

ILLINOIS VALLEY Veteran Officers Named

By EILEEN BOFFEL.

Cave Junction — Newly-elected commander Charles Augustine announced his appointments of officers and committee heads at the Veterans of World War I meeting Thursday night at the VFW hall.

Elwood Buehler was named service officer, while Frank Behm is chairman of the sick relief and unemployment committee. A. C. Harnisch is to have charge of publicity for the July 4 celebration, and will work with other local veterans groups in this capacity. Bob Wilson was given the post of membership chairman.

Further plans for the July 4 joint veterans' event were discussed.

Members voted to pay for the charter for a women's auxiliary which is under consideration here.

During the men's business meeting, wives gathered to prepare refreshments and talk over plans for the proposed auxiliary.

All eligible women in the valley will be contacted for charter membership. In order to form an auxiliary, at least 15 names must be submitted.

During the social hour, an extemporaneous quartette composed of C. Y. Arnold, Palmer Lovjoy, Otto Tryon and Robert Wilson brought down the house. Exceptionally good attendance was reported.

Home last week from a ten-day trip to southern California were Mrs. Robert Cherry and her daughter Pamela, who visited Mrs. Cherry's mother, Mrs. Ida Huber in Los Angeles.

New members, Mr. and Mrs. J. Van Johnson, were hosts to the Saddlebums at a potluck dinner Monday night. Next Monday's meeting will also be held at the Johnson home in Kerby.

Paul Corak, who has replaced Andy Schmidt as Area 6 engineering specialist for the Soil Conservation Service, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in the Illinois valley, where he studied local conservation engineering problems.

He was accompanied by Ralph Babcock of Grants Pass, field engineer for the Soil Conservation Service.

Corak comes to Grants Pass from Baker, Ore.

Mrs. Margaret Crowl has received her appointment by the Governor as Notary Public and has added notary work to her real estate business in Cave Junction.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cayvill, who live near Medford, spent last week-end on the coast, returning to Cave Junction Monday where they stayed overnight with Mrs. Cayvill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crowl.

Illinois Valley friends of Mrs. Kenneth Perry (the former Babe Booth of Cave Junction) gathered at her parents' Town and Country Motel in Grants Pass Monday evening to shower her with baby gifts.

The surprise party was planned by Lorraine Mero of Kerby and Margaret Crowl of Cave Junction.

Lorene Yeargan, Hazel Henry and Natalie Cornett held high scores in the sewing baby shower games.

The decorated cake was topped with a tiny stork, while diaper and bootie favors further carried out the "baby in waiting" theme. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served by the two hostesses.

Guests were Hazel Henry, Joy Kellert, Edith Meidenreich, Lorene Yeargan, Donna Townsend, Bonnie Cayvill, Natalie Cornett, Roxa Lee Manchester, Natalie Cornett, all of the Illinois Valley and Faye Hale and Vivian Booth of Grants Pass.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Beulah Caldwell, Mabel Holmes, and Irene McCasland.

A dinner party at the home of Irene Ollis on River street will welcome the new Queen of Zuleima Temple. Daughters of the Nile, at her official visit to the local club on April 23.

Plans for the visitation were made at the Zuleima Illinois Valley Nile club meeting Tuesday night at the home of Clara titution at the 4-H horse show in June and at the Josephine county fair.

A new member, Frank Blair, attended the Sunday get-together.

Expected here this Sunday are Mr. and Mrs. Fayne Hull of Los Angeles, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Hugh White of Cave Junction.

The Hulls will arrive in time to see Mrs. White off to the hospital where she will undergo major surgery next week. They plan a two-week visit.

Mr. and Mrs. White will see their only son and his family for the first time in five years this May, when Mr. and Mrs. Robert White and their children, Donna Marie and Robert Hugh, come out of Alaska for 45-day vacation in Oregon and California.

White is employed on heavy equipment work at the Elmendorf Air Base at Spenard, Alaska. The family plans to drive down the Grandview-Lone Pine — The rummage, plant and baked food sale held Thursday at the Roxy Ann Grange hall by the HEC netted approximately $90. A lunch was served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalton were dinner guests Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lacy in Eagle Point.

Local Boy Scouts going on the 'snow' party to Annie Springs Sunday from the Wolverine girls between the ages of 12 and 17. Interesting projects, following programs sent from Assembly of God headquarters in Missouri, are planned.

Present were Sally Reich, Kathy Anderson, Peggy Price, Jean Price and Diana Trimmer.

Bishop Benjamin F. Dagwell conducted confirmation services for Mike and Steven Hanby, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas V. Hanby of Cave Junction, at the St. Matthias Episcopal church Sunday afternoon.

The special service came at 3:30 p.m. preceding worship led by Father Peter Barker. A coffee hour followed.

The Cave Junction Episcopal church schedule has been changed for next month. Services will be held on April 7 and on Easter Sunday, April 21, rather than on the usual second and fourth Sundays of the month.

A Girls' Missionettes club was organized at the Assembly of God parsonage Tuesday by Mrs. Wilma Gilbert.

President of the club is Mrs. Gilbert while other officers are Diara Trimmer, secretary-treasurer and Sally Reich, reporter. Eligible for membership are are among the twelve boys from the Medford Junior Rifle club that went to Roseburg Saturday to participate in the annual shoulder to shoulder National Junior Rifle match. This annual match is held throughout the United States, Alaska and Hawaii and is sponsored by the National Rifle association. They will compete with approximately 4,000 shooters.

Johnny Mee and Donald Ford both had the misfortune to receive injuries Thursday on the school grounds. Donald sprained his finger during physical education period and Johnny was hit with a baseball bat during practice, requiring several stitches in his cheek which was cut through to his teeth.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith of the Illinois market returned Monday from a five-day vacation trip which took them up the coast as far as Ocean Lake.

At Independence they stopped to see Homer's brother, Tom Smith, and then came down to Klamath Falls, where they visited their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Smith. On Sunday the two families celebrated Lyle's birthday at a special dinner.

Mrs. Frank Rauber and Mrs. Gilbert Clayton spent Wednesday and Thursday in Crescent City, attending the Del Norte Chamber of Commerce meeting Wednesday evening.

In Eugene over the last weekend, Mrs. Frank Rauber visited her son and family, the Donald Raubers. Don, who will receive his Ph. D. at the University of Oregon in June, has spent the last few summers working as a lookout on various U.S. Forest Service stations above the Illinois Valley.

Lt. (jg) Bill Rauber and his wife, the former Charlotte King, will start home from Japan on April 15, and expect to be in Illinois Valley this spring. Bill, the son of Mrs. Frank Rauber, is in underwater demolition work.

The Stretch and Rip 4-H sewing club described their projects over Radio station KUN Saturday morning. Leader Mrs. Clara Basham and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Whiteley took the girls in to Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin spent five days last week on a business and pleasure trip to Portland, Eugene and Corvallis. While in Corvallis, they attended the National Collegiate Athletic Association basketball game.

Future Farmers of America of the Illinois Valley chapter announce their annual banquet for May 4 at the high school.

Adin Hester of Canby, newly elected FFA state president, will be the principal speaker.

The Rev. John Utterback of Topanga, Calif., conducted the church services at the Cave Junction Community church last Sunday, and will serve as guest minister again next Sunday, on March 21.

Mr. Utterback is a candidate for the pastorate, left vacant when the Rev. Ron Hall moved to Brookings in January.

Friends of the church are urged to attend services Sunday to meet the new family.

Mr. and Mrs. Utterback are guests at the George P. Martin home this week.

As their payment for losing to the women in the Kerby Assembly of God Sunday school "invasion contest," men (assertedly) cooked and served a potluck dinner to their wives and families last Friday.

Nearly 100 church members and guests attended the dinner, which climaxed a campaign to acquaint people with the Sunday school.

A skit entitled "Casey's Coffin," was followed by a film, "Thirty Pieces of Silver." Games group singing were also part of the evening's entertainment.

In spite of rain, the Sage Saddlers, 4-H riding club, held a practice gymkhana at the C. C. Hoover ranch Sunday afternoon. Members plan to enter compe-
