

Red Raiders Aim To End Owl String

Asland — While the rest of the Oregon collegiate conference has carried on in an orderly fashion, the Oregon Tech Owl cagers have been luring opposing teams onto the "mile high" campus and pinning their ears back with decisive defeats. They own a league record of seven games won at home and three on the road.

Southern Oregon will attempt to break the Owls' home winning streak tonight when the Ashlanders journey for their last 1957 OCC game of the season.

If the Raiders accomplish their difficult objective, they will be the OCC crew to down the Owls on the OTI court in the OCC this year. Southern Oregon, as are Oregon college, Portland State and Eastern Oregon, is just about even in games won and lost at home and on the road. The Raiders divided with PSC, EOC and OC on the road and has divided with EOC, PSC and OTI and taken both from Oregon college at home.

Raider coach Ted Schopf will go with Dave D'Oliveo, Norman Oliva and Dale Bates. Bill Hollingsworth, who is in a bad slump, only getting 32 points in his last four games, and Chuck Crandall, who was near the top of the OCC in field goal and free throw shooting accuracy, may have to give way to Jim McAbee and Ted Tenney. Both turned in sparkling performances last week end after coming off of the bench.

Crandall who was averaging 14 points per game going into the Portland State series, canned one field goal in 20 attempts for just two points.

Hollingsworth, the OCC scoring ace, had a four-point performance each night and raised his output from 222 points to 230. Up until the OCE series last week end he led the loop with a 20-point average. He has dropped to an even 16 points per game.

The giant task facing SOC when they tangle with the Owls, will be trying to hold their scoring machine down under the season defensive average of the Red Raiders which is 62.9 points per game. In the last four outings, the Owls have rapped their opponents for 392 points, while allowing only 240 for a defensive average of 60.

Truman Williams, Jerry Fasten, Bob Frost, John McCutcheon, Ted Fischer, John Rhine and Gary Dorn have been the sparkplugs for the Owls this season. They may be in their familiar roles against the Raiders.

Basilio Has Favored Tag Over Saxton

New York — Despite his tender right hand, welterweight Champion Carmen Basilio is favored at 13-5 to beat ex-champ Johnny Saxton in their title "rubber match" at the Cleveland arena Friday night.

Their third fight for the 147-pound crown will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC, with a 100-mile TV black-out in the Cleveland area.

Friday's bout was originally scheduled for Jan. 18 but was postponed five weeks because of knuckle bruises that developed on the champion's right fist during training. However, the latest examination by Dr. M. H. Lambright of the Cleveland Boxing Commission said the hand was fit for action.

Saxton of New York took the title from Basilio of Chittanooga, N.Y., at Chicago on a very questionable decision, last March 14; but fiery Carmen recaptured the crown from Johnny on a ninth-round TKO at Syracuse, N.Y., Sept. 12.

Lopsided Licking
Basilio is heavily favored this time because he gave Saxton such a lopsided licking at Syracuse that the rounds voting before the ninth TKO was 7-1, 7-1, 7-1.

The week's boxing schedule also includes:

Tuesday: Miami Beach—Clarence Hinant vs. Yvon Durelle; White Plains, N.Y.—Rory Calhoun vs. Leroy Oliphant; Stockton, Calif.—Freddie (Babe) Herman vs. Steve Tony; Sacramento, Calif.—Joey Lopes vs. Noel Humphries.

Wednesday: Louisville, Ky.—Willie Pastrano vs. Johnny Holman.

Thursday: Billy Peacock vs. Rudy Garcia; Revere, Mass.—Pat McCarthy vs. Myrtle Olmstead.

Fullmer Gets 10 Round Decision

Denver — Gene Fullmer picked up his biggest paycheck today since becoming middleweight boxing champion of the world, and he didn't even risk his crown in Monday night's unanimous decision over Ernie Durando of Bayonne, N.J.

Fullmer, 25-year-old West Jordan, Utah, slugger, received 40 per cent of the $26,000 gate paid by about 7,000 fans in Denver's City auditorium arena. It was the largest gate in Denver fight history.

Linfield Has Loop Lead

By UNITED PRESS
Linfield was back in first place in the Northwest conference basketball race today thanks to some split-second accuracy by a sophomore from Coos Bay.

John Huggins connected with a long push shot with three seconds left last night to give Linfield a 74-72 victory over Whitman. It was the first win for Linfield on its invasion of the Inland Empire.

Savage, Macera Await Rematch

Grants Pass—Wild Bill Savage and Luigi Macera will engage in a winner-take-all match on this Friday's wrestling card at the Grants Pass arena.

The match was signed as the result of a free-swinging brawl last week in which both men suffered eye cuts. Aid of the law had to be summoned to stop the fight.

Pierre DeGlane and Alec Perez will mix in the prelim.
