

Stilt, Jet Stand Out Choices Of United Press All-America

By HOWARD MILLER
New York (U.P.)—Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain of Kansas and Chet (The Jet) Forte of Columbia, the tallest and smallest of the nation's college basketball stars, were the outstanding choices today on the 1957 United Press All-America team.

The three other players honored in a nationwide poll of 281 sports writers and radio and television broadcasters were Lennie Rosenbluth of North Carolina's top-ranked Tar Heels; Grady Wallace of South Carolina, the major college scoring leader; and "Hot Rod" Hundley of West Virginia.

Chamberlain, the celebrated seven-foot Kansas center, is only the second sophomore ever to win a place on the United Press first All-America team. Tom Gola of LaSalle was so honored in 1953. The four other players are seniors. Stilt Most Popular Chamberlain was the most popular choice on the team, attracting 236 first-team votes and 39 for second. The gangling Jayhawk from Philadelphia thus was named on nearly 95 per cent of the ballots cast.

Forte, the amazing five-foot-nine Columbia backcourt sharpshooter, was not far behind Wilt-the-Stilt in the voting. The tiny Ivy leaguer, with 186 first-team votes and 68 for the second team, was mentioned on 90 per cent of the ballots.

Rosenbluth and Wallace each was a first or second-team selection of 78 per cent of the voters; Hundley was named on 55 per cent of the ballots cast.

Hundley Most Colorful Hundley, undoubtedly the most colorful player in this season's college crop, won the fifth position on the mythical team by a small margin over Elgin Baylor of Seattle.

Named to the second team with Baylor were Charlie Tyrus of Louisville, Jim Krebs of Southern Methodist, Little Gary Thompson of Iowa State and Joe Gibbon of Mississippi.

The United Press All-America is selected strictly on the votes cast by the writers and broadcasters.

UCLA Keeps In PCC Chase
Los Angeles (U.P.)—UCLA remained in the running for the Pacific Coast Conference basketball crown today after winning a crucial contest over the University of Southern California by a 65-55 score.

UCLA's victory over its cross-town rival Tuesday night was the last game of the season for the Bruins and gave them a season record of 13-3. They still can win, tie or finish third in the PCC depending on the outcome of remaining games to be played by other teams.

California, leading the race with a 12-2 record, will have plenty at stake when it faces SC Friday and Saturday, Washington, in third place with an 11-3 record, plays Washington State on the same nights.

Bruins Top PCC Scoring Statistics

Los Angeles (U.P.)—Pacific Coast Conference basketball statistics released today showed UCLA ahead in both scoring and free throw shooting.

The Bruins lead in scoring with a 74.4 point average to 7.4 for Southern California and 7.0 for Washington. In free throw shooting, the Bruins have connected on 372 of 510 attempts for 73 per cent.

Defensively, California is on top, having allowed foes 58.1 points per game. Washington has held opponents to the lowest percentage on floor shots, giving foes an average of but 32.6 per cent with 307 goals in 945 attempts.

From the floor Stanford is first-ranked with 41.2 per cent while the top rebounding team is Oregon State with 61.0 recoveries to its opponents' 51.4, or 54.2 per cent.

Washington's Doug Smart and Oregon's State's Dave Gambee dominate individual statistics. Gambee is ranked as the top scorer while Smart is first in field goals percentage and in rebounding. Gary Simmons of Idaho leads in free throws.

Gambee has averaged 22.2 points-per-game in his first 14 games by scoring 105 field goals and 102 free throws. Smart has scored 104 field goals in 185 attempts for a 56.2 percentage mark. In rebounding, he has recovered 192 out of 1,210 chances for a mark of 15.9 per cent.

Simmons has a mark of 90.6 per cent in free throws for a new conference record. The old mark of 87.6 was set in 1953 by Bob Matheny of California.

Gracie DeMoss Knots for Medal

St. Augustine, Fla. (U.P.)—Thirty-two women amateurs hoped a rise in the temperature would bring down their scores today in the first match-play round of the Florida East Coast golf championships.

Unseasonably cold weather, high winds and chilling rain sent the scores soaring in Tuesday's medal play round.

Defending champion Wanda Sanches of Baton Rouge, La., and former champ Grace DeMoss of Corvallis, Ore., tied for medal honors. But the best they could do was 79.

YANKS SEEK TUTTLE

Lakeland, Fla. (U.P.)—The New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers are negotiating a deal today that may wind up with Bill Tuttle as the world champions' left fielder. The United Press learned that the Tigers already have rejected an even swap of Tuttle for third-baseman Andy Carey but that Johnny Neun, one of General Manager George Weiss' chief troubleshooters, is continuing the negotiations with Detroit brass.

RED HEAD DEFENDER—Barbara Wells, 5-10, above, will show her defensive skill this evening when the All-American Red Heads, well-known girls' basketball quint, plays the Medford grade school teachers men's team at Hedrick Junior high gym. Barbara is the defensive ace of the Red Heads. She has long arms, a good shooting eye and determination. She is strong, fast and aggressive and will match her skill against the top man player of the teachers after the opening whistle at 8 p.m. The Red Heads, who have a world wide reputation for good basketball, will mix clever play with comedy, routines and novelties. They play only men's teams, use men's rules and win a major majority of their games. Red Head clubs have played in great cities and arenas since 1936. They have a reputation for getting crowds out for their clean, wholesome basketball sprinkled with humor.

Portland Pilots Rap Red Raiders 91-64

Milwaukie, Ore. (U.P.)—The University of Portland walloped Southern Oregon 91-64 last night to win a berth in next week's NAIA tournament in Kansas City.

Lewis and Clark whipped Portland State 73-59 in a preliminary.

Southern Oregon gave Portland a battle throughout most of the first half and the score was

Dons Take CBA Diadem

San Francisco (U.P.)—The University of San Francisco Dons, unranked in the United Press coaches ratings this year, won their third straight California Basketball Association title Tuesday night by swamping St. Mary's 62-41 in a contest that was expected to be nip and tuck.

As a result of the victory, the Dons get a crack at an unprecedented third successive NCAA championship. They go into the NCAA regional playoffs at Corvallis March 15, where they will meet the winner of Monday's playoff game between Idaho State, the Rocky Mountain Conference champion, and Texas Western, Border Conference kingpins.

Grants Pass Jayvees Win

Grants Pass High junior varsity cagers got the help of Tornado coldness last night to get a big jump and went on to trip the Medford Jayvees 40 to 32.

The Medfordites failed to make a point in the first 11 minutes of the game and their first counter at that time was a free throw by Ron Peery.

Quarter scores favored GP 9 to 0, 20 to 9 and 34 to 20. Paul Lindquist had 17 points for Grants Pass and Terry Hamilton 10 for the Junior Tornado.

Portland (U.P.)—Bruce Olson, 260-pound heavyweight boxer injured last Saturday night in a bout with Ewart Potgieter, was removed from the "critical" list in a local hospital today but remained in serious condition. Attendents said he was responding to treatment.

LA Group Meets With Dodgers

Vero Beach, Fla. (U.P.)—Los Angeles makes its big "pitch" for the Brooklyn Dodgers today when Mayor Norris Poulson and other civic officials meet privately with Dodger President Walter O'Malley.

After an inspection tour of the Dodgers' training base here, Poulson and his associates were to be whisked away to a hunting and fishing lodge deep in the Cypress swamps where they'll discuss the franchise with O'Malley.
