We wish that it were possible to list in this ad the price of every item in our stores. Unfortunately, space does not permit. But we have listed many, many times more than you'll find in the average food ad. Why? Because we're so sure that all our prices are right, we challenge comparison with all prices at any other store. Once you've compared, you'll discover that Safeway offers you big savings on your total food bill. Differences may be small item by item, but these small differences soon add up to big savings.
