

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gordon Smirl

Service Held In Eugene Weds Couple

Of interest here is news of the wedding in Eugene of Miss Audrey Lois Putman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Putman, 2210 Canal street, Medford, to Clifford Gordon Smirl of Lena, Manitoba, Canada. The double-ring ceremony took place March 3 at First Christian church, Eugene, with Dr. Carrol C. Roberts officiating.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smirl of the Manitoba city, and the newlyweds will live in that city later this year.

For the ceremony the bride wore a princess style gown of white nylon lace, ballerina length. The lace-trimmed fingertip length veil, borrowed from a friend, Mrs. Anthony Kanclier of Ashland, was held by a tiara of beads. The bride's flowers were three white eucharist lilies encircled with white carnations and tiny yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Paul Merfeld, Medford, was matron-of-honor for her sister. She wore a green crystaletto dress, princess style, with matching headpiece and carried white carnations and yellow rosebuds in a cascade.

Bridesmaids were Miss Esther Sweeten, and Miss Alta Williams, Eugene. Miss Sweeten wore pale blue crystaletto with matching headpiece and carried white carnations while Miss Williams' frock was of coral crystaletto worn with matching headpiece. She carried pink and white carnations.

Miss Paula Merfeld, Medford, was junior bridesmaid. Her frock was of teal blue crystaletto worn with matching head covering and her bouquet was pink and white carnations. Paula and her brother, Gerald Merfeld, also lighted the candles.

Little Carol Merfeld, the flower girl, wore a yellow crystaletto frock with matching head covering.

Carl Fleshman, Eugene, was best man and Jim Wear and Jay Rodgers, Eugene, seated the guests. Mr. Putman gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Jay Kilborne and Miss Mary Ihe, college friends of the bride, were soloist and organist. Arrangements of white stock, yellow snapdragons, pink carnations and wild fern decorated the church.

The reception which followed was in the church parlor. The bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Jobbins of Sunnyvale, Calif., cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Anthony Kanclier, Ashland, Mrs. Orland Ireland, Eugene, poured coffee and Mrs. Carl Fleshman, the punch. Mrs. Laura Fritz took charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon on the Oregon coast and for the present will live in Eugene at 1342 Alder street. The bride, a graduate of Medford High school, has a bachelor degree in religious education from Northwest Christian college and is now attending the University of Oregon. The bridegroom is employed by the Eugene Farmers' creamery in Eugene.

Dr. and Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel, Eastwood drive, left last week by plane for New Jersey and New York and will sail April 12 for Europe. They will attend a convention of Rotary International in Lucerne, Switzerland, and later will travel in Switzerland, Germany, Holland, France, Spain and the British Isles. They will sail on the Italian liner, The Vulcania. At present Dr. and Mrs. Dippel are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Blasius in Summit, N. J. Also planning to attend the Rotary convention are Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. D. Ford McCormick.

State Day Held By Alpha Phi; Officers Named

Members of Alpha Phi, national social society, from all parts of Oregon attended the annual State day convocation, Saturday at Tau chapter, University of Oregon, Eugene. Mrs. Sydney Kramer, Salem, state alumnae chairman, arranged the schedule of morning registration and inspection of the chapter houses, which has recently completed a new addition.

The noon luncheon, held at the Student Union, was presided over by Mrs. Lucian Hartman, Medford. Principal speaker was Mrs. Wallace Straman, Salinas, former national director of programs. Awards were made to the outstanding junior of Tau and Beta Upsilon chapters.

Constructive discussions at alumnae roundtables and collegiate workshops followed at the chapter house. Members of Beta Upsilon chapter, of OSC at Corvallis, were guests of Tau chapter for dinner.

Plans were begun for the participation in the national convention in Pasadena in 1958.

Alpha Phi Alumnae club of Medford elected officers for the ensuing year at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Poston. They are Miss Joyce Beard, president; Mrs. John Grabow, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. F. E. Bowman, recommendation

Ahern Paintings On Exhibit Here

Three paintings by a former local artist, John Ahern, now residing in California, are being shown in the continuing art show at Purucker's Piano House. These paintings were completed before Mr. Ahern left Medford and following this week's showing will go to Los Angeles to be included in an exhibition of the artist's later work. The exhibition will be at Pasadena.

A new exhibit will be hung at Purucker's in April.

To complement roast lamb, try a grape jelly with finely chopped mint leaves. It even tastes good with left-over lamb, served with diced creamed potatoes.

Lily Specialists Meet in Medford

The work of a Medford man in the culture and hybridization of native Northwest lilies attracted the attention of a director of a New Zealand research station and resulted in a meeting of the two last week.

Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Doak of Papatotote, N. Z., on a trip around the world, contacted Mr. and Mrs. Boyd C. Kline, 322 Franquette street, last Wednesday while they stopped in Medford. Dr. Doak had heard of the work done by Mr. Kline and was interested in it.

Dr. Doak, director of the Otago Research station at Otahuhu, N. Z., and his wife were shown colored slides by the Klines of the various native plants and discussed the cultural treatment of lilies throughout the world.

During the visit differences of New Zealand and United States home life were also discussed.

"C Day" Planned By Methodists; Women to Call

Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist church, will observe Tuesday, April 2, as "C Day". Members will go out in teams of two to call on the women of the church to inform them about the program of the Woman's society.

The callers will meet at the church at 9:30 a.m. to receive instruction. Following a period of calling, they will return for a report luncheon. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb will speak briefly.

Forty will have volunteered to the calling, and six will prepare luncheon.

The general program of widening fellowship is under the leadership of the secretary of promotion.
