Butte Falls Ceremony Weds Judith Casey, Keith Cooley

Butte Falls — Miss Judith Mariene Casey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Casey, Butte Falls, became the bride of Keith Allen Cooley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Cooley, Butte Falls, in a ceremony held Sunday, February 10, in the Butte Falls Community Bible church.

The Rev. Howard Simmonds officiated at the double ring rites held at four o'clock in the afternoon and attended by 150 friends and relatives.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and satin. It was fashioned with fitted lace bodice with lace apron over the floor length full satin skirt. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds, carnations, and stephanotis.

Miss Myrtle Rambo was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Jerry Sparling and Mrs. William Hartlerode Jr. They wore dresses in pastel shades and carried white carnations. Miss Judith Trivelpiece was candlelighter.

Little Carrie Backlund was flower girl and Russell Waldron, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Wayne Casey, brother of the bride, was best man while Richard Lee Jolliffe and Dwight L. Fredenburg seated the guests.

John Lusk played the traditional organ wedding music and John Drysdale was soloist. White chrysanthemums and stock decorated the church.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Pink and white carnations and fern with white candles decorated the rooms for the reception and a handsome table cloth covered the bride's table. Mrs. Richard Lee Jolliffe was in charge of the guest book.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a geranium colored costume with gray accessories. After a wedding trip to Reno, Nevada, the bridegroom will return to San Diego, Calif. where he is stationed with the United States Navy. The bride will make her home with her parents.

The bride attended Butte Falls schools and is employed by Harry and David, Bear Creek orchards. The bridegroom was graduated from Naches, Wash. schools and was employed by Medford Corporation prior to enlisting in the Navy.

Relatives of the bride that attended the wedding include Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trivelpiece, Yreka, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Evans, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Casey, Shady Cove, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kimble, Coos Bay, aunts and uncles; Mrs. Mary Carpenter, Spokane, great-grandmother; Mrs. Gladys Whitney, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Leabo, Shady Cove, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Casey, Medford, grandparents; and cousins, Robert W. and Judith Trivelpiece, and Dale, Danny and Mike Casey.

Relatives of the bridegroom from out of town that attended the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Waldron, Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Williams, and Elton Waldron, all of Medford, aunts and uncles; and cousins Dorothy and Michele Waldron, and William Williams.

Medford friends of the newlyweds at the wedding were Mrs. Iva Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Abbott, Miss DeAnn Abbott, Miss Barbara Kilpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tungate and family, Mrs. Florence Best and Sharon Best, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaw and Lynette and Johnny Shaw, Miss Ailene Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sparling and Mike Sparling.

Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Berg-

Today is Heart Sunday, and a group of Medford women will conduct a house-to-house campaign today to raise money for the Heart fund. They will ring doorbells beginning at 1 p.m. and will carry envelopes in which the contributions are to be placed. If householders are not at home, envelopes will be left. It is stressed that the envelopes may be sealed, and need not be signed; any size contribution will be welcomed. Captains of the drive are (left to right) Mrs. Paul Antony, Mrs. Manville Heisel, chairman of the women's division, Mrs. Paul Norris, Mrs. David Dwyer and Mrs. Daryl Farnham. Larry Horton is general chairman of the Heart fund campaign.
