Rainiers Require Few Key Players To Fight for Top

(This is the last of a series on the outlook of Pacific Coast League teams for the 1957 season.)
By ALEX KAHN
United Press Sports Writer
San Bernardino, Calif. — (U.P.) — The old pro, Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, is at the helm of Seattle this year and candidly says that the Rainiers will be fighting for the top spot in the Pacific Coast League.

Seattle managed to finish second last year despite a switch in managers and rumors of player dissension, and a goodly number of the 1956 varsity are on hand again this season. O'Doul was named manager last fall after coming home eighth with Vancouver.

"Sure we need help," says O'Doul. "Did you ever see a club that didn't? But we expect it just like most of the others do. And with a few key men, we could be a good team."

Although starting his 41st year in organized baseball, O'Doul has lost none of his enthusiasm. In fact, he outlined his team's prospects while tending behind the batting cage with his nose almost through the wire and once in a while shouting advice to Howie Judson who was out on the mound throwing sliders.

Other venerable members of the pitching staff are Red Wagon, Bill Kennedy, Larry Jansen and Bud Podbielan. O'Doul knows they will be plugging along but he hopes to get a few more youngsters to help them. Among the younger hurlers who have caught O'Doul's eye are Glen Iringhaus from Seattle's Wenatchee farm club, Gene Hayden who came up from Nashville and Tom Gibson who is making his first appearance in pro ball.

Service Cage Fives Shine In Tourney

Denver — (U.P.) — Two talented service all star teams, the Air Force and the Army, and unheralded Lake Charles, La., grabbed the limelight today from the seeded National Industrial League clubs as the 50th National AAU Basketball Tournament moved into the quarter-finals.

Four games will cut the field to four teams for Friday's semifinals. Defending champion Seattle Buchanan Bakers, top seeded, moved easily past Millford, Conn., 79-66, Wednesday and will open tonight's card against Wichita Vickers. Wichita crushed the U.S. Navy All-Stars, 102-69.

Second-seeded Phillips Oilers, Bartlesville, Okla., had an easy time with Beckers of Ogden, Utah, 92-69, and will meet the San Francisco Olympic Club tonight. San Francisco defeated Marion-Kay of Brownstown, Ind., 82-66, with Barry Brown of Sanford and Tom Meschery, San Francisco prepster, showing the way.

But third seeded Denver Truckers ran into a surprise, the McDonald Scots of Lake Charles, La., and fell, 73-72. The Air Force All Stars defeated Joliet, Ill., 100-76, and meets Lake Charles tonight for the right to play the Seattle-Wichita winner in the semifinals.

Fourth seeded Peoria, Ill., Cats had some difficulty before downing the Seattle Westside Fords, 87-73, and will meet the powerful Army All-Stars tonight. The Army watched past Akron Good-year, 86-66.

Junior College Stars Selected

Compton, Calif. — (U.P.) — The National Junior College athletic association today listed its 1957 All-America basketball team selected by a committee of coaches and athletic directors. The first team was composed of Joe Gummersbach, Moberly, Mo.; Jay Hawley, San Angelo, Tex.; Dale Hyatt, Hancock College, Santa Maria, Calif.; John Nicoll, Thatcher, Ariz.; and James Weeks, Morrisville, N. Y.

QUIMET GETS TROPHY

Chicago — (U.P.) — The 1913 United States Golf association Open champion, Francis D. Quimet, was named winner of the William D. Richardson trophy for outstanding contributions to golf Wednesday. Quimet, who will be 64 May 8, was selected by the Golf Writers' Association of America in its annual balloting for the trophy named for the late golf editor of the New York Times and founder of the GWA.

CAUSE FOR CONCERN—Mickey Jr. views his dad, Mickey Mantle, with apprehension as the Yankee center-fielder returns to his home in St. Petersburg, Fla. on crutches. Mantle injured an ankle in game against the Dodgers in Miami.

TORNADO DIAMONDERS WILL OPPOSE ROSEBURG

Black Tornado baseballers may be up against the strongest team they'll meet this year on Saturday afternoon when the Medford high nine meets Roseburg in a double bill here.

First game is set for 1:30 p.m. Roseburg is expected to enter the conflict with letterman at eight of the nine positions and six of the players were on the squad of the Lockwood Motors which took third place in American Legion junior baseball national competition.

Two of the lettermen loom as the Indians' regular pitchers this year. One of the two is Bill Oeding, pitching mainstay of the Legion club who last week ended a no-hitter against Grants Pass. Other pitcher is Ron Beamer, a heavy slugger, who is trying his hand on the mound for the first time. The one of the two not chucking likely will play first base.

Second baseman is a three-year letterman along with Oeding, Tom Burgess.

Mike Hatfield, shortstop, and Paul Hansen and Jerry Anderson, outfielders, are two-year lettermen as is Beamer. Jim Brown is a one-year letterman outfielder and Bud Conley, sophomore, is a one-year monogram man catcher. Transfer catcher from Billings, Mont., is Ed Larouque.

Non-lettermen Lee Stone and Rod Hoenisch are third base possibilities.

In Oeding's no hitter last week he fanned 12 batters and walked two. A third pitcher got on base on an error. No man got by first base.

Youths Attempt to Start Protection

Portland — (U.P.) — Judge Virgil Lantry placed on probation four youths in connection with what authorities said was an attempt to start a "protection racket" in a local high school.

Judge Lantry said four youths, one 17 and the others 15, banded together and tried to get two other youths in their high school to "pay protection money or get beat up."

The plot was nipped, officials said, when one of the "victims" went to his father for protection. Police marked a $1 bill and told the intended victim to use it when he paid for his "protection." Officers picked up the four youths when they took the money.

SKOWRON RETURNS

St. Petersburg, Fla. — (U.P.) — New York Yankee first baseman Bill Skowron, who injured his right thumb two weeks ago, returned to the lineup Wednesday and had two hits in four trips to the plate.

Crater High's Baseballers To Take on Klamath Falls

Central Point—Six or seven lettermen may be in the opening crew for Crater high Friday when the Comets play Klamath Falls in their A-1 baseball debut.

The game, if not weathered out, will be at either Gem stadium at Klamath Falls or at the Klamath high field. Action originally was set for Central Point but that diamond is not in shape now because of wet weather.

Comet Coach Bill Piche was a waiting confirmation from Klamath today on game arrangements.

Fred Herrmann, Crater veteran pitcher, on hand for his fourth season, likely will get the starting mound call. Piche said that both Herrmann and sophomore letterman twirler Wayne Allen were getting into good shape and throwing harder now.

Randy Campbell, catcher, Neil Green, first base, Bob Fowler, third base, Bill Reaves, outfielder or infielder, and Charles South, outfielder, are other lettermen, who might start. Allen may be at shortstop and Herrmann might be at second base, if and when not on the hill.

Defensive Teams
With Herrmann tossing, Thurman Striplin could be on second base, Ed Koch, Dick Rainey and Jim Culbertson are others from whom outfielders may be named. When Allen hurls Stan Green could be at short.

Piche reported that the Comets should be a good defensive club. He is stressing the build up of hitting strength. He noted that Green is getting his batting eye and powering the ball.

Klamath also should be strong on defense, new coach Harry Russell has said. He has called Pelican hitting below average and pitching as a question mark.

Lettermen of the Pels are Mickey Carney and Larry Rust, pitchers; Butch Kimpson.

EYES TRACK PURCHASE

Vancouver, B. C. — (U.P.) — Director R. M. (Bobby) Randall of Vancouver's Ascot Jockey club is reported to be negotiating for the purchase of Portland Meadows race track in Portland, Ore.

SMELT RUN DWINDLES

Troutdale — (U.P.) — The Sandy river smelt run dwindled late yesterday with amateur dipnetters on the bank finding it difficult to land a limit 25-pound take which was an easy job earlier in the week.
