

Women's Council Announces Topic For Annual Event

"Free Schools in a Free America" is the theme for the May Fellowship luncheon which is sponsored each year by Medford Council of Church Women.

Members of the council board are pleased that this particular topic has been chosen since school problems are so very much in the news at present.

Special musical features are to be presented for the fellowship luncheon. Three retired school teachers will participate in a panel discussion pertaining to the theme "Free School in A Free America."
