

Holmer Is Named Elections Supervisor

Salem —(U.P.)— Secretary of State Mark Hatfield Friday announced the appointment of Freeman Holmer as supervisor of elections to succeed Dave O'Hara, who retires July 1 at the age of 70 after 42 years of state service.

Hatfield said Holmer's appointment would be effective in April "to provide ample opportunity for Mr. O'Hara to impart his vast knowledge of the division to his successor."

Holmer, 39, is a graduate of Concordia college and the University of Oregon. He is married, father of two boys and is a World War II veteran of 46 months Army service. He has been with the Department of Finance and Administration and methods section of the department. He also has served as a member of the political science staff at Willamette university.
