Meniere's Syndrome Every week a number of persons ask what to do for Meniere's syndrome in which, in spells, the world seems to spin around, the person gets nauseated and perhaps vomits, and he or she loses some hearing in one ear. Unfortunately, many of the persons who think they have Meniere's disease are oldish men and women who haven't Meniere's disease because their ears are normal, and the world does not spin around. What they have is an occasional loss of their normal sense of balance, together, perhaps, with some ear noises, and some loss of ability, and memory and the usual sense of well-being. These older persons often are suffering from hardening of the little arteries in the brain and for this we do-

Directors Express Sympathy to Hanby Family, Friends

The board of directors of the First Federal Savings and Loan association of Medford have drawn up a resolution expressing sympathy to the family and friends of A. J. Hanby, member of the association board of directors since 1937 and long-time Jackson county educator, who died on March 2.

Directors' Resolution The directors' resolution stated, "... Our friend and associate has for many years been associated in the conduct of the business of First Federal Savings and Loan association of Medford, both as a member of its board of directors and as vice president of said institutions, and ... in the conduct of the business of said association and in his contact with other members of the board of directors and officers thereof, and with its patrons and the general public, said A. J. Hanby was at all times actuated by the highest motives, always keeping in mind the integrity of his trust relationship ... the welfare of his community and the personal welfare of the people with whom he dealt ..."

'Continued Inspiration' The resolution further stated, "... the high ideals and business integrity and kindness of A. J. Hanby was a constant source of inspiration to his associates in the management of said First Federal Savings and Loan association of Medford, and each and every member of the board of directors ... and management thereof have a deep and abiding affection for said A. J. Hanby ..."
