Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin and family in Medford Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. James Cain and family.

Mrs. V. Raffelli of Montague, was substitute teacher on Monday and Tuesday, due to the illness of Mrs. L. Wesner.

Carolyn Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Preston, underwent an appendectomy on Friday morning at the Osteopathic clinic in Medford. She left the hospital Monday and was taken to the home of a friend. Her mother is staying there with her.

William Ward of Toketee Falls visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vieira and family this week end. Ward is Mrs. Vieira's father.

Mrs. Kay Vieira entered the Ashland General hospital Monday where she underwent various tests. She returned to her home here on Wednesday.

Jerry Lehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman, has been chosen as the representative from Yreka High school to attend Boys' State an American Legion sponsored training in American citizenship and government to be held at the California state fair grounds in Sacramento from June 22 to June 29.

Terrance Tallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tallis, has been chosen as alternate.

Linda Schuck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Schuck, has been chosen as the junior girl representative to Girls State, the date of which is to be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilcox and family and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny De Avilla and son were dinner guests Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest De Avilla and sons, near Shasta river bridge. The dinner was in honor of the birthday of their father, Manuel De Avilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams and daughter Brenda, of Yreka,

GOLD HILL PTA To Elect Officers

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill—The next meeting of the Gold Hill PTA will be held Thursday afternoon, April 4. The meeting will start promptly at 1 p.m., according to President Mrs. Floyd Taylor.

Children from the Patrick elementary school will provide the program under the supervision of Mrs. Marie Brannock.

New officers will be elected at this meeting. Mrs. Taylor has been recommended by the nominating committee for president; Mrs. Walter Doherty for vice president; Mrs. Lester Wakeman for secretary; and Miss Louise Ramsey for treasurer.

Refreshments will be served by mothers of the second grade pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gray have returned to their home on Sardinia creek road from a three-weeks vacation trip to Los Angeles. The Grays were guests at the home of Mrs. Gray's mother, Mrs. Minnie Kirk in Van Nuys, while they were in that area visiting relatives and friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

En route home they visited in San Jose and were accompanied there by Miss Sharon Gray, a niece of Gray. Miss Gray left March 25 to return to her home in San Jose, after spending several days at the Grays' home on Sardinia creek. She also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gray and daughter Nancy, who live on the Upper River road.

Several ladies from the Gold Hill area attended a stork shower for Mrs. Kent Clark on Tuesday, March 26. The shower was given at the home of Mrs. George Evans in Central Point. Mrs. Evans was assisted by Mrs. William Housley of Table Rock and Mrs. George Smith of Sardinia Creek road. Ladies present from Gold Hill were Mrs. Wilmer Bailey, Mrs. Dale Smith, Mrs. Nina Dusenberry, Mrs. William Wright, Mrs. Theibert Wright, Mrs. Don Hanscom, Mrs. Clarence Parsley, Mrs. Ernie Cooper, and Mrs. Stanley Newnham.

An Assembly of God Women's Missionary rally was held in Rogue River recently. All churches were invited to bring a display of their work.

The Gold Hill WMC won first prize, which was a hand made and hand painted clay cup and saucer made by the Indians.

Those attending from Gold Hill were Mrs. Tom Calhoun, Mrs. Joe Buchanan, Mrs. Ruth McCoy and Mrs. Ivan Governor.

"We are laborers together for Him," was the theme of the last meeting of the Gold Hill Women's Missionary council when the ladies met in the church for their day of fun and fellowship.

The women each brought a sack lunch and the president, Mrs. William Price, furnished the coffee. Following the business session the afternoon was spent sewing.

Mrs. Ivan Governor, publicity chairman, states that all ladies are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Miss Barbara Rains of Medford spent the week end of March 23 and 24 at the home of her mother, Mrs. Maybelle Rains in Gold Hill.

Stanley Newnham returned March 25 from a business trip to Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. G. H. Plunkett of Klamath Falls was an overnight guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lorraine Becker on March 26.

Amethyst Rebekah lodge will meet Wednesday evening, April 3, at 8 p.m. in the IOOF hall. The losing team will entertain the winners at this time.

BUTTE FALLS Talent Show Scheduled

By MARY JO HARRIS
Butte Falls — A talent show and cake auction will be held Friday evening, April 12, at eight p.m. at the high school. It is the annual money-making project of the Butte Falls PTA.

Talent is badly needed and anyone with anything to offer is asked to call Mrs. William Norling, Mrs. Elmo Elfsom, Mrs. Charles (Red) Capello or any PTA member.

Talent show chairman is Mrs. "Red" Capello and committee members are Mrs. Elmo Elfsom, Mrs. William Norling and Mrs. Bill Lytle.

Heading the cake auction and refreshment committee are Mrs. Alva Webster and Mrs. Charles Ferguson.

The main program for this evening will be the talent show. The cake auction will be followed by refreshments. There will be prizes for winners of the talent show.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Taunton, present management of the Butte Falls Shell Service, have sold their place of business because of health. The Tauntons plan to leave April 11 for the Chicago area where they will visit with Clarence Harrison and other relatives and friends. Clarence is Mrs. Taunton's father. They have made plans for a month's visit.

The Tauntons will return to Butte Falls May 10 for several days before moving on.

New owners of the Butte Falls Shell Service are Frank Phillips and Bob Wells of Medford. The new management plans to take over operations April 10.

Good weather held long enough for completion of the roof on the Community hall and work has now started on closing both gables of the building.

The community hall board of directors wish to express their thanks to individuals giving time and money to further the work on the building. It hoped that the building will be completed this year.

Gene Wright, boilerman 2c of the U. S. Navy, recently spent a weekend furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Wright. Gene and two buddies, Richard Stull and Bob Stull, are stationed on the same boat, the U. S. S. Rombach at Seattle. Richard and Bob were guests in the Herb Wright home also.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snoich, newlyweds, recently visited with Mrs. Glenn Cathey at Scotties cafe. Snoich recently transferred from Butte Falls to the Engineers branch of the Forest Service at Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Snoich are now living in one of the forestry houses at Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Page Stauffer recently spent a day at Klamath Falls visiting with the Marden Tillet family. Mrs. Tillet is Page's niece.

Paul Conley celebrated his second birthday at a small party given at his home Thursday afternoon, March 28. Paul is a son of the Virgil Conleys.

Small guests attending were Jeannie Clymer, Sherry Tygart, Cindy and Gary Sheppard, David Elfsom, Vicki Burton and Jerry and Paul Conley.

Mothers attending were Mrs. William (Doc) Bowen, Mrs. Elmo Elfsom, Mrs. Clay Conley, grandmother, Mrs. Ben Sheppard, Mrs. Hank Tygart, Mrs. Bruce Burton and Mrs. Virgil Conley, hostess.

Games were played, gifts opened and cake and ice cream served.

The Butte Falls Lions club is making plans for a jolopy breakfast the first day of fishing season, April 27. Chairmen of this project are Page Stauffer and Glenn Cathey.

Mrs. Bruce Pingle, president of the Butte Falls Lions' auxiliary, entertained guests and members at a coffee brunch, one of the club's projects, at her home last week. Those attending were Mrs. Jess Rodgers, Mrs. Al Hartlerode, Mrs. Page Stauffer, Mrs. William L. Harris and Mrs. Pingle, hostess. Mrs. Glenn Cathey was an early guest.

How This Newspaper Helps Advertisers...

Ring up Sales

You have at your disposal the finest advertising research system ever devised—the cash register.

When you run an advertisement, you listen to the cash register the next day. If it rings merrily, you know that your advertising was effective. Sales, in the final analysis, are the main reason why most people advertise.

Your experience in selling and your knowledge of your products and services have a perfect ally in our experience—as typographers, as market analysts, as newspaper people, and, in fact, as successful advertisers, ourselves.

Let us show you how this combination of experience, building together on an accurate knowledge of our audience, can help ring up more sales for you through more effective advertising.

MEASURE OF SERVICE... MARK OF INTEGRITY

A boy, his dad and a boat...

Maybe he'll never tell you... but in the eyes of that boy of yours you're just about the greatest man who ever lived. And whether it's a trip the two of you take together... or something more important, like his college education... it's wonderful to have the money when you want it.

But where you save your money makes a difference. That's why, these days, people are putting more savings account dollars in Insured Savings and Loan Associations than in any other type of savings institution. You'll find the management of your Insured Savings and Loan knows where to invest your dollars so they'll be safe and bring you excellent returns. And—don't forget—your savings are insured up to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. So start now to save the safe, progressive way.

Where you save does make a difference

Man Hospitalized After Hitting Trees

Daniel Alan Waldron, 21, of 329 North Holly st., Medford, suffered lacerations and possible fractures Friday, when the car he was driving struck two trees in front of 35 Cottage st., according to city police.

A witness told police Waldron's vehicle was traveling at a high rate of speed on Cottage st., when it suddenly struck a broad leaved maple tree. The car then continued a few feet further and struck the other maple tree, the witness said.

Waldron was pinned inside the auto for several minutes until police, who borrowed a crow bar from a neighbor, were able to free him. Officers said smoke was coming from the car, and firemen stood by until the auto was removed.

Medford Ambulance service took Waldron to Sacred Heart hospital, where his condition was reported "good" Saturday.

The vehicle was described as totally wrecked. The accident occurred at 11:28 p.m.

Medford Jaycees Make Second Visit

The Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce made its second visitation last week, when they attended the regular meeting of the Central Point Jaycees Thursday.

Each district has established an award to be given to the club which attains the most man-mile points through visitations during the year.

Two of the major programs of the Medford Jaycees were discussed at the Central Point meeting by Garry Shuler, visitation chairman. Shuler explained the need for group action in community projects and asked that the Central Point Jaycees give what consideration they can to the Jaycee summer camp at Lake O' the Woods. He also requested assistance in making Medford's bid for the state convention in 1958 at the state meeting in Portland this May.

Suomela Approved as Fish Commissioner

Washington — (UP) — The Senate Friday confirmed by voice vote the nomination of Arnie J. Suomela as commissioner of fish and wildlife in the interior department.

Suomela is a former director of the Oregon State Fish commission.

Jaycees attending on behalf of the Medford club were Alan Holmes, Hal Gardner, Cal McKibben, Ron James and Garry Shuler.
