

Nineteen Candidates For Festival Listed

Six Boys, Girls To Be Selected to Reign at Event

Six boys and six girls will be selected by popular balloting as finalists for king and queen of the fourth annual Pear Blossom festival scheduled April 27 and 28.

A total of 19 candidates are entered. Half of the finalists must represent the city of Medford and half will represent groups outside the city limits, according to the festival committee.

Residents of the county may cast their votes by filling out ballots appearing on this page. One ballot is for the queen and the other is for the king. Completed ballots should be mailed to the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce office, D'Anjou building, South Central ave., Medford, not later than Thursday, April 11, at 5 p.m.

From the finalists the judging committee will select a king and queen. Queen's committee will be headed by Robert Boyer of Medford.

Queen candidates are: Christine Bradley, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond L. Sweet, 2477 Corona ave., Medford; Karen Charley, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Charley, 3321 Forest ave., Medford; Karen Anne Dalbec, 5, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Patch, Merriman rd., Medford; Rhonda Jo Demo, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Demo, 1181 East McAndrews rd., Medford; Linda Estremado, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Estremado, route 1, box 88, Gold Hill; Laura Sue Giles, 6, daughter of Mrs. Bertha S. Giles, 802 West Jackson st., Medford; Christine Hayse, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hayse, 906 Grant st., Medford; Angela Hosick, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jay D. Pierce, general chairman of the Pear Blossom festival, reminded those planning to enter floats in the parade to begin construction at an early date. The parade is scheduled for Saturday, April 27. He said "keen interest" in the parade this year has been evidenced by the number of entrants who have already returned their entry blanks to festival headquarters. The sample float, prepared to demonstrate simplicity of construction which is possible, will be on display for the next two weeks at Weeks and Orr Furniture store in Medford.

Gardening Time...

... Time to Enjoy More of That
SMOOTH LUSCIOUS
Jorgensen's...
fiesta ICE CREAM

In YOUR FAVORITE FLAVOR

It's time to dig in the garden . . . plant flowers and mow lawns . . . plan back-yard parties and light up the barbecue. THIS is the time of year when smooth, flavorful Jorgensen's FIESTA ICE CREAM is SO POPULAR. For the refreshing pause while working in the garden . . . for refreshing, easy-to-serve desserts . . . for bridge parties, and after-golf snacks — there's NOTHING quite SO GOOD as FIESTA ICE CREAM.
