

BOWLING TOURNAMENT ACTIVITY—This picture of participants and spectators taken last week end during the Oregon State Women's Bowling association tournament at Medford Bowling lanes is being duplicated, but with different faces, this week end in the final competition of the 15th annual event.

Doubles and singles contention throughout the day today wraps up the tournament which opened on Feb. 2. Medford has been host this year for the first time to the OSWBA meet. A 9:30 a.m. breakfast and annual meeting at the Medford hotel is one of the concluding day's functions.

Prineville Ladies Set Doubles Record Of 1148 in State Bowling Tournament; Rivalry Ends Today on Medford Lanes

Two records were smashed and two new doubles leaders established Saturday in the Oregon State Women's Bowling association tournament at Medford Bowling lanes and a new all-events front runner emerged from Friday evening clatter of balls and pins in the 15th annual competition.

Ford Top PGA Earner; Palmer 2nd

Dunedin, Fla. — (U.P.) — Old Pro Doug Ford, who almost took up baseball instead of golf, held onto the lead today as the top money winner on the PGA circuit, according to figures released by the PGA.

Another Central Oregon duo, Bernie Bartel and Lillian Moreland, Redmond, took over the Class B leadership Saturday. They carded 1035, took wrest No. 1 position from Sis Beck and Helene Culy, Medford, who only Friday had rolled 1025 to gain the spot.

Mrs. Swoape Has 1537 New all-events first place holder after Friday was Audrey Swoape, Medford, bidding with a 1637 for a third crown in that Class A category of the tournament. She won the honors in 1946 with a 1633 and in 1947 with 1540.

Article Wilson rang up scores of 193-202-100-594 and Carol Duzan 208-166-180-554 in their stellar performance Saturday. They bettered the old class A mark of 1111 set by Alice Brannon and R. Sullivan, Portland, in 1950 and equaled in 1954 by Mary Circle and Anita Baughman.

The doubles record busters took over the lead from Kathy Sasaki and Doris Allen, Portland, whose 1103 rolled for several weeks.

Mrs. Swoape on Friday added 342 in doubles and 538 in singles to the 557 she hollid a week ago for Trail Creek Lumber company. She is a 160 average player. The all-events lead was taken from Joy Fletcher, Portland, who had a 1606.

There were no changes among top 10 in Class C and D doubles Friday and Saturday. In Class A Lorraine Shisler and Ruby Callison, Eugene, went into fourth with 1060 and Gwen Giovannini and Faith Erickson, Prineville, into eighth with 1030.

Class A singles Friday action saw Anna Dale Bohannon, Medford, assume third position with 596. In Class B over the first two days of the final week end Rea Mae Jones, St. Helens, and Gail Waring, Coos Bay, knotted with 5275 with fifth place holder Thelma Larson, Grants Pass, Helen Teel, Grants Pass, tied for ninth with Norma Muench, Grants Pass, with 521.

In Class D singles Jean Sims, Valselet, assumed fifth with 447 and Tex Mitchell, Lebanon, eighth with 440.

New faces in Class A all events top ten were Bernice Elliott, Coos Bay, fifth with 1601, Lillian Moreland, Redmond, seventh with 1589, and Mable Clark, Medford, ninth with 1580. Mert Donocan, Lebanon, took over 10th in Class C with 1330.

Tenmile Lakes Discussion Set

Coos Bay — (U.P.) — Experts from both the state game and fish departments are scheduled to discuss the controversial proposal to poison Tenmile lakes at a public hearing here Monday night.

Sportsmen of this area have strived for several years to have the lakes poisoned to rid them of warm water fish. The game commission adopted a plan to undertake the project this spring.

The fish commission vetoed the plan, however, contending that the project needed more study and that the game commission could not act without its approval in that the waters also contained migratory run fish.

Texan's Claim on Elephant Kill Disputed

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Archery expert Howard Hill has disputed a Texan's claim that he was the first person to kill an elephant with a bow and arrow.

Hill referred to recent reports that William Negley, of Houston, Tex., killed two African elephants as the result of a $10,000 bet.

VA Installations Hold Pin Tussle

Camp White — Eleventh annual bowling tournament for hospitalized veterans, some of whom bowl from wheelchairs and litters, is underway in Veterans Administration hospitals and domiciliary homes from coast to coast.

Competitors won't face each other person-to-person, he said. Instead the tournament is being conducted entirely by mail.

The Bowlers Victory legion will compare the scores and select the winners in each of the contest's seven divisions. The Legion also will provide awards, to be presented later to the winning teams as well as to the individual team members.

ELKTON, ECHO ADVANCE TO B PREP CAGE FINAL

Bend — (U.P.) — Elkton and Echo posted Friday night triumphs to enter the Saturday night finals of the Oregon Class B high school basketball tournament here.

Echo, the surprise team of the tourney, knocked over an unbeaten quintet for the second night in a row Friday with a 73 to 60 win over Sisters. Elkton advanced into tonight's finals with a 63-43 win over Jefferson.

Malin and Knappa won the right to battle it out for fourth place honors. Malin, the 1956 champion, scored a 79-57 win over Union in the consolation bracket Friday and Knappa rolled over Coburg, 73-58.

Individual star of the second day's action was once again Bob (Pudgy) Hunt of Knappa. The 6-4 center set a new individual game scoring mark with 45 points yesterday, shattering the existing mark of 43 he had set a year earlier.

Saturday night's schedule also matched Sisters and Jefferson in a game to decide third place.

Hunt Grabs Lead In B Score Race

Bend — (U.P.) — Bob (Pudgy) Hunt, Knappa's 6 foot 4 inch all-star, was far out in front in the individual scoring race after Friday games in the State Class B high school basketball tournament here.

Hunt scored 45 points, a new tourney record, against Coburg yesterday to bring his three game total to 84—an average of 41.5

Harold Duncan of Elkton was second with 51 points while Mike Ramos of Echo trailed in third place with 39.

Susick Quits Marshfield Gridiron Job

Coos Bay — (U.P.) — Pete Susick, highly-successful football coach at Marshfield High school, said today he was leaving Coos Bay to take a coaching position at the University of Washington.

Susick, a former Washington football player, said he expects to move to Seattle in the next two or three weeks.

His exact position on the Husky coaching staff under new Head Coach Jim Owens was not certain. Susick said he would be "just an assistant."

Susick, who played high school football at Marshfield's arch-rival North Bend, led the Pirates to 35 games without a defeat. Under his coaching, Marshfield tied South Salem for the 1954 state championship, then won the title outright in 1955 and 1956.

NCAA West Regional Has No Favorite

Oregon State College, Corvallis — Big annual college basketball show of the west—the western regional National Collegiate Athletic Association championships — starts for the sixth consecutive year at spacious Gill Coliseum next Friday night, with the oddsmakers completely stumped as to whom to establish as favorite.

For the first time in years, the field is that closely matched. The University of San Francisco was heavy favorite to sweep each of the last two tourneys, and after winning here easily grabbed the national crown a week later.

As matters now stand, three clubs definitely are "in" for the Corvallis affair. California's able Bears will represent the Pacific Coast conference, after their best season since 1953 when they lost to Washington and just missed the playoff here.

And there's Brigham Young, ruler of the mountain states (Skyline) conference. The Cougars won their gonfalon the hard way, but they won—and will be tough to handle here by anyone.

The third team definitely slated to appear is USF, the defending national champion, who clinched the California Basketball Association crown again.

Their record doesn't match Don quints of the past two years, but they still have a mighty potent outfit and could cause anybody trouble on a good night.

The fourth slot will go to either Idaho State, the impressive Rocky Mountain conference champion, or Texas Western, the Border conference titlist. Those clubs go into a one-game playoff at Idaho State's home domain in Pocatello next Monday night to determine the Corvallis entry.

Friday night pairings sent USF against either Idaho State or Texas Western in the 7:30 p.m. game, with California taking on Brigham Young in the 9:30 p.m. encounter. For the first time in years, seats are available to everyone, and can be purchased over the counter or through the mail at Gill Coliseum 103, Corvallis. Business Manager Jim Barratt advises fans to purchase tickets early, however. All seats are reserved.

Rogue Valley To Be Host For Pro-Am Links Tussle

Rogue Valley Country club will be host on Tuesday, March 19, for the final day of the second annual tri-city pro-amateur progressive golf tournament.

The event will open on Sunday, March 17, at Laurelwood Country club. Golfers will move to Roseburg Country club for play on Monday, March 18.

At least 20 professionals are expected to make the three-city swing, coming from a number of Oregon communities. Each pro will pair with four amateurs each day and competition will be in fivesomes.

There will be daily and cumulative gross prizes for pros and amateurs. With Laurelwood putting up $300 and Roseburg and Rogue Valley each $200 there will be $700 in cash awards for professionals. Each club will utilize half of its purse on its own portion of the competition.

Ed Oldfield, ex-Medford high all-state linksman and now professional at the Roseburg club, was overall winner last year.

Joe Mozel, then of Lloyd's, Portland, now of Green Hills club in the San Francisco area, won the professional honors in the competition at Rogue Valley.

In the pro-am here Glen Spivey, Rose City, Portland, pro, and Larry Butler, Medford, and Al Williams, Rogue Valley pro, and Justin Smith Jr., Medford, tied in 1956.

ABC Starts 54th Meet

Fort Worth, Tex. — (U.P.) — The 54th American Bowling congress tournament, in the Southwest for the first time, got under way on its 51-day run shortly after noon yesterday with the first of 1,553 booster division teams in action.

Before the final ball is rolled April 28, some 15,000 men will have had a crack at the $220,000 prize money and at the championships won last by Bill Lillard of Chicago, a southpaw George Wade of Steubenville, Ohio, and the Chicago Falstaffs.
