Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Washington, California, Oregon State, Southern California and Washington State each placed one man on the official 1957 All-Pacific Coast Conference basketball team announced today by the PCC commissioner's office.

Sophomore Doug Smart of Washington was the only unanimous choice for the team, but voting for the positions by head basketball coaches of the nine conference schools was spirited and "found strong support for no less than 10 men."

Steve Bilko Clobbers 3 Homers in Practice

Los Angeles, Calif. — (U.P.) — Big Steve Bilko showed signs today of leading the Los Angeles Angels to their second consecutive Pacific Coast league pennant.

In the opening of spring practice at Wrigley Field Tuesday, Bilko clobbered three over the wall. Bilko was the PCL's most valuable player last year with 55 homers.

Clay Bryant, new field manager of the squad recently acquired by the Brooklyn Dodgers, said at least 10 more players were due to report today or later this week.

BERNIER STILL HOLDOUT

Anaheim, Calif. — (U.P.) — Hollywood Stars Manager Clyde King expressed satisfaction today with the control of his pitchers and the over-all condition of his team. Fiery outfielder Carlos Bernier, a Stars holdout, still has not reported for spring training. A total of 35 players now are working out at the Hollywood headquarters here.

Pittsburg Rated As No. 1 Surprise Team

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburg Pirates are picking up this spring right where they left off in 1956 as the No. 1 surprise team of the major leagues.

With four straight victories, Manager Bobby Bragan's hustlers are the only team still unbeaten in Grapefruit League competition and they're playing no favorites. They've beaten the Philadelphia Phillies twice and the Washington Senators and Cincinnati Redlegs once each.

The Pirates made it four in a row Tuesday when they beat the Redlegs, 6-4, on a two-run seventh inning homer by rookie outfielder Dick Stuart. It was the second homer of the spring for Stuart, a 6-foot-3, 200-pounder who walloped 66 homers and knocked in 158 runs at Lincoln, Neb., last year.

Scatter Run Hits

Roman Mejias, another rookie outfielder who played for Hollywood in the Pacific Coast league last season, helped spark the Pirates with four hits in as many tries. Jackie Brown, Bob Garber and Irlson King combined to limit the Redlegs to seven hits including a homer by Ed Bailey.

A pair of brilliant 1-0 pitchers' duels highlighted the other games played on the fourth day of competition in the citrus circuit.

The Boston Red Sox got six-hit pitching from a quartet of young hurlers and finally beat the New York Yankees when they pushed over a run in the 13th inning. Warren Spahn, Gene Conley and Red Murff collaborated in a two-hit effort to give the Milwaukee Braves the other 1-0 decision in a nine-inning game with the Detroit Tigers.

Cardinals in Romp

Wally Moon hit a two-run homer and Del Ennis a three-run homer as the St. Louis Cardinals continued their heavy spring slugging with a 12-4 romp over the Kansas City Athletics. The Cardinals broke open the game in the seventh inning when five walks by Wally Burnette and two hits enabled them to score six runs.

Jim Hearn, making his first start for the Philadelphia Phillies, yielded only a homer to

Glove Champ Plans Nontitle Victories

Houston, Tex. — (U.P.) — Joe Brown, the little-known lightweight champion of the world, plans to see if he can add a few more nontitle victories to his streak of nine straight wins before defending his crown again.

Brown took his ninth in a row Tuesday night with a split decision over Armand Savoie, an obscure and unranked Canadian.

There were no knockdowns, although both fighters were slightly cut. Brown moved in and slugged more often and effectively than Savoie and therefore won the fight in the opinion of Judge Bill Cornelius, who scored it 100-91 for Brown, and Referee Jimmy Webb, who gave it to Brown 99-98.

Judge Joe Lott differed, scoring Savoie 96 to Brown's 95. The United Press scored it Brown 98, Savoie 91.

Jack Hasler Wins Motorcycle Race At Crescent City

Crescent City, Calif. — Several hundred motorcycle fans braved inclement weather here last Sunday to see Jack Hasler, Grants Pass, take first place trophy as the overall winner in a motorcycle race sponsored by the Rogue Valley Riders, motorcycle club of southern Oregon.

Second place went to Bob Kithun, Grants Pass, and Charles Dorn, Grants Pass, and Harry Elledge, Rogue River, tied for third.

Horner Howell, Rogue River, won first place in the half-mile beach drag race. Jack Hasler and Harry Elledge tied for first place in the general field meet.

A total of eight trophies were awarded to motorcyclists.

Hangin' Five, Dougs, Champs

Doug's Mugs "22" and the Hangin' Five "43" are champions of the National and American leagues respectively of Saturday basketball league competition composed of 96 students from Medford High school.

The championship play-off games were held last Saturday. Each league champion will receive a trophy to be kept in the school trophy case.

National league runnersup were Misfits "20," second place; Houn Dogs "32," third place; and Pond's Pounders "30," fourth place. Sheiks "22" took second place in the American league.

High school attendance at the league games, held over 11 Saturdays, totaled 770 students, it was reported. Twelve teams participated in the two leagues.

HOCKEY

By UNITED PRESS

The revenge-enticed Detroit Red Wings held a five-point lead over the Montreal Canadiens today in their down-to-the-wire battle for the National Hockey league pennant.

Dethroned as league champions by the Canadiens last season, the Red Wings concluded a lengthy six-game road trip Tuesday night by edging the Black Hawks, 4-3, at Chicago.

Alex Delvecchio was the big gun for the Red Wings, scoring two early goals and then assisting on the decisive tally by Lorne Ferguson in the third period. Following Ferguson's goal, Forbes Kennedy, Nick Michoski and Helo Lande scored for Chicago to make it close.

In tonight's only action, the New York Rangers can clinch the fourth and final playoff spot by defeating the Boston Bruins at Madison Square Garden.

RAMS GET SMITH

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Don Smith, a 230-pound tackle from Miami of Ohio, has signed with the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League. Coach Sid Gillman said Smith would be tried as an offensive guard.
