Beekeepers Report Damage to Hives

Sheriff's deputies this morning reported several complaints have been received recently concerning damage to beehives resulting in costs of $75 to $100 to beekeepers.

The complainants also stated that bees go to other hives when their own hives are tipped over or disturbed. If the bees are diseased they carry the disease to other colonies, resulting in further cost to other beekeepers.

Deputies warned that anyone arrested and found guilty of such malicious destruction to personal property can be fined and imprisoned. Penalties range from fines of $75 to $100 and imprisonment of three months to one year in the county jail, or fines of $50 to $1,000 and imprisonment up to three years in the state penitentiary.

Obituaries

Hornbrook — Mrs. Mary Ellen Gardner, 88, of Copco, died Tuesday evening, March 19, at Siskiyou County hospital in Yreka. She had been a patient at the hospital since March 1, when she suffered minor injuries in a car accident on the Hornbrook-Copco road.

Mrs. Gardner was a pioneer resident of the southern Oregon-northern California area. She was born in Ashland Jan. 18, 1869.

On April 6, 1890, in Keno, Oregon, she was married to James M. Gardner. The family moved to Yreka in 1917, and Mr. Gardner died two years later.

Since 1926, Mrs. Gardner had made her home at Copco with her son, Tom. She had been a member of the Methodist church in Yreka for more than 40 years.

Besides her son Tom, she is survived by another son, Fred Gardner, of Menlo Park, Calif.; four daughters, Mrs. Amy Ling of Yreka, Mrs. Frances Moore of Ashland, Mrs. Ann Moore of Grants Pass, and Mrs. Ella Judd of Yuba City, two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Hurn of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Edith Anderson of Syracuse, N. Y., a brother Thomas Grubb of Klamath Falls and 21 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, March 23, in Gardner's Funeral Chapel in Yreka. Burial will be in the family plot of the Evergreen cemetery.

BARBARA ANN JONES

Funeral services for Barbara Ann Jones, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron W. Jones, Medford, will be held at Siskiyou Memorial park Saturday, March 23, at 10 a.m.

Survivors include the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit De Haas, of Brownsboro.

Dr. Raymond Balcomb will officiate. Perl Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Tobacco Prices Dip Under Cancer Scare

New York —U.P.— Tobaccos broke sharply today on another cancer scare. Elsewhere the market moved narrowly with a few issues providing strong features.

Losses in the tobaccos at their lows ranged to more than four points in America. They recovered part of the loss.

Tom Wray Reelected Budget Chairman

The Jackson county budget committee reelected Tom Wray chairman and Roger Rath secretary this morning at the group's first meeting on the 1957-58 county budget.

The six-member committee spent the remainder of the morning going over total budget requests presented by heads of the various county departments. Totals of the budget requests are being compared with total appropriations in the 1956-57 budget.

Individual budget requests will be considered on an item-by-item basis after all totals have been studied, committee members said.

Name Sought for New Reserve Armory

The proposed military reserve center on the present Jackson County Housing Authority site, McAndrews rd. and Jackson st., will be named after a local citizen who served in the Army in an "outstanding manner," Col. William H. Prentice, commander of the local Army reserve unit, said today.

A committee composed of Prentice and officials from local Army reserve units are now accepting names from valley residents. Persons should not enter names without complete information about the entrant's background, Prentice said.

Local citizens with recommendations for an appropriate name for the reserve training center should submit information to Prentice at the federal building, 33 North Riverside ave., Medford.

Negotiations are now in progress between the Army and the housing authority for the building site.

Chains Not Needed On Mountain Passes

Traffic was moving without chains over the Siskiyous and Green Springs, state police reported this morning.

Two inches of new snow was reported on the Siskiyous and three inches fell on the Green Springs, they said.

Crater Lake National park reported 4½ inches of new snow in the past 24 hours, bringing the total on the ground to 129 inches. Highway 62 through the park was open, and motorists were advised to use chains, were required from Annie Springs to the rim. It was snowing lightly at the lake this morning, rangers reported.

'Missing' Portland Man Will Testify

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—John W. Vance, a recent witness before the Senate Rackets committee, said today he would return to testify before the Multnomah county grand jury "whenever they want me."

Vance's absence from his hotel room in Portland where clothing had ben left behind had created speculation that something might have happened to him. He said he had returned here, where his father lives, because he is ill.

Portland Barbers May Get $1.75 for Haircuts

Portland —(U.P.)— There were indications today that the price of a haircut in Portland barbershops may jump to $1.75 on July 1.

A spokesman for the local barbers union said that the union has taken no action on a proposed hike in prices but that there has been talk about seeking a 25-cent increase when the present contract expires on July 1.

Airplane Wreckage Found in Columbia

Cascade Locks—(U.P.)—Wreckage of the twin-engined Beechcraft plane which crashed into the Columbia river Wednesday night was recovered by searchers late yesterday but the body of Pilot Lou C. Herron, 36, of The Dalles, was not inside.

The plane was found about 300 feet offshore from the spot where it first struck the Columbia river highway and then careened into the river during a flight from Portland to The Dalles.

Searchers have found only fragments of what may have been a human body.

Holmes Withdrawing Port Appointment

Salem—(U.P.)—Gov. Robert D. Holmes said today he was withdrawing the appointment of Francis A. Staten, Portland, industrialist, to a post as Port of Portland commissioner because it had been called to his attention that Staten was ineligible because of residence.

The governor explained that though Staten is manager of the Acme Sheet Metal Works in Portland, within the jurisdiction of the port, his residence is at Oswego just outside the boundaries of the port.

Grants Pass Men Plead Guilty To Tree Theft

Portland — (U.P.) — Pleas of guilty to theft of 100 fir trees from a national forest were entered in Federal Court here yesterday by two Grants Pass men.

David S. Chambers, 26, and Dan L. Riegel, 28, pleaded guilty to the charge that they took the trees from the Siskiyou national forest and sold them in Los Angeles as Christmas trees.

Lindquist, who left Cave Junction three years ago to teach in Roseburg, will be granted a year's leave of absence, and will leave for Palo Alto, Calif., in September.

$127 Added to Fund For Stedman Family

About $127 has been added to the certified check of $400 recently sent to the family of Bob Stedman, according to Don McNeil, chairman of the "Get Well Bob Stedman" citizen's committee. The $127 was mailed to his family Thursday.

In addition, more names have been added to "the longest get well card in the world," which will be sent soon, he said.

These are results of a project started in cooperation with the Medford High school English and drama instructor, who has been seriously ill for several months, under going a series of operations.

In connection with the project was the March 15 public performance of the Young Oregonians vaudeville troupe at the high school auditorium, which was used as the focal point of the Stedman project.

The average age of American business executives is 53.7 years.

According to the Social Security System, Smith—1,400,000 of them—is the most common name on its rolls.
