Marriage Vows Reaffirmed By Couple During Reception

A reception was held at Zion Lutheran church Saturday evening February 23, in observance of the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip W. Gerhardt, 244 Mary street, Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Gerhardt were married in Minnesota February 21, 1907 and have made their home in Medford since 1921.

A ceremony of the reaffirmation of marriage vows was performed by the Rev. G. Herbert Hillerman. Standing with the Gerhardts for the ceremony were Mrs. E. U. Iverson of Pipestone, Minn., who was Mrs. Gerhardt's bridesmaid 50 years ago, and Mrs. Gerhardt's brother Leonard Halverson, of Sioux Falls, who also attended their wedding.

An unusual golden Friendship tree, created by Mrs. J. J. Gentry of Grants Pass, was featured in the decorations. Mrs. Chris Wolff was in charge of gifts for the tree.

Mrs. Gerhardt wore a navy blue crepe dress and navy blue hat trimmed with flowers, and her corsage was a golden orchid. The table was decorated with golden candles and the wedding cake was a tiered golden cake topped with love birds.

Hosts for the occasion were the Gerhardt's two daughters and son-in-law, Miss Harriet Gerhardt of Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. George Gentry of Grants Pass. They were assisted by women of the Lutheran guild, Mesdames Hansen and Marsh were in charge of refreshments, with Mrs. H. Lagesen pouring. Mrs. Carl Fichtner had charge of the guest book.

Out of town relatives here for the occasion besides Mrs. E. U. Iverson and Leonard Halverson, were Mrs. Hattie Wilson of Newell, S.D., sister of Mrs. Gerhardt, and Mrs. Lydia Gerhardt of Seattle, Wash., sister-in-law of Mr. Gerhardt. Nieces and nephews attending were Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Halverson of Redding, Calif.; Mrs. Gordon Halverson, of Pittsburgh, Calif.; and Mrs. Marshall Allen and daughter Lorena, of Seattle, Wash. Unable to attend was the Gerhardt's son, Charles, stationed with the Navy at Pearl Harbor, and his wife and child.

Many friends of the Gerhardt's gathered to congratulate them and wish them many happy years together. As a gift to the couple, colored pictures were taken by Jerry Miller during the reception.
