Harland-Freeburger Rites Held in Memorial Chapel

A ceremony Saturday, March 9, in Meeker memorial chapel, First Methodist church, wedded Miss Patricia Jean Freeburger to Dr. Robert L. Harland. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Freeburger, Route 1, Box 322, Gold Hill, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Harland, Red Bluff, Calif.

Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb performed the ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening, and Dr. Freeburger gave his daughter in marriage. The reception which followed was in the church parlor.

The bride's gown was of lace over pale blue net, fashioned ballerina style with very full skirt and princess bodice with long sleeves. Her tulle veil was held by a cap of sequins and she carried a cascade of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Beverly Burgoyne of Central Point was her cousin's only attendant. She wore a gown of pale aquamarine crystalette designed empire style with gored skirt and a long sash. She wore a band of aquamarine daisies in her hair and carried a cascade of white hyacinths.

Miss Gretchen Klomhaus, Rogue River, and Miss Donna Zeitler, Medford, lighted the candles. Their frocks matched that worn by the honor attendant and they carried candles in an aquamarine colored fluff.

Richard Harland, Chico, Calif., was best man for his brother, and ushers were Ted Hughes and W. Fred Johnson.

White chrysanthemums in baskets stood at either side of the altar, and the pew bows were of aquamarine daisies. Candelabra held lighted tapers.

For the reception Miss Klomhaus and Miss Zeitler served the wedding cake, and Miss LaRea Dennis poured punch. Mrs. W. Fred Johnson took charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a beige suit and matching accessories for the wedding and reception. Her corsage was a white orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue sheath dress with navy duster and accessories and a white orchid corsage.

About 50 guests attended the wedding and reception.

Dr. Harland and his bride traveled down the coast to San Francisco for their wedding trip, and will live at 512 South Holly street, Medford. For traveling the bride wore a beige sheath and duster with threads of gold and silver in the fabric.

Both Dr. Harland and his bride attended Pacific university and he is associated with Dr. Freeburger in the practice of optometry.

Mrs. Anna Barnes Chosen by Nurses; Candidates Named

The Nurse Nurse of the Month was announced at the last meeting of District 6, Oregon State Nurses' Association, and the king and queen candidates for the Pear Festival were elected by the group.

Miss Anna Barnes of Rogue Valley Memorial staff was selected as the nurse-of-the-month. Larry Barton, son of Mrs. Beth Barton, and Rhonda Demo, daughter of Mrs. Stella Demo, were chosen to represent the group in the Pear festival.

Ralph R. Ruffin, domiciliary officer at Camp White where the meeting was held, spoke on the purposes and functions of a domiciliary. The talk was followed by a question and answer period. Dr. William J. Plank, chief medical officer there, was chairman of a panel that discussed medical services. Other panel members were Miss Alayne Barrett, clinic nurse; Mrs. Vega Burns, staff nurse; and Robert E. Bailey, social worker.

The hostesses for the social hour were Miss Grace Stuhr, Miss Barrett, Mrs. Myrtle Brown, Mrs. Mary Gray and Mrs. Burns.

National Officer To Be Honored

Grand Madam President Chloe Honeycutt of the Fraternal Order of Eagles' auxiliary from Indianapolis, Ind., will be honored at a luncheon Thursday, March 21, at Eagles hall here.

Mrs. Honeycutt, who will be met at the airport by a delegation of the Medford auxiliary's officers, after the 12:30 o'clock luncheon, she will leave for Grants Pass and a meeting that evening.

The Medford auxiliary will not hold their regular meeting Thursday evening as the drill team, officers, and members of the auxiliary are invited to attend the Grants Pass meeting.

Mrs. Jim Peets is chairman of the luncheon committee.

Students Arrive For Vacation Here

Miss Jan Smith has arrived from Oregon State college to spend a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Niles B. Smith, 316 South Groveland avenue. Miss Barbara Kepner, Honolulu T.H., arrived Saturday to join Miss Smith, and the two will return to college next Sunday.

Both are members of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Medford Woman Retires as Head Of Junior Group

Mrs. Serena McMahan, new director for the Junior Degree of Honor, was introduced to the group at the meeting last week by the former director, Mrs. H. G. Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson, who was junior director for the group for 26 years, founded the Junior Degree of Honor here. She has been a member of the Degree of Honor group for 60 years and has attended the national convention in St. Paul, Minn., six times as an honored guest and the state convention 14 times in the same capacity.

The Junior Degree of Honor group was started with 8 members in 1931, Mrs. Wilson said, and now has 154 members. At one time, she added, the membership was more than 200.

Mrs. Wilson, who celebrated her 84th birthday Feb. 22, is a past state president and state secretary of Degree of Honor.

Mrs. C. Clara Gertson, president of the Junior group, spoke at the last meeting at which four new members were introduced.

The next meeting of the club will be April 13 at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Wilson will assist Mrs. McMahan for the present.

Altrusa Member Attends Meeting

Mrs. Fred Rankin left Friday to attend an extension conference of Altrusa District 12 held at the Hotel Winthrop, Tacoma, Wash., March 16 and 17. Altrusa clubs in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia were represented at this meeting presided over by Dr. Loretta Miller, district governor.

After the conference, Mrs. Rankin plans to spend a week in Seattle visiting friends and relatives. She will stop in Portland and Coos Bay on the way back to Medford.

Chapter To Honor Good Citizenship

HOW PERFECT IS PERFECT?

ALL diamonds, of course, are not perfect. One caret diamonds are being sold from $500 to $1,500, so it is obvious that the less expensive stones contain one or more flaws, either within the stone or the result of cutting.

ONLY trained eyes can detect the flaws in a diamond. That is why it is so necessary to get the expert opinion of a reliable jeweler when you seek the true worth of a diamond. That is why it is so important to KNOW the jeweler from whom you purchase a diamond. His training, experience and integrity are YOUR assurance of getting a good buy. LAWRENCE'S have been in business here in Medford for the past half-century. During these fifty years of successful business, this firm has won the full confidence of this community, through a long-established policy of fair and friendly dealings, and by offering only the finest of diamonds and jewelry. This is why YOU should always think LAWRENCE'S FIRST when you think of diamonds!
