Hazards Reported—Seven orders for correction of hazards were issued by City Fire Marshal Truman Nelson yesterday after inspection of two business occupancies, a convalescent home and an office building.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess W. Vail have purchased a new home on Sutter st. in the Country Club manor of Medford from the Caulkins Construction company. Bob Hart of Rogue Valley Land company handled the transaction.

Central Point firemen were called yesterday when a railroad flat car of lumber caught fire in the Tolo area. Some damage to the deck of the car was reported. Firemen said that sparks from the wheel assembly of the car, which was part of a moving train, caused the blaze. The car was switched to a side track and left before firemen extinguished the fire.

Cited—James Mack Girk Johnson, route 3, box 205, Medford, was cited for failure to yield the right of way Wednesday after the car he was operating collided with a car operated by John David Clogston, 2138 West Main st., Medford, at Front and Third sts., according to city police.

Deborah Patrick, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Patrick, 516 South Central ave., was admitted to Osteopathic hospital for surgery Wednesday. Carl Hetrick, 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hetrick, route 2, box 9-B, Jacksonville, was admitted to Osteopathic hospital Wednesday as a medical patient.

Investigate Smoke—Medford firemen were called for smoke investigations at the Donald Crawford home, 131 Lincoln st., at 9:40 p.m. yesterday and to the Sloan company warehouse, 631 North Fir st., about 1:20 a.m. today. They said that smoke at the residence was caused by a closed draft on a wood burner. There was no smoke at the warehouse. Steam on a furnace relief valve was venting through the roof.

Stocks at Best Level Since Valentine's

New York — (U.P.)—Trading in stocks rose today to the best levels since St. Valentine's Day with prices rising in all sections.

Industrials took the lead with particular strength in steels, coppers, oils and chemicals. Rails ruled firm and utilities all but set a new 25-year high.

Heavy trading in Bethlehem Steel managed to lift that stock by a point at its best. Lukens touched a new high at 65 up 2 1/4 at its best. Other steels were up fractions to more than a point.

Chrysler held firm in the motors but others dipped small amounts.

Universal Cyclops steel gained nearly 4 points and other specialty steels ruled strong.

Getty led the international oils higher with a rise of nearly 2 points to a new high. Gains in the rails ranged to more than a point in New Haven preferred.

A big loser was New York & Harlem which fell 8 1/2 points from the previous close after a long absence from the tape Superior Oil of California, the high priced stock rose 20.
