Miss Norma Jean Bendickson Is Bride of Lawrence Krause

Flax cattalions and white stock decorated Bethel Assembly of God church Saturday, March 9 for the 8 o'clock evening wedding of Miss Norma Jean Bendickson and Lawrence Krause. The Rev. Lawrence D. Krause, father of the bridegroom, officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 325 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bendickson, 785 Wagoner avenue, Medford. The bridegroom is son of the Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Krause, 337 South Madison avenue, Medford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin with embroidered net overskirt that was styled with fitted bodice and full skirt which formed a broad train in back. A crown held her fingertip length veil and she carried a white orchid and lily of the valley on a white ribbon.

Miss Betty Lou Cook was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Betty Carol Gibson and Miss Velda Krause, sister of the bridegroom. They wore full length pink frocks of net overskirt and carried bouquets of pink carnations encircled with white lace.

Miss Betty Lou Cook was flower girl for her aunt and wore a pink frock and a fingertip length veil. Her dress was made by Mrs. Clyde Lees. The bride's dress was made by Mrs. Claude Jones, her sister. Candelighters were Pamela Jones, niece of the bride, and Gary Bendickson, brother of the bride. Gregory China was ring bearer.

Out of town guests for the ceremony were Jim Louis, Miss Deloris Young and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young, all of Sacramento, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bendickson, Seattle, Wash.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Los Angeles and Riverside and will make their home in Medford.

The bride is a senior at Medford High school. Mr. Krause is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed at F. W. Woolworth company.

Rehearsals Open Wednesday For Stedman Tribute Review

The "Salute to Bob Stedman," a musical review sponsored by Medford Footlighters in cooperation with the Medford school system and Medford residents, will move into full scale rehearsals next Wednesday evening at Medford High school auditorium, announces Mrs. Iva Burton, general chairman.

The production, a tribute to the high school drama coach, Robert D. Stedman, recuperating in a Portland hospital after a long illness, will open the evening of March 28 for two nights. The review, made up of a great variety of musical, dance and sketch numbers will never-the-less follow a single theme throughout. The theme, entitled "A Day on Delancey Street" was suggested by Footlighter actor Frank Buchter, who will appear as an actor in one sketch and serve as stage manager and director of crowd scenes for the show.

Musical direction and arrangements as well as first piano accompaniment will be handled by Ray Lewis, McLoughlin Junior High school musical instructor. Assisting him on the second piano will be Mrs. William Kennerly.

Paul Gandt, teacher in the Medford schools, will act as narrator for the foreign movie sequence in the show, Caesar Muzio will be heard in an accordion act; Colleen Hope will direct chorus numbers and participate in a dramatic dance number "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue" and Mrs. Stanley Zappell, who is substituting at the school for Mr. Stedman, will be a featured player in various acts throughout the show.

Appearing in a spotlighted song and pantomime number will be Mrs. Burton, while Larry Brunette, a Junior high school instructor, will enact the role of a singing Irish cop.

A girl's trio and a boy's quartet will sing throughout the show, and Russ Jamison, in the character of an Italian organ grinder, will keep the theme running as a sort of undercover master of ceremonies. Thayer Tarvin and Jerry Jerome from the Footlighters will take part in bookouts and skit numbers and Medford High school drama class will fill in as individual and group characters on Delancey street.

Handling radio publicity for the show will be DeVere Taylor, and Mrs. Max Wimmer will be in charge of properties.

Card Party Mrs. W. H. Arnold will be hostess for a Mistletoe club card party at her home on Arnold lane Wednesday, March 20. Dessert will be served at 12:30 p.m. with pinocle and canasta to follow.
