Stock Market Helped By Aircraft Prices

New York—Strength in aircrafts and selected industrials gave the stock market a firmer tone today on slightly increased volume.

Rails improved fractionally but Peoples Gas pulled utilities down from the 26-year high set by that average Thursday.

Boeing airplane was a feature for the aircrafts, up more than two points at its high. Lockheed rose more than one and Glenn Martin and Bendix around a point each.

Mr. Lundberg was born in Sweden, Jan. 3, 1866, and has been in the United States for the past 75 years and in this community for the past 40 years. He was a retired carpenter and was married in Grants Pass May 9, 1948.

Survivors include his son, Thor Lundberg, also known as James Kelly, of Bakersfield, Calif., and a niece, Mrs. St. George, Turlock, Calif.

68 Donors Make Appointments

Sixty-eight appointments have been made so far for blood donations Tuesday, April 9, from 1 to 6 p.m., when the Bloodmobile unit will be at the Elks temple in Medford.

The total is 282 below the number of donors necessary to meet Medford's 290-pint quota, blood program officials said.

They stated, however, that it is not necessary to make an appointment in order to donate blood. Drop-in donors will also be accepted. Appointments may be made by telephoning the Bloodmobile office, Medford 3-3813.

Making appointments yesterday and this morning were K. W. Cook, Doris Allen, Dorothy Terry, D. K. West, John R. Dumas, William T. Dahl, Doris Taylor, Melvin Nippes, Phyllis Nippes, Glenn McCullough, K. W. Copinger, Rae Eatherton, John R. Alexandro, David Mathias, Hazel Marie Wood, Raymond Reeter, Riley Cook, Edgar Head, Melvin Wiggins, Robert Lafferty, Calvin Rawstern, Bill Sanders, Margaret Davis, Mrs. Virginia Wright, Grade Powder, Betty Tomlin and Avis Kezer.

Officials said donors planning to give blood to replace that used in transfusions for friends should give names of the patient, the doctor and the hospital when they arrive at the Bloodmobile Tuesday.

Cities, Counties To Get State Liquor Funds

Portland—(U.P.)—Consumers of liquor in Oregon will enrich the state's general fund and cities and counties by some $4,757,152 during April, according to Joseph Nance, administrator for the Oregon Liquor Control Commission.

Nance said that the funds would come from liquor sales and privilege tax collections for the first three months of the year and represents surplus over and above the commission's working capital.
