

TABLE ROCK Farmers Wait on Weather

By R. E. NEALON
Table Rock—Table Rock farmers are anxiously waiting for the weather to give them the green light so they can get started on the long over due preparation of the soil and planting of spring crops.

If and after the rains cease, it would take some time before the ground could dry enough to be worked for seeding purposes or for cultivating alfalfa fields. Some farmers have about given up the idea of cultivating their alfalfa, and owing to the unusual weather conditions, many will change their plans as to what to plant.

It seems if we remember right that we had weather like the present brand when we were a small boy, as we remember the chorus of a song my uncle, who had come up here from California, used to sing one rainy spring, which went like this: And the rain came pouring down, Oregon is a fraud, and I want to go home to my Ma.

The local Community club will hold their March meeting Friday night, March 22. A program is being arranged. The program committee includes Wayne Smith, Wayne Wyatt, Carl Vanderpool, and Richard Morris. Each family is asked to bring one-half dozen cupcakes.

Mrs. Arthur Doty is at this writing still undergoing treatment in a hospital at Oakland, Calif.

Mrs. Glen Smith returned on Sunday from Orville, Calif., where she had been recuperating for some time.

How to protect your child from sex offenders

Every day, headlines tell of the most hideous of all sex crimes—attacks on young children and teenagers.

Now, in the April Ladies' Home Journal, you'll read what a group of mothers in one city did—and you'll learn what you can do to protect your child and prevent these terrible crimes.

Here are seven basic rules every parent should teach children. They're as easy to learn as the ABC's... as matter-of-fact as safety rules. There's advice on what your child should do if a stranger becomes insistent... what she should do if approached at the movies. And if an incident occurs in the neighborhood, learn how you can minimize the disturbing effect it may have on your child. Read this vital and informative article, "Protecting Children Against Sex Offenders."

Among those from this vicinity attending the FFA meeting at LaGrande were Carl Vanderpool, Billy Ryan, and Clifford and Lyle Bigham. Carl Vanderpool was sent as a delegate from the Crater High FFA.

The Ted Worth family of Salem, visited at the Jim Smith home last week end.

Mrs. Everett Brown returned from several days in the Sacred Heart hospital, where she underwent treatment for a severe case of flu.

Attendance at the last meeting of the Table Rock Ladies club was somewhat smaller than usual owing to an epidemic of flu in the community.

Elmo Stallings is wearing a cast on his wrist made necessary by an encounter he had with an electric drill.

Nate Grisham, the Central Point TV and radio repairman was out this way Monday and got the TV set at the J. S. Richardson home working on the right channel, minus the shimmering.

A feeling of sadness was caused here by the recent passing of Linda Taylor, Little Linda, as she was known among friends and playmates, took a keen interest in Sunday school work and before her illness was very active with the singing and lesson recitals. We join with other neighbors in extending sympathy to those who will miss her most.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cornutt, and Mrs. Cornutt's mother, Mrs. Emma Houston of Kanes creek, were visitors here Saturday. Jim had a check from Ezra Benson in payment for some wheat he didn't raise last year.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Nelson and daughter, Jean, recently of the Medford district, are now living on the former Goodlin farm, which they recently purchased. Nelson is an employee of the Elk Lumber company and Jean is a nurse at Rogue Valley hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton of Medford were brief visitors here with relatives Saturday. They brought along some three or four dozen pictures of son Alex, and bride Liz, in-laws, notables, politicians and congressmen of both major parties.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Cloa McDonough held recently in Medford. She was a long time resident of Sams Valley and well known here. She was known as a devoted wife and mother, and a loyal worker for the welfare of her community and country. As a member of the Sams Valley Grange she was a tireless worker for the good of the order and Grange policies. To know her was to be her friend, and this tribute given to the memory of a former State Grange chaplain is appropriate here.

A life of kindly deeds, generous acts, a belief in the predominant good in people, and attitude of charity for human weakness, and an optimistic outlook on life in general, inevitably surrounds one with many friends.

Dry Southwest Gets Heavy Rain

By UNITED PRESS
Rain doused the drought-ridden Southwest today in the wake of a severe storm that pelted Texas with hail, snow and tornado winds.

The storm ranged through Oklahoma, Kansas, Arkansas, and Louisiana, dumping one-quarter to one-half inch of rain Wednesday night and early today.

Wintry weather lingered in the northeast with heavy snow blanketing portions of Rhode Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Six inches of snow piled up in Providence, R.I., and Boston, Mass., since Wednesday, and Nantucket, Mass., had a four-inch snow cover.

Light snow or rain continued to fall in the north Atlantic Coast states during the morning.

The freak weather was capped by a snow storm in northern Texas that accumulated to a depth of three inches at Dalhart.

The colder air pushed as far east as the south Atlantic Coast states with early morning temperatures in the 30s at Atlanta, Ga.

CHICKEN RIDES

Grand Rapids, Mich. —(U.P.)—James Chambers accidentally gave one of his chickens a breezy six-mile ride on the bumper of his car in near-zero temperatures. Humane society officers were called when a passerby noticed the chicken perched on the back bumper of the auto parked near the plant where Chambers works.

APPOINTED—Dave Irving, a department head in the California Oregon Power company, has been appointed assistant campaign manager for the 1957-57 United Medford Crusade campaign.

Irving, who will assist Bob Johnson, campaign chairman, served in last year's UMC campaign as the assistant chairman of the commercial division. He is a member of the Elks club, first vice president of the Crater Lions and is a member of the First Presbyterian church. He has lived in Medford since 1938, except for four years in the Navy during World War II. Irving is married and has two children.

Grange Notes

Central Point Grange
The Central Point Grange met in regular session March 15 at the Grange hall.

The agriculture committee reported that the price of meat animals is up with feed prices being about the same as before with some cheaper.

Delmar Smith reported for the Rogue River Soil Conservation district and stated that they now own a TD9 International tractor and a dump truck obtained from army surplus.

Mrs. Arnold Bohnert, home ec chairman, discussed the lunch to be served for the annual Home Extension Spring Festival.

Mrs. Debrick, the juvenile matron, asked to remind all members that dues should be in soon, in order to be eligible for the pennant.

The meeting was preceded by a potluck dinner at 6:30 in honor of Fred Kuest and his building committee who led the group thru the serving line after they had all joined in singing the "Doxology" and "For He Is A Jolly Good Fellow."

The St. Patrick's day theme was carried out in table decorations, the serving committee being Mr. and Mrs. Morris Frink, Harry Tonn and Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Wilson.

The entertainment consisted of a style show of hats with the theme being "It came from the kitchen." The narrator was Francis Hamilton. Mrs. Kuest who modeled a hat made from a cake pan trimmed with pastel sugar roses tied for first place with Mrs. Ben Darris, whose hat was a tall girder trimmed with red ribbons. Merideth Jensen won first place for the juveniles with a hat made from a strainer trimmed with a fly swatter and kitchen sponge.

Following the style show two songs, "Come Back to Erin" and "Irish Lullaby" were sung by Mrs. Melvin Hall.

Sharon Anderson and George Hunt danced "Bop" numbers to the tunes of "Party Doll" and "Heeber Jeepers."

The juvenile children danced a "Bunny Hop" in honor of the Mad March Hare. They were lined up according to height with the tallest one wearing the bunny face and shortest one the bunny tale.

Sammy Hamilton, a four year old Irish red head played his guitar and sang "Love Me Tenderly." He received a prize for the best song.

The display table featured figures carved from Irish potatoes. Many interesting models were displayed, the first prize for men went to Win Arnold for a model of Groucho Marx, complete with glasses and pop eyes.

Pat's pig carved by Willie Debrick won first place for the juveniles.

Benton Boyce was in charge of the dancing which included a circle mixer, Virginia reel and square dancing.

The next regular meeting will be Friday, April 5.

First of Training Sessions Held Here

The first class in a series of four training sessions for volunteers for canteen service was held yesterday in the courthouse auditorium.

The class, sponsored by the Red Cross chapter here, was taught by Miss Marjorie Hattan, 4-H county agent, on group cooking. She will instruct the group Friday on assembly line sandwich making.

Miss Mary Pat Lucy, county home economics agent, will teach the two remaining classes on menu planning and nutrition and one dish meals.

Mrs. Grace Fiero is chairman of the group with Mrs. Roy V. Rickard, co-chairman. The purpose of the classes are to instruct persons in food preparation to be used at times of disasters.

At the meeting Tuesday Mrs. O. A. Eden, co-chairman for the Red Cross disaster group, spoke.

Service Airlines Organize Group

Seattle—Six of the nation's local service airlines met here this week to set up a "working trade association," according to Nick Bez, president of West Coast Airlines and newly-elected association chairman.

Representatives of territorial carriers considering joining the trade association conferred with local service airline officials.

Local service carriers meeting in the two-day session were West Coast Airlines, Bonanza Air Lines, Central Airlines, Ozark Air Lines and Lake Central Airlines.

Under the association's articles, control will be vested in an active board of directors headed by a chairman and vice chairman with a full-time Washington executive director according to Bez.

The board will consist of six directors from local service airlines, two from Alaska carriers and one from Hawaiian airlines. Bez said. The nine-man board will in turn retain a full-time executive director.

Immediate objectives of the association will be to focus most of its activities in the areas of increased public service and legislative matters affecting the group, Bez said.

New Drug Will Be Tested on TB Cases

E. K. Ricker, manager of the Veterans administration domiciliary at Camp White, has announced that a new antibiotic drug, streptovaricin, will be tested against tuberculosis by the Veterans administration in its known TB chemotherapy program. Streptovaricin study recently started in 10 hospitals.

About 100 patients will be treated for eight months with a combination of streptovaricin and isoniazid, one of the commonly used TB drugs, Ricker said.

Patients who will receive the drug combination are those who still have lung cavities from TB after treatment with other drugs.

The streptovaricin study is being carried out at VA hospitals in the Bronx and Manhattan, New York city, Castle Point, N. Y.; Coral Gables, Fla.; Minneapolis, Minn.; New Orleans, La.; Memphis, Tenn.; Long Beach, Calif.; East Orange, N.J.; and Wood, Wis.

Inflation Said Greatest Danger

Miami Beach, Fla. —(U.P.)—Former President Hoover said Wednesday night the greatest danger to the nation at this time is inflation.

The 82-year-old statesman said taxpayers are "groaning" over government spending. Pressure groups must be made to lay off Congress so the government can reduce its huge money outlay, he said.

Mr. Hoover, here for a three-week rest and some fishing in the Florida Keys, said, "The purchasing power of the dollar is down every month."

If the public will take some of the "special interest groups' pressures off Congress," he said, then the nation's lawmakers might have a better chance to reduce the spending program.

The former President also called for congressional approval of recommendation of the non-partisan Hoover Commission for streamlining and modernizing government operations. Mr. Hoover said the recommendations would save billions of dollars.

A 'DEAD' END STREET

Butler, N. J. —(U.P.)—Mrs. Rita Fallon complained to police that living on a dead-end street is no reason her driveway should look like a cemetery. Mrs. Fallon said hearses and funeral cars have been using her driveway for turning around when returning from a nearby cemetery.
