To make exceptionally tasty hors d'oeuvres, fill pitted ripe olives with bits of green onion and wrap in flat anchovies. Fasten in place with cocktail picks.

Insurance Dividends Left On Deposit Not Tax Free

The internal revenue service has ruled interest earned on GI life insurance dividends left on deposit with Veterans Administration no longer is tax free, S. T. Brannock, officer in charge, VA office, Medford, has announced.

Interest accumulations should be reported on 1956 federal income tax returns as such, Brannock said.

Veterans benefits that are tax free and need not be reported in 1956 federal income tax returns include:

Dividends and all other proceeds except interest on dividends from GI insurance policies.

Education, Training — Education and training allowances for veterans of the Korean conflict period who are in school or training establishments under the Korea GI bill.

Subsistence allowances paid World War II veterans training under the original World War II GI bill.

Subsistence payments made to disabled World War II and Korean conflict veterans training under Public Law 16, the Vocational Rehabilitation act.

Disability compensation and pension payments received by veterans for service-connected nonservice-connected disabilities.

Grange Notes

Members of Enterprise Grange met with their Master, Gladys Boulter, Tuesday evening Feb. 27.

Reports were heard from HEC chairman Lottie Martin, $124.75 was turned over to the treasure from the sale of the Afghan. Mrs. Martin also reminded members to turn in their sales slips no reports were heard from chairman Chester Jensen on dairy or Grange insurance as he was attending the flood control meeting as a representative of Enterprise Grange.

Lectures David Blair discussed the present day legislative problems of taxation, discussing many of the bills pertaining to schools, education and their effect on property tax. He urged members to write to their representatives and to explain how they feel in regard to the bills mentioned. Only this way our representatives will know how to serve the people better.

Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. James Martin and Mrs. Enid Stone.

PROSPECT Early-Day Incidents Told

By GENEIL SPRUILL
Prospect — The Prospect PTA held their regular meeting in the school cafeteria on Tuesday, Feb. 26. Some incidents of the early history of Prospect were told by Mrs. Francis Pearson who was a member of one of the first families to settle in this area. She was born in 1885, the first girl to be born in Prospect. Her parents and a brother came from New Hampshire to Prospect and Mrs. Pearson received her early education here and later attended college at Ashland.

At the age of 18 she taught school in a one room cabin. She had about 30 students who ranged from four to 21 years of age. Boxes were used to sit on as there was no desks. After 26 years of teaching she retired in 1950.

College students home for the week end were Frank Artimire and Le Roy Struck.

Relatives visited Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Voyde Bliss, to help Mrs. Bliss celebrate her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Chandler have returned to their home at Cascade Gorge after spending 10 days at Santa Ana, Calif., visiting with Mrs. Chandler's parents. They also visited with Mrs. Ruth Hart who for many years owned and operated the Cascade Gorge store.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Potter, from Mesa, Ariz., have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gillespie. Other visitors at the Gillespie home were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilburn, Eddie and Karren Mattern and Kathy Large.

Miss Wanda Moore spent the week end with her girl friends Kathy Dilly and Mavis Couser at Eagle Point.

The St. Martha's Guild sponsored a pancake supper March 5th at the Community hall.

All members of the Prospect basketball team were honored Thursday with a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vannice. The team finished their regular season with a tie for second place. Jim Daniels and Don Vannice were chosen on the all star team and Leo Daniels received honorable mention.

There will be a work day at the Prospect Community club on Saturday, March 9. Everyone who is able is urged to come and help out as there are several jobs to be done. The project will start at 9 a.m. and workers are asked to bring their hammer and saw. A noon meal will be served by ladies of the community.

The high school will sponsor a smoker March 8 at the school gym. There will be 10 boxing matches put on by the Pal club, and a tag team match as well as the high school boys. Prices are adults 75 cents, students 35 cents and children 25 cents.

The eighth grade boys and girls and the seventh grade boys left Prospect Friday morning about 9:30 a.m. for Brookings for the district grade school basketball play-off. They beat Brookings 34 to 25. After the game and something to eat the girls went to their motel and the boys to the beach, where they pitched their tents and retired. Saturday morning they visited "Sea Wonders Alive."

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Blain and W. H. Stauffer accompanied the group. They returned to Prospect Saturday.

Glass containers are manufactured principally in about 100 factories in various cities in the United States.
