

Luncheon Honors Mrs. John Selby

Mrs. John Selby, former Medford resident now residing in Ashland, was honored at a bon voyage luncheon Wednesday given by Mrs. William Tycer and Mrs. Arthur Brooks at the Brooks home, 1517 Bryant avenue.

Mrs. Selby and her two sons will sail April 6 for Melbourne, Australia, for a three month visit with her mother and family whom she hasn't seen for 11 years since she came to America as a war bride.

The centerpiece for the luncheon table was a cake made by Mrs. Tycer in the shape of an ocean liner with miniature ships at the individual place settings. Daffodils and forsythia decorated the room. Prior to serving dessert the guests presented Mrs. Selby with a piece of luggage.

Guests attending the luncheon were Mrs. R. L. Palmer, Mrs. Howard Blew, Mrs. Carl Christenson, Mrs. De Von Wray, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Warren Wolf,

Society, Auxiliary Hold Meeting at Heatherington Home

Southern Oregon Society of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons and auxiliary recently held a dinner at the Medford hotel, followed by a business meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Heatherington.

A film from a pharmaceutical company was shown and during the business session a grievance committee was chosen. It will represent the profession for the purpose of establishing an avenue for patients to take grievances or complaints to the osteopathic profession in this area and to serve as liaison between the various medical societies.

Mrs. Wayne Wright, Mrs. Maynard Paup, Mrs. Jack Cannon, Mrs. Tycer, Mrs. Brooks, and the honored guest Mrs. Vera Selby, Mrs. Wayne Harris, and Mrs. Gerald von Ting were also invited but were unable to attend the luncheon.

One of the largest events ever held at Rogue Valley Country club was the farewell cocktail party and dinner Friday night which honored George Harrington, manager for 11 years, and Mrs. Harrington. Mr. Harrington is leaving Medford to become manager of Arizona Country club, Phoenix. Pictured during the party are Mrs. Clayton Lewis, Mr. Harrington, Mrs. Della D. Flynn, Vancouver, B.C., Mrs. Harrington and Mr. Lewis, president of the club. Mrs. Flynn, Mrs. Harrington's mother, was brought to Medford from British Columbia as a surprise for her daughter and son-in-law.

Country Club Farewell Party Given for George Harrington

About 400 members of Rogue Valley Country club attended a dinner and farewell party given Friday evening at the clubhouse to honor Mr. and Mrs. George Harrington. The Harringtons are leaving Medford to make their home in Phoenix, Ariz., where Mr. Harrington, manager of the local club for the past 11 years, will become manager of the Arizona Country club.

A cocktail hour from 7 to 8 o'clock was followed by a buffet dinner.

Another special guest at the party was Mrs. Harrington's mother, Mrs. Della D. Flynn, Vancouver, B.C., who was brought from Vancouver by air as a surprise for the Harringtons. Arrangements for her visit here were made by Ernest Scott, Mrs. Harrington's uncle, and Clayton Lewis, president of the country club.

Dr. L. Paul Walker, a former president of the club, served as master of ceremonies for a program during which Mr. and Mrs. Harrington were honored and presented a number of gifts.

Dr. Walker lauded Mr. Harrington for his guidance and management of the club and quoted an official of the Oregon Golf association as saying that Mr. Harrington was both a "great booster and great player of golf."

Mrs. R. B. Knight presented Mr. Harrington a gift from the Women's Golf association and spoke of his efforts to organize and promote the group. David Gault spoke on behalf of caddies of the club. Young Gault, who has served as caddy at the club for a number of years, is now attending the University of Oregon on an Evans scholarship available to caddies at clubs of the Western Golf association. He thanked Mr. Harrington for his efforts in helping to secure the scholarship, and for his kindness to caddies working at the club. The young man added that the Rogue valley club is well known for its progressive junior program.

Abby Green, musician at the club for several years, spoke on behalf of club employees and presented the retiring manager a gift. Al Williams, club professional, also spoke and in praising Mr. Harrington said that it was largely due to Mr. Harrington's efforts that the course had been improved and made into one which challenged the best efforts of golfers and resulted in players who were a credit to the club.

Speaking for the holding company of the club, Glenn L. Jackson praised Mr. Harrington for being both a good manager and a fine golfer, and presented him with a wrist watch and a gift of cash. Dr. Walker presented the retiring manager a "special privilege" card from Mayor John Snider and a silver card which entitles Mr. Harrington to life membership in Rogue Valley Country club. He also presented Mrs. Harrington a gift of jewelry. Mrs. Flynn, her mother, was introduced and thanked the club on behalf of her son-in-law and daughter.

Mr. Harrington reminisced about the time when he first served at the club as a caddy,

Dance Announced By Lively Rogues

Plans are being completed for a March 23 dinner-dance of Lively Rogues' Dancing club to be held at Rogue Valley Country club at 7:30 p.m.

Host couples for this dance will be the present officers of the club, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Austin King and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ramsey.

Former members who would like to rejoin the group may make their reservations with any of the officers, it is stated.

Woman Returns From Convention

Mrs. A. G. McMillin has returned to Medford after attending the state convention of the Daughters of the British Empire held in Portland.

Mrs. McMillin, who was a delegate from the Bow Bells chapter, Medford, was elected state third vice-president of the organization. She was honored along with the other newly elected state officers and the outgoing officials. Mrs. H. William Yulle, national president, was the principal speaker for the convention.

Miss Patricia Strader Named President

Corvallis—Miss Patricia Strader has been elected president of the Oregon State college chapter of Delta Gamma sorority. Miss Strader is a daughter of Mrs. Vera Strader, formerly of Medford and now of Portland, and a granddaughter of Mrs. A. G. McMillin, 661 J street.

Miss Strader is a junior in school of business administration at OSC.

George Harrington (center) might be saying "It's up to you, now" to James Dunlevy, who will succeed Mr. Harrington as manager of Rogue Valley Country club April 1. Jack Walker, club member, looks on as the new and retiring manager exchange pleasantries during a farewell party given at the club Friday night for Mr. and Mrs. Harrington.

Films on Cancer Set for Thursday At Phoenix Club

Phoenix — Since April has been designated as Cancer Month by the American Cancer society, Phoenix Thursday Club is sponsoring the showing of two films relative to cancer control on March 28, at the Phoenix Community club at 8 p.m.

The films to be shown are "Self-Examination of the Breast" which is in color and which educates women for earlier detection of cancer, and "Sappy Homies", an educational film stressing the importance of yearly physical check-ups.

Following the films, Dr. M. D. McGeary of Phoenix will discuss the films with a question and answer period to follow. All women in the area are invited to attend as the meeting is open to the public.

How Far Can You Trust Your Rolex Agent?

YOU can trust the man who sells you a Rolex watch implicitly.

He has been specially selected for his knowledge of the trade, for his experience and qualifications in the watchmaker's craft, for his pride in his work, for his refusal to accept even second best.

He is backed by all the help Rolex can give him. His stock of watches is kept fully replenished; his range of spare parts is always complete enough never to leave him at a loss.

He is the man to go to when your Rolex needs cleaning or servicing. For he has been chosen because he alone can give one of the finest watches in the world the service it deserves.

This is the solution to a 200 year old problem. It is a Rolex Oyster Crown from which was born the first genuinely waterproof watch. Inside, two metal self-sealing planes slide together assuring waterproofness. Your Rolex dealer knows how to clean and replace these delicate parts to maintain waterproofness and accuracy.

A Miracle On Your Wrist: The Rolex "Datejust"

The Rolex Datejust chronometer* features a new Rolex first... the CYCLOPS CRYSTAL which magnifies the date 2 1/2 times for easy readability. This 25-jewel chronometer self-winding Perpetual movement is completely protected by the famous waterproof Rolex Oyster case.

*The Rolex Red Seal identifies it as having met the rigid requirements of Swiss Government testing stations, permitting it to bear the designation... Chronometer.
