

How Do You Rate with Youngsters?

BY CHARLES AND JEAN KOMAIKO

Do CHILDREN stick out their tongues at you, dive under furniture at your approach, sulk while you're speaking? "Little brats," you may say, but think it over. If you were in their booties, would you do the same thing? Here's a quiz to see how you rate with the younger set. If you miss three or more, better read up on child psychology.

- |   | Yes                      | No                       |
|---|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Do you greet children with a cheery, "My, how you've grown?"                                     | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. Do you act like a chaperone around youngsters?   | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
