Globetrotters' Show Scheduled Tonight At Central Point

Tonight caps the season for Rogue valley basketball fans when the Harlem Globetrotters go against the Honolulu Surf Riders at Crater high school gym in Central Point. Game time is 8 o'clock and doors open at 6:30 p.m.

The Globetrotters are known the world over for their comedy antics on the basketball floor, as well as for their speed, ball handling and dead-eye shooting.

The seven-man Globetrotter squad averages six feet, 4 1/2 inches in height with Lee Garner the tallest at 6-11 and Bobby Milton the team's "shorty" at 6-1. The Surf Riders, on the other hand, will be at a disadvantage with a height average of a fraction over six feet. Three Hawaiians, Donald Ho, Hal Chartrand and Harvey Babetch, go six feet three while the shortest man is Franklin Muramoto at 5-7.

In signing the Surf Riders to oppose the Globetrotters, Owner Abe Saperstein wrote an incentive clause into the contract paying each Hawaiian a bonus catch had pushed the free market price up to $8.

Kim's boys can win. It has resulted in one victory in about every four games for the Honolulu team.

A six-act variety show, featuring some of the country's most outstanding night club talent, will be presented at half-time. To be seen are Bill Carroll and Rose, rope trick artists; the Great Elimar, slack wire specialist; Lilly Yokoi, trick bicyclist; Rolando, the "Aristocrat of Balance"; Jacques Cordon, unicyclist, and the Farias trio, hand balancers from Cuba.

Promoter Harry Chipman pointed out that there will be no reserved seats with tickets to be on a "first come, first served" basis. Advance ticket sales indicate that there will be a large number of tickets available when the box office opens at 6:30 p.m.

Hondo, Columbia—(U.P.)—Local officials froze the price of ice at $1.20 a hundred pounds Wednesday. Demands for ice because of a heavy annual fish catch had pushed the free market price up to $8.

FUTURE... Unlimited

Showing a champion... bringing home a blue ribbon from the fair is the favorite dream of many a farm boy. That's why he spends a good share of his waking hours helping it to come true.

He garnishes his calf's ground corn with minerals and molasses—wories if it isn't licked up clean. He spends hours teaching his baby beef to lead... combs and curries its gleaming coat until aching arms rebel.

Dreaming dreams and then working hard to make them come true is the American way. That's the spirit which transformed a wilderness into the world's most powerful nation in a little over 300 years. That's the manning which made a peace-loving nation the arsenal of democracy. That's the habit which makes our country the land of opportunity and great accomplishments.

Back in 1837, John Deere's dreams and dogged determination gave the world the first successful steel plow. This new plow unlocked the wealth of the prairie soil—created a new agricultural empire. Today, the John Deere organization is pioneering new frontiers—working to make the American dream of a well-fed world a reality.

Careful preparation and lots of perspiration still make dreams come true in America. For in this free land, life is what you make it—the future is unlimited.

PCC's Banned Aggregations Hope To Spoil Bear's Bid

By NEAL CORBETT
United Press Sports Writer

The University of California already has clinched the Pacific Coast conference berth in the NCAA regional basketball playoffs at Corvallis—but tonight the Bears start their battle to go as champions.

They have the inside track in the run for the conference title. However, UCLA, Washington and Southern California still figure mathematically, and there is nothing those three would like better than to show up the Bears.

All three were banned from the playoffs by NCAA edict, but they would still get plenty of satisfaction out of seeing California go north as "only second best" in the conference.

Defending Champion UCLA gets first crack tonight and Saturday at Berkeley—and the Bruins are so close that a victory tonight would put them in first place.

The hopes of Washington and Southern California involve much higher mathematics, especially in the case of USC.

A Few "ifs"

The Trojans could gain a four-way tie if: 1. They beat Oregon twice this week end; 2. They downed UCLA Tuesday; 3. They scored a double win over California next week; 4. California and UCLA split their series; and 5. Washington State split with Washington next week end.

And that's about as mathematical as you can get.

Washington's chances aren't quite that remote. If UCLA and Cal split, and Southern California defeats Cal and UCLA, the Huskies could grab the championship with a double win over Washington State next week.

This week's schedule, in addition to UCLA at California and Oregon at Southern California, finds Stanford at Idaho and Washington State at Oregon State. Washington is idle.

The PCC standings: California 11-1, UCLA 11-2, Washington 11-3, Southern California 7-4, Stanford 6-8, Washington State 4-8, Oregon State 3-9, Idaho 3-11 and Oregon 1-11.

Nats Keep Edge In NBA Campaign

By UNITED PRESS

The door closed a little tighter on the New York Knickerbockers today in their uphill battle to gain a playoff berth in the National Basketball association's Eastern division.

The Knicks rallied in overtime to beat the Boston Celtics, 122-121, Thursday night, but they failed to gain ground on the Syracuse Nationals, who ran off an easy 123-112 victory over the Fort Wayne Pistons.

The Philadelphia Warriors set a new league record by scoring 106 points in the first three periods while chalking up a 129-112 win over the Minneapolis Lakers. The Warriors bettered the old record of 104 they set last March 8 against the Boston Celtics.

Malin Raps Loggers 61-45 in 5B Tussle

Klamath Falls — Defending champion Malin high got the jump in the play-off for the District 5B basketball title by whipping Butte Falls 61-45 at Oregon Technical institute gym here last night.

The aggregations meet here tonight in the second game of the two-out-of-three series. If Butte Falls comes through, a third game will be contested Saturday at Ashland high. Malin won the Klamath-Lake county tournament and Butte Falls won the crown in Jackson county.

The Mustangs of Malin aim for their third straight B tourney berth. Butte Falls hasn't been to the B classic since its state championship year of 1942.

Lead Gained Early

Malin last night took an early lead in the fuss and kept it the rest of the distance. Quarter counts favored the Mustangs 16 to 7, 30 to 23 and 48 to 31. Bill Rajnus, starting a game for only the second time this season, was the outstanding player in the victory with 20 points and strong showing on the backboards. Al-len Myers and Dale Rick gave him strong support in both scoring and rebounding. Bill Irwin was the chief logger threat with 16 points.

HOCKEY

By UNITED PRESS

The Montreal Canadiens, who snapped the Detroit Red Wings' seven-year lock on the National Hockey League last season, were poised only four points away from the pace-setting Red Wings today in the current NHL race.

The Canadiens, backing up an air-tight defense with a slick attack, defeated the Red Wings, 3-0, Thursday night to move back into contention.
