APPLEGATE-JACKSONVILLE Birthday Party Held

By HELGA MITCHELL

Applegate-Jacksonville — A birthday party for eight-year-old Marsha Sample, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sample was held recently at the Samples' new residence. Guests attending were Lee, John, and Jay Wells, Scott, Charley, Bobbie, and Jimmy Tweedy, Kristy, Karry and Casey Jones, Judith Hawkins, Donna Straube, Judy Best, Stephen Smith, Mrs. Lawrence Tweedy, Mrs. Cliff Jones, and Marsha's brother and sister, Lin and Retha. Games were played and refreshments of milkshakes and petit four cakes were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cobo left Friday for Virginia where he is serving with the army engineer reserves.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Pearson and Anne, who have been in Headsturg, Calif., with Mrs. Pearson's father, sent word that he passed away. The Pearsons are expected home soon. During their absence, Mrs. Robert Sorber has been caring for the Pearson's animals.

Mrs. Bill Lorsung drove to Hillsboro last Tuesday to be with her husband, who is employed in that city. Mrs. Lorsung will be gone for a month.

A certain 12-year-old Ruch school student recently came home with his report card, which had a low grade in a particular subject. When questioned by his mother why he had received that mark, the boy replied that he didn't have the vaguest idea. Whereupon his mother made a hurried trip to the school and inquired of his teacher, Kenneth Nivens, about the low mark. Nivens, tactfully replied, "I just wanted your boy to know I was thinking about him."

Mrs. Ed Goodwin has been busy in the Applegate area in search of MJB coffee bands. The purpose of this hunt is to collect enough bands so that an automatic coffee pot may be obtained for the Applegate PTA and Home Extension unit.

Mrs. Evis Offenbacher and her children, Sue and Mark, have been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Offenbacher, while her husband has been on a business trip to Peoria, Ill.

Vern E. Taylor of the Star Ranger station returned Wednesday from Ogden, Utah, where he had been due to the death of his father, Esther Taylor.

Miss Shirley Dunlap visited Southern Oregon college in Ashland last Saturday.

Lyle Hard, with the assistance of neighbors, has been busy bulldozing and clearing off 180 foot plot of ground for the purpose of making an outdoor recreational center for the children.

Luncheon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mansel Milam last Tuesday were Mrs. James Stephens and two sons, Les Tatum, and Doph Bevins. Les Tatum, who has been a house guest at the Stephen residence, left for Modesto, Calif., where he will be employed.

Mrs. Dora Krouse returned from Portland recently where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Harold Howard and family. She also visited relatives in Seattle and Tacoma. Mrs. Krouse was away for one month.

Mrs. Carl Herslof has been in Portland due to the illness of her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Tarvin of Medford, who have purchased the George Sample ranch on Sterling road, moved into their new location last Sunday. The Tarvins' son, Terry, is in the seventh grade in the Ruch school. Tarvin is employed at the Purucker Piano house, and Mrs. Tarvin is employed at the Medford library.

Mr. and Mrs. John Byrne have been visiting relatives in California since last Sunday. They visited his sister, Mrs. Stella O'Brien in Richmond, and other relatives in San Jose and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Winningham and children, Jerry and Dianne took a trip to British Columbia during the spring vacation. On their way they stopped to visit Winningham's cousin, Bob Winningham in Mount Vernon, Wash. The Winningham family saw the new The Dalles dam on the Columbia river the day after it was opened.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Twiss recently returned from their trip to New York and Arizona.

Robert Sorber has been in Wind River, Wash., for a week, where he attended the Administrative and Resource Management school.

Mrs. J. H. Mapstone recently returned from Eugene where she visited relatives.

Ladies attending the last Applegate Home Extension unit meeting held at the home of Mrs. Herb Nelson were served seafood dishes, prepared by Mrs. C. O. Gerhardt and Mrs. Lester Rich.

During the report of various standing committees, a bird popped out of the clock on the wall and chirped "cuckoo" a dozen times. Mrs. Charles Elmore was working on a skirt which she was sewing for the Minstrel show, and later led in a game of guessing various sewing stitches. In the afternoon, a film on ACWW was shown to the women, but due to the absence of Mrs. Marcel LePiniec, who was to be narrator of the silent film, Mrs. Gerhardt and others ad libbed, which brought peals of laughter from the group. Everyone is looking forward to next month's meeting when the film will be reshown. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 23, at the home of Mrs. Earl Hvall, with Mrs. Ethel Haugerud as co-hostess.

Bradford C. Rundle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rundle is recovering from his recent illness.

HORNBROOK Six Honored At Party

By MRS. H. H. CHAPMAN

Hornbrook — Mr. and Mrs. Henley Clawson entertained at dinner Sunday for members of their family who observe birthdays in March. Those honored were a daughter, Mrs. "Rusty" Seaman, Mrs. Clawson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bray, and a brother-in-law, Albert Wedin, all of Yreka. Other guests were "Rusty" Seaman and children, the three Bray children, and Mrs. Wedin and son Mike, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fine of Tennant, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Greive, former long-time residents of Hornbrook, are spending a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Peggy Lang, in Yreka. On Monday, Mrs. Lange entertained at a foursome of bridge for her mother which Mrs. Marshall Horn and Mrs. Kay Kettlewell attended.

Tuesday Mrs. Kettlewell was hostess for the Sewing club, of which Mrs. Greive was a charter member. Others present were Mrs. L. C. Walsh, Mrs. Lawrence Breceda, Mrs. Marshall Horn, whose birthday was observed, Mrs. Harry Chapman, and Mrs. L. Everett Jeter, besides Mrs. Greive and the hostess.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Greive are recovering nicely, he from serious injuries sustained in a car accident near Lake Tahoe last fall, and she from two major operations in the past year. They have made their home in Nevada City, Calif., since retiring two years ago.

Mrs. Stanley Balfrey of Yreka was a guest on Tuesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henley Clawson.

Mrs. Mollie Cole, Hornbrook Justice of the Peace, has been seriously ill at her home for the past three weeks.

Bur-Bel resort on the Klamath river was the location for the farewell dinner given Wednesday evening honoring Pfc. "Butch" Pickard. Host for the dinner was Carl Pickard, Butch's brother. Guests were Miss Barbara Burns, fiancée of Pickard, his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pickard Sr., his sister, Mrs. Pat Harlow, and another brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Pickard Jr. Pfc. Pickard has been home on a 12-day leave, and left by plane Thursday for Boston, Mass., where he will attend security school for the next year.

Matt Johnson was in town last week attending to business in connection with his property. He and Mrs. Johnson moved to Hornbrook about a year and a half ago, and were in the process of building a new home on old highway 99 when Mrs. Johnson interested in this phase of 4-H work to attend.

George Redhead recently went to Medford to pay his bills, and while he was in an insurance office, his telephone bill together with a check slipped out of his pocket. An anonymous person found the check and bill and returned them to the grateful Redheads via mail. "There are still some good people left in this world," Mrs. Redhead commented.

Rural Reflections: Mrs. Henry Head recently came to the rescue of their sow, who had 16 piglets, but only twelve faucets. She adopted five of the deprived squealing weaners, and brought them into her living room. The adopted quints grew so well that they are now in the great outdoors again.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Turner Calif., where Mrs. Pike will re-visited friends and relatives in Klamath Falls last week end. sume her work as a nurse.

Mrs. Roy Pike and daughter have moved to Menlo Park, Calif., and Johnson remained there with her for several months until her death recently. He plans to return here to live in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kennedy and children from Medford visited here over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Greenhill were in Portland from Monday to Wednesday on business.

Miss Kathleen Classick was master of ceremonies at a variety program at Camp White March 13, in the domiciliary theater. Taking part in the program were Jeanand Beverly Allison, Lois Biles, Beverly Smith, Jeanne Friedenthal and Kathy Leshar, all of Rogue River.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hargill are visiting Mrs. Hargill's parents at Goble.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dengler and son, Lynn, of Portland spent the week end of March 15 visiting Orville's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dengler and other relatives.

A dinner honoring Mrs. Flores Leyen's birthday was given March 13 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Leyen. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Flores Leyen and three children, Fred Wilson, Miss Anna Wilson and Bobby Wilson and the host and hostess, the Leyens.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hunt of San Diego, Calif., spent a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Earl Young on Cedar st. The Hunts' plan on returning to Rogue River to make their home.

Many large lumber and paper companies put their timber resources in the U.S. under a program to yield a continuous growth of trees for purposes of a systematic harvest operation.

GROWING UP on MILK and...

STRONGER EVERY DAY!

For children on-the-grow, there's no food like wholesome, farm-fresh MILK. Up and coming youngsters build muscles and bounding health on MILK! Milk puts the glow of health in their cheeks and gives them the pickup and pep for hours of strenuous play... with plenty left over to chalk up good marks in school. That's why, when the call is for "something good"... wise mothers serve MILK.

Zsa Zsa Refuses to Cut Hair for Movie

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Zsa Zsa Gabor Thursday turned down a $100,000 offer to shave her head for a movie under threat that she might lose a four-week resort hotel engagement at Las Vegas, Nev.

The blonde actress was scheduled to become a female Yul Brynner this week for her role as Stalin's mistress in "Girls of the Kremlin."

However, Beldon Katleman, owner of the El Rancho Vegas, threatened Thursday to cancel the actress' contract if she showed up at the hotel bald for her engagement opening April 17.

"Not could I do?" Miss Gabor said in her Hungarian accent. "Las Vegas said if I don't cut my hair they would hold me over for another five weeks."

"So for that I'm keeping my hair. Besides, my mother (Mama Jolie Gabor) was on the telephone saying that she would disown me if I got the shave."

Miss Gabor said Universal-International Studios had offered her the $100,000 for shaving her head. She said, however, that she would make more money at Las Vegas by keeping her curly locks intact.
