Truman on Way Home After Rest in Florida

Mr. Truman ended his holiday by collecting $40,000 at a $50-a-plate lunch here Monday for the Truman Memorial Library in his home town.

Mr. Truman, who will be 73 in May, got plenty of sunshine in his vacation in the Florida Keys, despite taking time out to make four speeches, one a major address on foreign policy.

He went deep sea fishing at least three times, but confessed that "Bess (Mrs. Truman) caught all the fish."

Versatile Artistry Displayed by Soloist

By RICHARD D. WERNER

Claramae Turner sang last night at Medford High school auditorium for members of the Jackson County Civic Music association.

But actually, she did more. She displayed a uniquely versatile artistry enhanced by a keen intelligence, and a high order of histrionics coupled with a magnetic personality.

Her first group in English was excellent, especially the Appalachian mountains folk song, "Black is the color of my true love's hair." The phrasing was of a high order.

The German group of Mahler and Strauss was superb. Miss Turner's delineation left nothing to be desired.

"Les Lettres" from Massenet's opera, "Werther" brought out a strong and intense dramatic quality which was enthralling. We would have been happy if she had immediately repeated it.

In her Spanish group Miss Turner brought forth a true Moorish coloring which was a delight. The aria from "The Medium" by Menotti, though not great music, was made to sound great by her dramatically understated acting.

In the final English group, Miss Turner displayed another facet of vocal tone coloring of which she has many.

She delighted her audience and won them by purely musical means, tonal coloring, interpretation, musicianship, phrasing and a personality warm and vital.
