Elk Lumber Company Awards Scholarships To Three Students

The Elk Lumber company scholarship committee Monday awarded three additional $300 scholarships to graduating seniors in southern Oregon.

The scholarships are for students planning to enter Williamette college or Lewis and Clark college next fall.

Gregory Earl Milnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Milnes, 15 North Groveland ave., was awarded a scholarship to Williamette university. He has been active in speech, choir, band and dramatics at Medford High school. He was on the debate team three years and a finalist in several regional and state debate and speech tournaments.

Milnes has been a member of the high school Madrigal choir and was selected for the all-Northwest choir soon to perform in Boise, Idaho. He was also selected for all-state band in 1957, and carried the male lead in the high school operetta in 1954 and 1956.

Active Member
He has held class offices at Medford High school and was a finalist in the Boy's State race for governor. Milnes is an active member of St. Mark's Episcopal church, having been an acolyte for three years, treasurer and program chairman of the young People's Fellowship and for the past two years has been worship leader of the Interdenominational Youth Service in February.

Barbara Jean MacKay of Lakeview, who has been awarded a scholarship to Lewis and Clark college, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bennett MacKay. Her father is resident manager of the Lakeview Logging company.

Miss MacKay has served as treasurer of her class in the Lakeview High school, is a junior past honored queen of Bethel 47 in Lakeview and is an active member of the Lakeview Presbyterian church, where she teaches in the primary department and serves as summer organist. Living in her home has been an exchange student from Austria, whom she refers to as her "adopted sister." She now holds the highest scholastic record in her senior class.

University Band To Present Concert At Hedrick Tuesday

Eugene—The University of Oregon concert band under the direction of Robert Wagner will make a three-day tour, March 18-20. The band will play at Douglas High school in Roseburg March 18, in Grants Pass and Medford March 19, and in Bend and North Bend March 20.

The Medford performance will be held in Hedrick Junior High school gymnasium starting at 8 p. m. under the sponsorship of the Medford High school band. There will be no advance ticket sales for the concert.

Four Medford students are members of the band. They are Alexa Hibbard, Tommy Y'Blood, Richard Brown and Molly Walker.

First Trip
This will be the first trip to southern Oregon by the concert band under Wagner's direction. The University of Oregon concert band has gained a reputation as an outstanding college band. Dr. Edwin Frank Goldman ranked the Oregon band as one of the best in 1955.

The concert band is a select group of 60 musicians who have auditioned for placements in the band. The instrumentation of the group is of symphonic proportions, using all wind instruments including English horn, several bass clarinets, recording tubas, etc.

The band's repertoire includes almost all types of literature: military marches, Broadway tunes, and most of the latest symphonic band repertoire.

Wagner has been conductor of the group for seven years.
