

Miss Kay Jean Hyatt Wed To Nicholas Duane Smith

Miss Kay Jean Hyatt became the bride of Nicholas Duane Smith in a ceremony held Saturday, February 9, at Newman Methodist church in Grants Pass. The Rev. F. W. Werts officiated at the two o'clock afternoon double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester D. Hyatt of Grants Pass. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Smith, Bend, and has been making his home in Central Point. He is employed by Barnard's Floor Coverings in Medford.

Baskets of pink chrysanthemums and white stock with greenery and white candles decorated the church. The pew ends held white satin bows centered with pink chrysanthemums and huckleberry.

Miss Barbara Williams was soloist and was accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Schieferstein who also played the traditional organ wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Paris original gown from Maxane Couture made by Melle Monique. It was fashioned of white chantilly lace over net and taffeta in ankle length with pleated tulle flounce. The long sleeves tapered to a point at the wrist and her fingertip length veil fell from a crown of seed pearls formed in blossoms with net leaves. She carried white stephanotis encircling a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Phyllis Louise Hyatt was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a dress of pink nylon taffeta styled on princess lines with the scoop neckline trimmed with dark fuchsia velvet. The fuchsia accents were also on her accessories and her satin shoes were of matching color. She carried pink chrysanthemums and white carnations.

Miss Lou Ann Ringuette, Alpha Chi Omega sorority sister of the bride, and Miss Naida Smith, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses similar to the maid of honor's gown.

Thomas A. Moore, Phi Kappa Psi fraternity brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, while Michael Starling, also a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, and Phil Hyatt, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Society Announces Officers

Harvey Robertson was elected president of the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon at the board of directors' meeting Tuesday evening.

Other officers elected were William Seibert, first vice-president; Mrs. Royal Bebb, second vice-president; C. Rease Braley, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Scherzinger, secretary.

Committees were appointed in preparation for the spring concert, March 31. Mrs. Royal Bebb will be on the ticket sale committee representing the Philharmonic with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen Jr., and William Seibert. Publicity will be handled by Mrs. Charles Freeman and the Rev. John Bright, and Mr. Braley will head the finance committee. Dr. Marcus B. Woods will coordinate and integrate the Ashland activities.

Business manager will be Mrs. H. B. Cook and E. B. Hogan will continue as legal advisor.

A finance report was given by Mrs. Cook and the progress of the Guild's auditions for soloist for the Spring concert was also reported. Applications are still being accepted for the auditions that will be held February 28 at 8 p.m. in Hedrick Junior High school cafeteria. Interested women are asked to contact Mrs. Freeman, telephone 3-2961.

Mr. Robertson added that the Philharmonic Symphony orchestra belongs to the people of Southern Oregon and that the board of directors invites suggestions from interested people in the area for the improvement of the concerts.

The next meeting of the board of directors will be held April 4.

Adventist Ceremony Weds Pair

Miss Muriel Yvonne Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Otto Burgess, Grants Pass, became the bride of Vernon Carr Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lane, King City, Calif., in a ceremony held Sunday, February 17, at the Grants Pass Seventh-day Adventist church.

Elder L. E. Russell from Seventh-day Adventist Milo Academy, Canyonville, officiated at the eight o'clock evening ceremony attended by 200 friends and relatives.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Eagle Point High school. The bridegroom, a sonarman third class in the United States Navy, made his home in Shady Cove prior to entering the service.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a white lace gown over satin fashioned with fitted bodice and long full skirt. Her veil was held by a small crown of seed pearls. She carried red and white roses arranged in a heart shape on a white Bible.

Miss Carolee Burgess was honor attendant for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Carolee Pershall and Miss Barbara Conrad, Eagle Point, and Miss Anita Brownell, Naches, Wash. They wore white broadcated taffeta dresses with red net over-kirts and red ruffle around the scoop neckline. Their headdresses were white velvet and they carried white satin muffs decorated with red carnations.

Flower girl was Chelle Martin who wore a white dress with red accents. Vic Cady and Miss Peggy Keith were candlelighters. Miss Keith wore a red dress and had white carnations.

Lewis Tyce served as best man and William Littlefield, Lowell Wiester, and Robert Falkenburg seated the guests. Wayne Philpot was Bible boy.

The church was decorated with red carnations, white candles, greenery, and white hearts. Traditional wedding music was sung by the Medford quartet, Jim Kempster, Keitha Bixby, Arthur Edwards, Lowell Wiester, and Joe Hoyt.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Burgess wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Mrs. Lane wore a beige print dress with black accessories. Their corsages were of orchids.

Following the wedding a reception was held. For her traveling attire the bride chose a light green suit with white accessories. The newlywed couple left on a wedding trip to Quonset Point, R.I. where the bridegroom is stationed with the Navy. They will make their home in Hamilton, R.I.

Prior to her wedding the bride attended Milo Academy.

Club and Auxiliary To Honor Members At Birthday Party

Townsend club and auxiliary plan a luncheon and program Wednesday, February 27, for club members having February birthdays. Five members are celebrating the month. Men are to bring small cakes.

At last week's meeting 36 members and four visitors were present. Mrs. Enos Naffziger, the auxiliary president, presided over the business session. Mrs. Thorton Arnold, regular club president, read the Washington D. C. literature. Mrs. Lulu Stringer, auxiliary secretary for the past five years, resigned, and Mrs. Arthur Kelly was unanimously elected to finish out the unexpired term.

A trio of Miss Colleen Hope's dance students entertained with a variety of dance numbers after the meeting adjourned. The two clubs meet every Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. with a potluck luncheon at Carpenters' hall, 123½ West Main street. Visitors are welcome.
