Issuance Orders—Fire Marshal Truman Nelson yesterday issued six orders for correction of hazards after inspections of four business occupancies and one apartment house.

Meeting—The local chapter of the Disabled American Veterans and auxiliary will hold a business meeting starting at 8 p.m. today at the DAV hall, 1515 North Riverside ave., Medford.

Rummage Sale—Zonta club will hold a rummage sale Wednesday, March 27, at the Fehi building, 106 North Ivy street. Hours will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and a large variety of articles will be on sale.

Check Smoke—Firemen were called to the Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan association office, 126 East Main st., about 5 a.m. today to check a report of smoke. They found the smoke was caused by a shorted out sump pump in the basement. Damage was limited to the motor, firemen said.

Accident—An ice cream truck operated by William Frank Thompson, 45, of 294 North Columbus ave., Medford, and a soft-drink truck operated by John Joseph Murphy, 25, of 735 West 14th st., Medford, were involved in a minor accident on Highway 99 between Talent and Phoenix yesterday morning, according to state police. Both vehicles were traveling south, when the truck operated by Thompson stopped behind a school bus, and was struck by the second truck, police said. Murphy was cited for following too close, police stated.

New Business—Mr. and Mrs. George Heide, 1605 East McAndrews rd., Medford, have started a professional housecleaning service here. The business, A-1 Cleaning Service, does janitorial service in addition to housecleaning services.

Police Seek Trio Who Beat Woman

Ashland—Ashland police are seeking two men and a woman who have been described as the assailants of an Ashland woman found beaten and lying on the sidewalk in front of the Luthia hotel Sunday evening.

Mrs. John Drager, 272 Orange st., victim of the assault, was treated for facial injuries at Ashland General hospital. She said she had been drinking at an Ashland tavern with the trio, who offered to take her home when she prepared to leave.

Instead of taking her home, she said they headed north on Highway 99. When she insisted on returning to Ashland, the driver turned the car around, but one of the occupants struck her in the face and continued to beat her until she was dumped onto the sidewalk.

'Wrong Door' Jury Ponders Indictments

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — The county grand jury decides today whether to return any indictments as a result of its probe of the "wrong door" raid against actress Marilyn Monroe.

Twelve witnesses, including singer Frank Sinatra, testified at last week's grand jury hearings into the 1954 raid which allegedly was led by former baseball star Joe DiMaggio against Miss Monroe, his divorced wife.

A state senate committee held hearings into the raid earlier in connection with its probe into possible links between private detectives and scandal magazines. The grand jury is studying possible perjury, criminal conspiracy and alleged intrusion into the privacy of citizens.

Marionette, Wis. — (U.P.) — Among applicants for 1957 bicycle licenses are the Piquette brothers, Noah, 92, and Charles, 91.

Stocks Rally, Lapse Back Into Dullness

New York — (U.P.) — Stocks enjoyed a brief rallying period in the fourth hour today and then lapsed back into dullness. The rally centered on steel issues where Jones & Laughlin and Rotary Electric were favorites. The latter rose nearly two points. Youngstown Sheet gained two at its best. Bethlehem and U.S. Steel firmed. Chrysler ran up a point in the autos. Oils strengthened with several reaching new highs for the year on gains ranging to more than a point.

HORN BROOK Grange Slates Card Party

By MRS. H. H. CHAPMAN
Hornbrook — Hornbrook Grange will hold the third in its current series of card parties Friday, March 29, at 8 p.m. in the Grange hall.

Mrs. Tom Collier is chairman of this week's party. Proceeds from the parties go to the building fund. Refreshments will be served, and the public has been invited.

The Hornbrook Bible church held a potluck dinner at the church on Friday. After dinner, Mrs. Gordon Titus, wife of the pastor, played several accordion numbers, and two films were shown, one on Egypt and another on Petra. The church plans to hold a potluck dinner each month, with the date to be announced later.

Mrs. John Shinar is spending several weeks in San Francisco.
