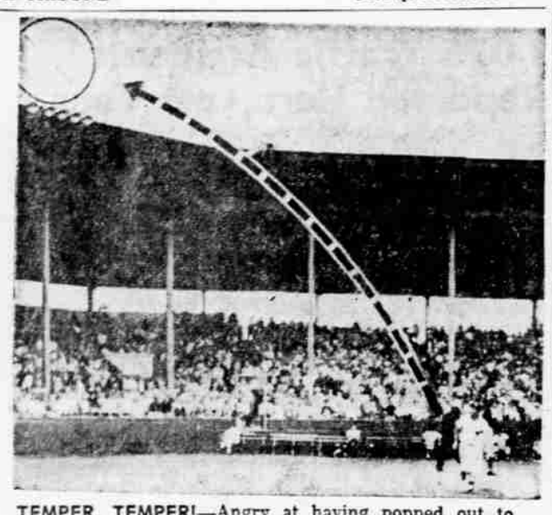
Sports Broadcasts

Radio station KYJC will carry the Lincoln-North Salem and Central Catholic-Eugene A-1 state high school basketball tournament semi-final games between 7:30 and 10 p.m. today. On Saturday KYJC will carry the state tourney finals at 8:45 p.m. If Klamath won its consolation semi-final this morning with Astoria, the station will air the finale in the consolation at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. If Klamath lost, it was planned to bring the tourney third place game at 7:30 p.m. At 11 a.m. on Saturday KYJC will bring the National Invitational tourney opener.

Television station KBES will carry the Ike Chestnut-Gil Cadilli boxing bout at 7 p.m. today and the NIT basketball action at 11 a.m. on Saturday.

WORMS CAUSE STIR

Lansing, Mich. —(U.P.)— Flint, Mich., bait dealers have complained to the State Conservation Department about "unfair competition." They asked for protection against little boys who are selling worms below the dealers' set price.



TEMPER, TEMPER!—Angry at having popped out to first base, Yankee Mickey Mantle flings his bat high in the air and nearly over the roof at Al Lang Field in St. Petersburg, Fla. Bat is circled at upper left. The Yankees were playing the Red Sox and lost, 1-0.

Pacific Luthern Advances In NAIA Cage Tournament

Kansas City, Mo. —(U.P.)— It will be top-seeded Pacific Lutheran of Parkland, Wash., versus Tennessee A&I of Nashville at 8 p.m. and Eastern Illinois of Charleston against Southeastern Oklahoma of Durant at 9:30 p.m. in the semi-finals of the NAIA Tournament tonight.

The Lutes displayed their prowess in eliminating Texas Southern, last year's runner-up her and seeded eighth in this event, 91-72 Thursday night.

Hopes Crushed

Southeastern Oklahoma, ranked seventh on the seeded list, crushed the hopes of a strong Youngstown, Ohio, team, 69-65 in the quarter-finals.

Eastern Illinois, only Cinderella team left in the tourney, turned back sixth-seeded Hamline of St. Paul, three-time winner of the NAIA crown 88-83.

The scrappy Tennessee outfit trailed most of the way in its 90-88 win over Western Illinois of Macomb in the other quarter-final.

Bill Skowron Test Delayed

St. Petersburg, Fla. —(U.P.)— Manager Casey Stengel's plan to test Bill Skowron as the New York Yankees' third baseman may have to be scrapped as a result of the husky slugger's fractured right thumb.

Dr. Sydney Gaynor, Yankee physician, ordered Skowron's thumb placed in a cast Thursday and estimated that he would be sidelinde a month. Skowron was hit by a pitch thrown by Jack Sanford of the Philadelphia Phillies in an exhibition game Wednesday.

Cadilli, Chestnut In Ring Scuffle

New York — (U.P.) — Featherweights' Gil Cadilli and Ike Chestnut, who provided a disputed thriller last October, meet tonight in a return 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

It will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC.

The wavering betting odds returned to "even money," but either speedy Gil of Los Angeles or aggressive Ike of New York could be favored at ring time.

Paul Arizin Gets Scoring Mantle

New York—(U.P.)—Paul Arizin of the Philadelphia Warriors today had his second National Basket ball Association scoring championship.

Arizin, who first copped the points crown in 1952, won this season's by a margin of 62 points over defending champion Bob Petit of the St. Louis Hawks. Pettit led the scoring race until the last three weeks when he was suffering from a fractured wrist.

Carol Heiss Eyes Crown

Berkeley, Calif. —(U.P.)— Carol Heiss, blazing to a "grand slam" in the world of figure skating, will cut loose in the free skating phase of the national championship tonight and to all intent and purposes capture her third crown of the season.

The saucy, 17-year-old blonde from Ozone Park, N.Y., had little trouble mastering the tough school figures Thursday which count 60 per cent of the scoring. She took first place in all six intricate maneuvers while the rest of the field of eight skimmed along in a private league of its own.

Miss Heiss, who already has won the world and North American titles, rolled up a total of 993.9 points for a whopping lead in the compulsory division. Second spot went to Joan Schenke of Tacoma, Wash., who had 12 ordinals and 938.5 points, while Claralynn Lewis of Colorado Springs was third with 16 ordinals and 923.2.

Titleholders Led By Anne Quast

Augusta, Ga. —(U.P.)— Pretty Anne Quast of Seattle, Wash., who alternates between college and the fairways, carried a one-stroke lead and a six-year-old precedent today into the second round of the Women's Titleholders Golf tournament.

Anne, a personable miss who plans to return to the University of Washington in April, matched men's par 72 in the first round of this 18th annual blue-ribbon event for women Thursday to become the first amateur to grab the lead over the first 18 holes since 1951.

HOCKEY

By UNITED PRESS

The only thing left to settle in the 1956-57 National Hockey league race is the lineup for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

The fourth and last playoff berth was decided Thursday night when the New York Rangers "backed in" by Montreal's 8-4 victory over the fifth-place Toronto Maple Leafs.

The loss left the Leafs 10 points in back of the Rangers with five games left to play.

Salem Man Selected 'Education Citizen'

Portland— (U.P.) —Gardner Knapp, school board member and businessman of Salem, was named Oregon's "Education Citizen of the year" for 1956 by the Oregon Education Association last night.

The award, which is presented annually in honor of outstanding contributions of non-educations to the advancement of Oregon's schools, was made at the OEA state convention banquet here.

Knapp served two years as state president of the Oregon School Boards Association and was a member of the Oregon delegation to President Eisenhower's White House Conference on Education in 1955.
