Dance Announced At Youth Center Saturday Evening

Talent—Directors of the Talent youth center will sponsor a youth rally dance from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Saturday, March 2, at the Talent city hall.

Contests in jitterbug, hop and waltz will be held with prizes awarded to the winning couples. A special prize is also planned. The Downbeats, local teenage swing band, will furnish music, and refreshments of doughnuts, punch and coffee will be available.

Though there will be no admission charge, donations will be accepted. After initial cost of the dance is deducted, proceeds will be given to the Music Boosters club to help defray expenses of the Talent High school band's trip to Eugene.

DUTCH TREAT

New York—U.P.—The Pennsylvania Dutch have a way with tomatoes. They cut them in thick slices and sprinkle with a mixture of cinnamon and sugar. Serve cold as an accompaniment to a main course at dinner time.

Medford Couple Celebrates 59th Wedding Anniversary

Gold Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McMahan and sons, Steve and Douglas of Sardine Creek road, were hosts Sunday, February 24, for a dinner in observance of the 59th wedding anniversary of Mrs. McMahan's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Taylor.

The Taylors were married February 16, 1898 in Urbana, Ill. They are both 83 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor came to Medford in 1928, where they have lived since that time. Their home is now at 424 King street in Medford. He spent many years farming in the Rogue Valley. Mr. Taylor is no longer farming, however he is still self employed.

Four generations were at the McMahan home for the occasion. Those present were the Taylor's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor and their daughter, Miss Dona Taylor and son Lanny Taylor, Medford; The Howard Taylor's son and daughter-in-law, Cpl. and Mrs. Roger Taylor of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown and children, Mike, Bill and Rose, Cave Junction. Mrs. Brown is a daughter of the Howard Taylors; Mrs. McMahan is a sister of Mrs. Brown.

Other guests were Mrs. Margaret Burnham and Miss Sharon Frazier of Medford.

Mrs. O. K. Roughton, daughter of the honored couple who
