Firemen Rescue Woman From Ledge

Portland —(U.P.)— Portland firemen yesterday rescued a 44-year-old woman from a narrow ledge 35 feet above the ground where she had apparently fallen after slipping from a road above. Mrs. Julia Barnes lay helplessly on the narrow projection above the Cornell road tunnel until a fire department hook and ladder crew could reach her. Officers said she apparently had fallen through brush that grew along the road above. She was taken to a hospital for treatment of back injuries.

Medford Man Arrested After Car Accident

Harry Clair Hewitt, 62, of 2347 Howard st., Medford, was arrested by state police Saturday night and lodged in the county jail on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor after his car was involved in an accident on Highway 99 in north Medford. According to police, Hewitt's car was traveling north on the highway and made a left turn into the path of a vehicle operated by Deane G. Roberts, 33, of 345 West Pine st., Central Point. The vehicles collided and Roberts and his wife both suffered lacerations. They were treated at Rogue Valley hospital

Committee Argues Civil Rights Bill

Washington —(U.P.)— Southern members prepared today to wage a last ditch fight in the House Judiciary Committee to further water down President Eisenhower's Civil Rights bill. The committee resumed closed door consideration of the bill with a "firm agreement" among backers and opponents to complete action before the day ends. Southern members, who have complained of northern absenteeism during hearings on the measure, hinted they might challenge any proxy votes cast for missing members today. The Dixie congressmen feel full attendance of the 32 member committee improves chances of getting their amendments approved. They noted that their victories have been scored when most members were present.

Group Schedules Education Program

The board of directors of southern Oregon Operation Home Improvement met last week to lay final plans for a 13-week educational program to start about April 1. Stewart Orr, manager of 3 C's Lumber company of Grants Pass and president of the OHI board, announced that 81 firms, manufacturers and suppliers of home equipment and building materials at Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford are participating. Also participating are utilities, labor unions, lending institutions, mills and lumber companies. Officers of southern Oregon Operation Home Improvement, Stewart Orr, president; Bert Thierolf, vice president; Allen Perry, treasurer; and Jennings Pierce, secretary, have signed articles of incorporation, creating southern Oregon Operation Home Improvement as a non-profit corporation. Other members of the OHI board of directors include Bob Nelson, Grants Pass; Norton Smith, Medford; Allen Monroe, Ashland; Ted Paulus, Grants Pass; and Jack Raapke, Medford. Next meeting of the board will be Wednesday night at the Elks club in Grants Pass.

Pay for State GOP Chairman Planned

Salem —(U.P.)— A leader in Republican state politics has suggested that the Republican State Central Committee look into the possibilities of making its chairmanship a salaried position. In a letter mailed over the week end to county chairman and other GOP officials, Al Loueks, former Salem mayor, made the proposal. He said initial reaction to the suggestion had been both favorable and unfavorable. The state GOP central committee is slated to meet in Portland March 30 to name a new chairman to succeed Wendell Wyatt, who has announced his resignation. Several names have been mentioned as possible candidates for the party post. Among those are James Short, retiring state director of agriculture; George Stadelman of The Dalles; Robert White, former Salem mayor; John Merrifield, former state senator from Portland; and Francis Smith, Multnomah county Republican chairman.
