

by Paul Steiner

Fairway Follies

A Spokane, Wash., golfer made a hole-in-one, but couldn't brag about it. He had promised his wife not to play that day!

Playing a bad lie in the creek that runs through the Gainesville, Ga., golf course, a caddy swung a #9 iron and blasted a ten-inch fish out of the water.

A college senior in Utica, N. Y., lost a 15-cent bet on a golf match because he was unnerved by finding $9,200 on the fairway!

Because of some embarrassing financial transactions, a Jackson, Miss., golf club posted this notice: "MEMO: All you younger men who do not have any money in the banks, please do not cash checks here."

A New London, Conn., club hired a pack of pointer dogs, treated golf balls with pheasant scent—and solved its lost-ball problem!

A Tacoma, Wash., woman couldn't find the ball with which she had teed off. She finally discovered the reason—she'd made a hole-in-one!

While approaching the 11th hole, four South African golfers saw a figure walking close to the green. Closer inspection disclosed that calling "Fore" would be useless—the trespasser was a baboon!

The golf course at Capetown, South Africa, adjoins a railway. During an important match, while one player's ball hesitated on the lip of the cup, a train thundered by and the ball dropped in!

Only
Star-Kist Tuna knows the secret of Ocean-fresh flavor

Here's the tuna with that twinkle in its taste...the only tuna packed by the secret Flavor-Lok process! This method of packing captures every whisper of natural tuna flavor. Small wonder happy-day dishes made with Star-Kist Tuna...salads, sandwiches, casseroles...are family favorites! Buy lots!

STAR-KIST TUNA SPRING SALAD

1 No. 1/2 can Star-Kist Tuna
1 cup cucumber, sliced or diced
1/2 cup thinly sliced celery
2 tps. grated onion
Star-Kist Tuna Dressing made with Hellmann's or Best Foods Mayonnaise

Combine tuna, cucumber, celery, grated onion. Place on lettuce leaves. Garnish with radishes; top with Star-Kist Tuna Dressing.

Star-Kist Tuna Dressing Mix 1/2 cup Best Foods or Hellmann's Real Mayonnaise with 1 tbs. vinegar, 2 tbsps. milk, 1/4 tsp. sugar, salt and pepper, 3 tbsps. chili sauce, 2 drops Tabasco.

You can't beat the Best!

ONLY STAR-KIST TUNA IS PACKED BY THE SECRET FLAVOR-LOK PROCESS

high-school teachers (especially the driver-education instructor), townspeople, and local and state safer and saner than today's, and they'll get better gasoline mileage in the bargain!

