you familiar with a comic song titled "The Pig Got Up and Walked Away?" A. Only vaguely, sir. I believe it was introduced by Richard Carle. Am checking. Q. Just what is the so-called "Maiden's Prayer?" A. There are several prayers so referred to but the one most quoted is that of St. Catherine, the patron saint of spinners. It is as follows: St. Catherine, St. Catherine, Oh, lend me thine aid, Grant I may never die an old maid, A husband, St. Catherine, A good one, But anyone is better than none, St. Catherine, Handsome, St. Catherine, Rich, St. Catherine, Young, St. Catherine, Soon, St. Catherine.

Briefly

It has been claimed by some deep students of the subject of heredity that the marriage of a man of 45 and a woman of 24 is most likely to produce an unusually intelligent child. Am asked what time I have dinner. The answer is seven o'clock. If I don't, get it right on the dot at that time I grow surly.

Song Writers

Harry Von Tilzer who wrote "My Old New Hampshire

Home" was from Michigan. Irving Berlin, composer of "I Want To Go Back To Michigan" was from New York. Egbert Van Alstyne who wrote "Back, Back, To Baltimore" was from Chicago. However, Paul Dresser, who wrote "On The Banks of The Wabash" spent his boyhood in the vicinity of that Indiana river. Also Charles B. Lawlor and James W. Blake, who wrote "The Sidewalks of New York," were both natives of that city.

Male and Female

What do women lose most? Answer is, of course, earrings. What do the ladies misplace most? As everybody knows, it is gloves. What do men lose most? It is umbrellas. What do they misplace most? That would be spectacles. Flo Ziegfeld began wearing spectacles when 45. He had 50 pairs, so if he misplaced one pair he always had another handy.

In the Bath

Are you a bathtub singer? If not, you should be. It is very good for health. Singing in the bathtub was originated by a lawyer. That was Lucius Annaeus Seneca, born 4 B.C. died A.D. 65. In one of his philosophic essays, Seneca said, "A man likes to hear his own voice in the bath." It is very interesting to note that at a period when the average span of life was 31, Seneca lived to be 69. Men who sing in the shower or bathtub are usually very relaxed. And relaxation is a great aid to longevity.

Joe Hosick Elected To Elks Club Post

The Medford Elks lodge last week elected Joe Hosick to the office of esteemed lecturing knight. He was elected to succeed Herb Robbins, who recently moved to Redmond. The special election was held Thursday.

MADLY IN LOVE

Columbus, Miss.—(U.P.)—James E. Allen's determination to make a date with a woman while she visited the Yellow Front Cafe landed him in jail today. Witnesses told police the itinerant worker appeared at the cafe clutching a stick of dynamite and said he would "blow up" the place if the woman did not give him a date.

LOOKS THE PART—Sue Bowman, 20, of Phoenix, Ariz., shown with her horse Mike, is the 1957 Queen of the Phoenix Championship Rodeo. She'll reign over the Valley of the Sun western festivities March 14-17.

IT'S ALL LEGAL—Carol Underhill, 18-year-old legal secretary, does a little lawful weight lifting as she reads for the summer convention of the National Association of Legal Secretaries when the new Tropicana opens in Las Vegas, Nev.

SIGNIFICANCE

Windsor Locks, Conn.—(U.P.)—Restaurant manager Lawrence G. LeMire gave 40 of his employees an all-expenses-paid one-week Miami Beach vacation, explaining, "My people deserved something significant in the way of recognition."

NOT SO WISE

Quincy, Mass.—(U.P.)—A snowstorm proved just too much for a baby brown owl. Apparently blinded by the heavy flakes, the bird took a dive down the chimney of John MacKenzie's home. Police later released the owl in a wooded area.

Elvis Presley Leads British Unpopularity

Stratford-On-Avon, England —(U.P.)—Three American names were highly unpopular in certain cultural circles of Britain today and Elvis Presley led the list.

The names of Presley and band leader Bill Haley were smeared in lipstick on William Shakespeare's statue. The lipstick won't come off.

In the college town of Eton, the name of Hamilton F. Forsythe, the well-known American modern-expression painter, also was mud.

A party was held in his honor last Saturday. Nearly all the Eaton school masters came. They didn't find out until the party was over that Hamilton F. Forsythe was a hoax, staged by the headmaster's daughters.
