

Sessions Planned
By Three Units;
Topics Announced

Three home extension units will meet this week. Wednesday, April 10, the Medford unit will meet in the Community building on Priddy st. at 10:30 a.m. The project for April will be re-upholstering which will be given by one of the local leaders. Members are asked to bring a salad or a cooked vegetable unless they have been notified to take a specific dish. There will not be a charge for the luncheon but members are asked to take their own table service. Child care will be provided but those desiring it must call Mrs. E. H. Trefern at 2-3425 prior to Monday evening, April 8.

The May meeting will be held in the courthouse auditorium.

Mrs. Ross Goodroad and Mrs. Walter Wilson will present the project on window treatment at the Oak Grove Extension unit meeting, Tuesday, April 9, at 10:30 a.m. The group will meet at the home of Mrs. Allan Flinn, 3222 Jacksonville highway, with Mrs. B. H. Belknap assisting.

Luncheon will be served by Mrs. N. Krause, Mrs. B. E. Ford, and Mrs. L. E. Smith. Members attending are asked to take their own table service.

Child care will be arranged by calling Mrs. S. B. Sandberg, 3-3517.

Mrs. Don Kinimel and Mrs. Bob Heffley will be project leaders for the meeting of the Eagle Point Home Extension unit on Thursday, April 11, at 10:30 a.m. The lesson on window treatment will be held at the home of Mrs. John Ousterhout. Those attending are reminded to bring silverware coupons obtained from Gold Medal flour products. The women are asked to take their own table service. Child care will be provided at the home of Mrs. Edna Cunningham, Brophy road.

Breakfast Held
Nearly 100 people attended the breakfast held by the Medford Trail Riders at the Wilcox Springs house March 31. The next meeting of the club will be held April 13 at 8 p.m. at the school house.

work, retiring exalted ruler of Medford Elks lodge, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Reynolds and Galen Knox, new exalted ruler. Both women were presented orchids from the retiring and new exalted rulers.

Mrs. Wingham introduced her guests for the evening who included two of her daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dykstra; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bottger; and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schultz, of Placerville, Calif.

Guests of Mr. Crawford were his wife, his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford; a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don G. Smith of Los Angeles, and another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Kennett of Concord, Calif.

For the ceremony Mrs. Wingham chose a gown of champagne colored brocaded satin and carried a white candle with red roses. The officers wore white brocaded taffeta gowns styled on princess lines and also carried white candles with red roses.

General chairman for the evening was Mrs. Coggins, with decorations by Mrs. Edward Gould; Mrs. Harris Olson, past matron, was in charge of the guest book, Mrs. Dykstra, was in charge of program distribution and Minnie Offenbacher was in charge of the refreshments.

Miss Haynie Wins Contest

Miss Millie Haynie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Haynie of Shady Cove, won first place Wednesday evening in the district speaking contest sponsored by the Knights of Pythias lodges of Grants Pass and Medford.

"Youth Looks at the Future" was the topic for the annual contest which was held in the Pythian building, Medford.

Miss Haynie, a student of Bert Simmons, speech coach at Eagle Point High school, will now participate in the state elimination contest to be held in Portland.

To win the district contest Miss Haynie won over Carl Gregorius of Grants Pass.

Following the contest, Don Lacy, Crater High school chairman of the Jackson county contest, introduced Hugh Welsh, master of ceremonies from Grants Pass and grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias lodges of Oregon. Also introduced were the judges, Norman Bonzon, president of Grants Pass Toastmaster's club; Mrs. C. E. Wilson, chairman of Council 4, Toastmistress club; and Jerry McDougall, speech instructor at Hedrick Junior High school.

First place winner of the national contest which will be held August 11 in Memphis, Tenn., will receive a $1,500 scholarship. Each year the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias holds a contest with awards totaling $3,500.

April Fool Party
Held by Chapter;
Officers Elected

Mrs. William Tycer was elected president of Alpha Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at the last meeting of the group.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Richard Riggs, vice president; Mrs. William Werner, secretary; and Mrs. Dan Kidd, treasurer.

Mrs. Kidd gave the cultural program for the evening using the theme "Tools for the Art of Life—Action." She defined the word "action," asked members what their hobbies were and discussed them in relation to action needed for them. She also discussed means of relaxation.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Riggs, 1209 Winchester avenue, Thursday, April 11, at 8 p.m.

The chapter held an April Fools progressive dinner for members and their husbands March 30. The evening began with cocktails at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riggs and from there the group went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McDougall, 435 Lynnwood avenue for a chicken dinner. Dessert was served at the Richard Henselman home at 333 Ardmore avenue.

The remainder of the evening was spent at the Henselman home dancing and playing cards. Thirty-four attended the dinner.
