

Inspection Conducted For Bethel

Central Point—Mrs. J. W. McGill, Portland, vice-grand guardian for the International Order of Job's Daughters in Oregon, made her inspection of Bethel 38 March 14 at the Central Point Masonic temple. Mrs. McGill was honored with a smorgasbord dinner at Tabu Dinner house preceding the meeting as guest of bethel members and guardian council. Andrew E. Stevens, past associate grand guardian and past associate guardian of the Ashland bethel, assisted Mrs. McGill.

Miss Sally Elden, honored queen, presided at the meeting and Misses Janice Campbell and Deanne Harper were initiated into the order.

Queens escorted and introduced were Miss Margaret Selby, Medford bethel 55 and Miss Linda Zimmerman, Kirby; past honored queens, Miss Marla Abbott, junior past honored queen and Mrs. Richard Stratton, charter queen and past guardian, Central Point. Grand officers present were Mrs. McGill, Andrew E. Stevens, deputy associate grand guardian, Miss Margaret Selby, grand bethel marshal, Miss Kay Askwith, grand inner guard, Mrs. W. K. Sult, Bandon, grand fourth messenger and past guardian of Bandon; Leslie Hislop, grand senior custodian and past associate guardian, Grants Pass; Melvin McGrew, grand junior custodian and associate guardian, Central Point; Mrs. C. D. Elhart, past grand guardian and past guardian, Ashland.

Other honored guests introduced were Miss Pat Hansen, junior princess, Medford bethel 55; Mrs. Paul Snook, guardian, Central Point; Mrs. John Dunlap, guardian, Shady Cove; Allen Hogers, associate guardian, Shady Cove; Mrs. Homer Snider, guardian, Kerby; Homer Snider, associate guardian, Kerby; Miller Miller, associate guardian, Grants Pass; L. M. Manning, past associate guardian of Medford bethels 14 and 55; Mrs. A. S. Setness, past guardian, Central Point; Mrs. Melvin McGrew, worthy Matron, Nevita chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Central Point.

Mrs. McGrew introduced Mrs. Wyles Perry, worthy matron-elect of Nevita chapter and a large number of Eastern Star members and Masons in attendance.

Mrs. McGill presented Queen Sally a little candle from Mrs. Conrad Schild, grand guardian and a flourine "Praying Hands" from Frank Mayes, grand associate guardian.

Linda Zimmerman, Kerby queen, presented Queen Margaret Selby of Medford with the traveling tiara.

Lions' Auxiliaries Announce Events

Plans are being completed for entertaining state officers of the Oregon Lions club auxiliary. Planning to be here are Mrs. Burton Dunn, Salem, state president; Mrs. Virgil Pade, Salem, state secretary; Mrs. Harry Pitts, state treasurer; and Mrs. F. L. Thompson, Sutherlin, first vice-president.

The Medford area auxiliaries will entertain the officers at a banquet Thursday evening, March 21, at the Tally-Ho, Talent. The Phoenix club is chairman of this dinner with the Medford, Crater, Talent and Central Point groups cooperating.

Wednesday evening, March 20, the officers will meet with clubs in the Rogue River, Grants Pass area, and on Thursday, they will have lunch in Prospect with clubs in that area which include Prospect, Trail, Shady Cove, Eagle Point, and Butte Falls.

Defense Director To Show Film for Group in Phoenix

Phoenix — A film entitled "Escape Route" will be shown at a meeting of the Women's association, Phoenix Presbyterian church, set for Thursday, March 21, in the church. The business meeting and devotions will begin at 10:30 a.m. and a covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

The film will be shown by Maj. Gen. Joseph Hicks, chairman of Jackson County Civil defense. The triple trio of Phoenix High school will sing. Mrs. Rex Nicodemus is program chairman.

Mrs. Ernest Volkman will take charge of devotions, and Mrs. Jim Gardner, president, will conduct the business session. Mrs. Charles Mays and Mrs. Volkman head the luncheon committee. Each woman attending is asked to take a covered dish and her table service.

Women are asked to take scraps of material to be used in making a quilt, and also articles for a layette shower. The article will be packed and sent to a hospital in the mission field.

All women of the church, whether members of the association or not, are invited to attend.

The association held a baked food sale last Saturday at Norton's market, and a rummage sale is planned for April at the Eagles hall in Medford.

Laural Setness and Mrs. Anderson decorated the chapter room with baskets of forsythia; Misses Patti Barber, Linda Warren, Laural Setness, assisted by their mothers, served refreshments from a table centered with an arrangement of yellow and white jonquils around a sprinkling fountain.

A shamrock addendum honored Mrs. McGill and Mr. Stevens at the close of the meeting.

GOVERNOR AS SINGER—Gov. Bob Holmes is a good "barbershop type" singer, according to Abbe Green, Medford, musician at the country club and a fraternity brother of the governor. This was demonstrated at a banquet in Portland recently honoring the governor and his wife. Shown above are the governor, Green, and at right, Jack Koegel, president of the chapter, engaging in some mixed harmony. Also attending from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Keeney. Keeney also is a member of the fraternity.

Blonde Attorney Advances in TV Quiz

New York — (U.P.) — Mrs. Vivienne Nearing, the blonde attorney who dethroned quiz champ Charles Van Doren, ran her quiz stake to $16,000 Monday night.

The bell and a boo-boo by emcee Jack Barry cut short the last round of play on NBC-TV's "Twenty One."

Mrs. Nearing, 30, who entered the show with an $14,000 pie, earned $2,000 more by topping Cecil Rhodes Jr., a carryover opponent from last week.

He match against her second opponent—Henry "Hank" Bloomgarden, 29, an administrative consultant in medical research—was short-circuited when Barry fed Bloomgarden the wrong figure. Before Barry could correct his error, time ran out on the show.

The four had been indicted on a charge of conspiracy to make a false credit application to a bank with intent to influence the insurance of a loan by the Federal Housing Administration. They were Edward M. Dougherty, Tillamook, logger, and his wife; Robert E. Coe Jr., former assistant manager of the Tillamook branch of the U. S. National Bank of Portland, and Morris Schmidt, Tillamook real estate dealer.

Short To Terminate Job at Month's End
Salem — (U.P.) — Agriculture Director J. F. Short has advised Gov. Robert D. Holmes he will terminate his job at the end of March to become a ranch broker specializing in the sale of livestock ranches in the Western states.

Short submitted his resignation after Gov. Holmes was elected, but agreed to stay on temporarily.

In January, Gov. Holmes announced State Rep. Robert J. Steward, Keating Democrat, will become director of agriculture as soon as the Legislature adjourns.

"The department's budgetary and legislative program has progressed to the point where my services are no longer required," Short wrote the governor yesterday.

McCarthy 'Quite a Guy,' Victim of Auto Wreck Says

Chicago — (U.P.) — Ralph Vanston, 61, has decided that Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) is "quite a guy."

Vanston, who terms himself an independent Democrat, told Monday how McCarthy helped rescue him from his wrecked car. He was pinned beneath the car Sunday when it overturned in suburban Highland park.

Gasoline was spilling over his face, Vanston said, and "I was afraid there'd be an explosion." "This guy came up and took charge," Vanston continued. "He flagged down motorists to help, then he took off his coat, rolled up his sleeves and helped lift the car off me."

After Vanston was freed, Otis Gomillion, Milwaukee, who was driving the Senator, introduced McCarthy to the motorist. The disbelieving Vanston told Gomillion if his rescuer was McCarthy, then "I'm Napoleon."

"McCarthy is quite a guy," Vanston said. "He wasn't afraid of getting involved in an explosion, and I'd admire that in anybody."

Vanston, a steamfitter, said he hadn't pictured "a senator as the kind of guy who would pitch in to help another fellow." Further

Tomato Bouillon
Here's the recipe for the spicy-good hot tomato bouillon served in fine restaurants. To two cans of tomato juice add one can of condensed consommé. Add 2 whole cloves, a bay leaf, salt, pepper, one small onion, chopped. Simmer half an hour over low flame, then strain. Serve garnished with parsley or minced celery tops.

ROCKED ROUND THE CLOCK

Oxnard, Calif. — (U.P.) — A medium earthquake that caused minor damage in Ventura county Monday rendered further proof to the adage that there is always something good in everything. At Port Hueneme, five miles southwest of Oxnard, the clock in the main office of the City Hall, which had not run for two years, started up after the quake.
