Ceremony In Chapel Weds Pair

Mrs. Jewell Wilder Harshman, Portlano became the bride of Everett Arthur Faber, Central Point, in a ceremony held March 9 in Meeker Memorial chapel, First Methodist church in Medford. The Rev. Meredith Groves of Eugene, superintendent of the Eugene district of the Methodist church, officiated with Dr. Raymond Balcomb of Medford assisting.

The ceremony took place at four o'clock in the afternoon, with 50 relatives and friends attending. A reception followed in the church parlors.

For the wedding the bride wore a pink suit and hat and carried a white silver-edged Bible with three pink orchids. Mrs. J. Scott Heatherington was matron-of-honor. She wore a gray suit with matching hat and carried a white Testament with an arrangement of pink hyacinths.

Donald A. Faber was best man for his father and ushers were Donald E. Faber, brother of the bridegroom, and Richard L. Stratton, his son-in-law.

Mrs. Gerald Sherman was at the organ and Dr. J. Scott Heatherington sang.

Pink candles decorated the altar and white standards held pink snapdragons. The pew bouquets were of pink snapdragons with pink and silver ribbon.

The reception rooms were also decorated with standards of pink snapdragons and silver leaves. The serving tables were covered with white organdy over pink, silver candlesticks held pink tapers and arrangements of pink tea roses completed the decor.

Mrs. Richard Stratton, daughter of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Donald A. Faber, his daughter-in-law, and Mrs. Jessie Minear poured. Mrs. Walter Den Beste, Portland, took charge of the guest book.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Wilder, Phoenix, Ariz., has been employed by the Methodist Publishing house as store supervisor. Mr. Faber, a son of Mrs. E. C. Faber, Central Point, is vice-president of Station KBES-TV and widely known in southern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Faber traveled to San Francisco for their wedding trip, and will live on Freeman road near Central Point.

For her traveling attire, the bride wore a rust colored suit with green and beige accessories and the orchids from her bridal bouquet. After a wedding trip to Washington state they are making their home at 416 Oak street, Medford.

The bride attended Medford High school and Robertson's Business school in Medford. She is employed by Jackson county as a deputy county clerk in the county clerk's office. The bridegroom attended Crater High school and Southern Oregon college. He is a teacher in the Howard School district.
