Russia, East Germany Agree on 22 Divisions

Berlin —(U.P.)— Soviet Russia and East Germany have signed an agreement providing for keeping 22 Russian divisions in Communist Germany.

A Soviet division is estimated to number some 10,000 men.

An East German Foreign Office spokesman told newsmen the agreement for continuance of the troops would "prevent" attacks on the Communist dominated German People's Democracy and other members of the "socialist camp."

Forest Regulation Measures Become Law

Salem—(U.P.)—Two bills changing regulations covering Oregon forest administration were signed into law yesterday by Gov. Robert D. Holmes.

House bill 158 relates to the protection of forest land and House bill 159 recognizes different principles of forest conservation practices for eastern and western Oregon areas.

The second law gives the State Board of Forestry power to revoke logging permits for refusal to comply with conservation regulations.

ManyPro-Segregation Organizations Formed

Chicago—(U.P.)—More than 50 pro-segregation organizations have been formed since the 1954 U. S. Supreme Court de-segergation decision and are active today in the South, according to a study made by Nation's Schools, a professional school administration journal.

The publication said the pro-segregation organizations total 250,000 members.

According to Dr. Glen Robinson, of the George Peabody College for Teachers at Nashville, Tenn., the major pro-segregation groups seem to have flourished during periods in which many white southerners feared that the peace and welfare of their communities were in danger.

"Assumptions that members of the major pro-segregation organizations are largely irresponsible persons seem unsubstantiated, since their members range from public officials and college professors to rabblerousers and crackpots," Robinson wrote in the magazine.
