Arm Forces Newcombe to Leave Mound at Bum Camp

By UNITED PRESS The Brooklyn Dodgers are right back today where they were at the close of the world series—wondering "What's with Don Newcombe?"

The big 27-game winner and NL "most valuable player" walked off the mound during Monday's batting practice at Vero Beach, Fla., and complained of the same elbow soreness which he said bothered him in the series. Newcombe said the pain was not as serious as last autumn and he did not seem especially concerned over the ailment.

Dr. Harold Wendler, the club trainer also said he believed the injury was not serious although he conceded, "He'll have to take rest and heat treatment and there's really no way of telling how long he'll be sidelined."

Sore arm miseries also hit shortstop Ernie Banks of the

It could be a top drawer attraction when the Medford grade school teachers play host to the world champion girls' team, the All-American Red Heads at Hedrick gym at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, March 6.

The Red Heads, no ordinary team by any means—play men competition, every night of the week from October until May. Not only are the Red Heads capable of playing men teams, they beat them quite often, and have been doing just that for the past 17 seasons.

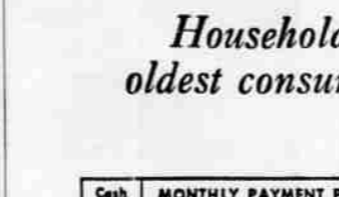

By far the most traveled team in girls' basketball, it's also the most popular team, nationally and internationally famous, the Red Heads have played to more than 5,000,000 fans in U.S.A., Canada, Mexico and the Philippine Islands in the past and played "Top of the World Tour" to Alaska in October, 1956.

The Red Heads have been featured in national publications like: Life, Collier's, Pic, Sporting News, Sports Life, Southern Coach, Athlete Graphic, Sir, Glance, etc. So when you pay your money to the game you're paying to see the queens of big time basketball.

The girls have acquired a fine reputation for mirthful comedy and novelty presentations along with good basketball. They display fancy passing and trick shooting.

The men's team, captained by Loren Soderlund, will represent the junior highs and the various grade schools of the district. Proceeds will go to the Medford City Teachers association for their fund to help sick or injured teachers.

RED HEAD PIVOT — Six-foot Jo Bollinger, above, plays pivot for the All-American Red Head basketball club which meets the Medford grade school teachers men's club at Hedrick Junior high gym on Wednesday night.

The pivot job is an important one and a big challenge for a girl playing against men. The Red Heads agree that Jo fills the bill for the position. She's big, rugged—and pretty.

RED RAIDERS TOP LC; SET FOR PILOTS

Milwaukie, Ore. — (U.P.) — The University of Portland meets Southern Oregon tonight for the right to enter next week's NAIA basketball tournament in Kansas City.

The Pilots and the Red Raiders came through with victories in opening round action last night before some 1200 fans. Portland came back strong in the second half to down Portland State 62-47 and Southern Oregon edged Lewis and Clark 63-58.

Portland State made a battle of it with the heavily-favored Pilots in the first half and trailed 35-29 at intermission. But in the second half Portland State went scoreless for an eight-minute period and found itself behind 53-31. Jim Armstrong of Portland led the scoring with 17 points while Jim Perkin had 13 for PSC.

Southern Oregon, with four players hitting in double figures, hit 441 from the field to defeat Lewis and Clark which hit 421 itself. No Lewis and Clark player had more than eight points.

The rebounding of Norm Oliva, who also had 11 points, was a big factor in SOC's win. Dave D'Olivo and Dale Bates each potted 16 for the winners while Bill Hollingsworth, who along with Bates, fouled out, had 11. Don Ward and Vern Michelson of the Pioneers also fouled out.

Moore May Set Fight

Detroit — (U.P.) — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore has until March 18 to sign for a June title fight against the winner of the Chuck Speiser-Tony Anthony bout.

Floyd Stevens, President of the National Boxing Association, laid down the law Monday and ordered Moore "to get something in writing without any further talks or postponements."

Moore originally was scheduled to meet Speiser here in April. But the 175-pound titleholder said he needed more time to train and the Speiser-Anthony bout was arranged for April 5 with the winner to meet Moore for the crown.

Both Iceland and Greenland are in the western hemisphere.
