

Touring Pros Will Boast High Scorers

Los Angeles — There'll be a host of high scorers and individual record holders from the National Basketball association on hand when Boston and the Major League All-Stars collide in their far western professional tour.

The tour opens April 15 at Veterans' Memorial auditorium in Des Moines, Ia., and comes to Oregon State College's Gill coliseum on April 20.

Five of the NBA's eight leading 1957 scorers will be on the teams with the Major League All-Stars holding a slight edge.

Syracuse's Dolph Schayes finished as the loop's number three scorer with 1617 points for a 22.5 average. This marked the fifth straight year the Nationals' ace tallied over 1,000 points and his seventh in eight years of NBA play.

Johnston 1575
Right behind Schayes is Philadelphia's Neil Johnston, who ripped the nets for 1575 markers, this despite seeing limited mid-season service due to an injury. His 22.8 average was third best. Johnston has won three NBA scoring championships.

Fort Wayne's George Yardley ranked fifth with 1547 points. Boston's Bill Sharman and Bob Cousy were seventh and eighth with 1413 and 1319 points, respectively.

Johnston was tops in field goal shooting percentage (.447) with Fort Wayne's Bob Houbregs (.432) and Boston's Bill Russell (.427) ranking third and fourth.

Other 1957 NBA leaders are Sharman, highest free throw percentage, .381 of 421 for a .905 mark, and Cousy, the assist champ with 478. Schayes connected on 625 of 691 attempts to set an NBA record for most free throws scored.

Hollywood Stars Drub Seattle; Pack Bags

Anaheim, Calif. — (U.P.) — The Hollywood Stars were scheduled to pack their bags Tuesday and leave their spring training grounds here.

The Stars wound up their exhibition schedule Monday by sinking Seattle, 16 to 4. The victory left Hollywood with an 11 to 8 record for the spring series while Seattle's mark was 11 to 13.

Dupas Stops Martinez After Race Charges

New Orleans — (U.P.) — Ralph Dupas, New Orleans lightweight, says he won Monday night's bloody and bruising 10-rounder over welterweight Vince Martinez of Paterson, N. J., to show appreciation to his hometown supporters.

Dupas, who upset Martinez in a decision bout, fought viciously and led an attack that Martinez couldn't stop with his slashing left jab.

The little whirlwind, weighing 141 1/4 pounds at fight time, lost the nickname "Native Dance."

Dutch Giant To Battle John Holman

Portland — (U.P.) — Ewart Potgieter, a giant who hopes to continue his climb up the heavyweight boxing ladder, and Johnny Holman, a battler who hopes to return to his former prominence in ring circles, clash here Tuesday night in a scheduled 10-round bout.

Potgieter's appearance will be his first since he knocked out Bruce Olson and sent him to the hospital with serious injuries. The 7-2 South African of Dutch descent will be facing one of his toughest tests in Holman.

Holman ranked high on the heavyweight list until he was knocked out by Eddie Machen in Portland's nationally televised fight last fall.

A 10-round lightweight bout between Larry Vasquez of Mexico and Billy Walker of Oakland, Calif., also is on the card.

Bevos Nose Out Padres

Ontario, Calif. — (U.P.) — The San Diego Padres battled the luckless Los Angeles Angels Tuesday in the final exhibition of the spring series for both teams.

The Padres Monday were eked out, 4 to 3, by Portland. The Angels, last year's PCL champions, worked out Monday at Wrigley Field in an attempt to iron out problems before the league opens Thursday.

San Diego also has worries. Outfielder Harry Elliott broke his left ankle sliding into third with a double during the Portland game. Elliott led the PCL in batting in 1954 with a .350 mark.

HOCKEY

Montreal — (U.P.) — Coach Milt Schmidt of the Boston Bruins confidently predicted his underdog team "will win" Tuesday night and even the Stanley Cup finals against the Montreal Canadiens at one game apiece.

"Naturally, I think we're going to win, said Schmidt, whose Bruins fooled many observers by eliminating the league-leading Detroit Red Wings in five games during their semi-final series. "If I didn't, what kind of a coach do you think I'd be?"

Meanwhile, coach Joed Blake of the Canadiens continued to complain about the wagering odds, which for the second consecutive series have established the Habituants as prohibitive favorites.

Cleveland — (U.P.) — The Cleveland Barons will play host to the Rochester Americans as the final round of the American Hockey League playoffs gets under way Tuesday night.

Rochester, fielding its first team in the AHL, will rule as the sentimental favorite. The Americans, after flirting with the cellar for a good part of the season, hit stride in the last few weeks to tie for second place.

In the initial Calder cup appearance, Rochester beat defending titleholder Providence in five games to gain the final round.

The Barons have been the most successful club in league history. Winner of the championship cup several times in 21 years, Cleveland will depend on its "GEN" line of Fred Glover, Bo Elk and Jimmy Moore to end Rochester's surge. The Barons outlasted Hershey 4 games to 3 in the semi-final round.

Following Tuesday night's big clash, the teams will continue their best-of-seven series in Rochester Wednesday, in Cleveland on Saturday and back in Rochester on Sunday.

New York — (U.P.) — Them as has "gits" and so Tony Kubek of the New York Yankees and Rene Valdes of the Brooklyn Dodgers are the front-running pre-season favorites today to wind up with Rookie of the Year honors.

It actually has been a poor year for rookies hoping to crack the big league ice. No more than seven of them are expected to be in the major league lineups on opening day.

The seven are Kubek, Valdes, White Sox outfielder Jim Landis, Kansas City second baseman Milt Graft, Giant shortstop Andre Rodgers, first baseman Bob Bowman of the Phillies and possibly outfielder Bobby Gene Smith of the Cardinals.

Kubek Everybody's Choice
Kubek is everybody's choice as the Rookie of the Year. At this early date, Valdes, a 22-game winner with Portland last season, stands as his top rival. Eddie Joost and Lefty O'Doul both named him as the top Pacific Coast league graduate.

The Yankees are keeping three others who may make it big, namely infielders Bob Richardson and Waddy Held and pitcher Al Cicotte. Brooklyn, too, expects much from southpaw Fred Kipp, a 20-game winner at Montreal, while catcher John Roseboro, stymied behind Roy Campanella and Rube Walker, probably will return to the minors for more seasoning. If Campy fails, Roseboro will return via air mail.

Rodgers has been getting a lot of raves from the Giants but there is a needling question as to whether he will hit. Staying up with him is Curt Barclay, a 15-game winner at Minneapolis.

Four Promising Phils
The Phillies, in addition to Bouchee and Bowman, are expecting hurling help from Don Cardwell and Seth Morehead. Pittsburgh looks to infielder John Powers while the Cards, in addition to Smith, count on pitchers Bob Mabe and Tom Cheney and second baseman Eddie Kasko.

Over in the American League, two fine catchers are standing disconsolately in line awaiting their chances. One is Haywood Sullivan of the Red Sox and the other is Earl Battey, up from Toronto to the White Sox.

Cleveland expects more pitching help from southpaw Bud Daley, 11-1 at Indianapolis, and Stan Pitula, who had a 15-4 mark with the same club. They are also looking hard at outfielder Roger Maris and infielder Larry Raines.

Washington's main rookie hope is pitcher Dick Hyde, who had a 15-6 year at Chattanooga. All in all, it's a rather slim rookie crop.

Kimble KO's Reidy Davis

Boston — (U.P.) — The National A A U boxing championships move to the Arena Tuesday night for quarter-final competition and if the action continues the way Monday night's ended then fans are in for an exciting show.

There hadn't been a knockout all evening through 28 three-round fights as the elimination bouts at the Garden went into the heavyweight division. Then the fun began.

Willie Kimble, a tremendous Negro from Cleveland, got the first kyo by putting Reidy Davis of Philadelphia away at 0:12 of the second round.

Boston heavyweight Lee Williams sent the partisan fans home on a happy note, clubbing De Witt Lee of Buffalo, N.Y., to a third round knockout with a savage, two-fisted attack in the night's final bout.

Defending 112-pound titlist, Albert Pell of New York City, ousted highly-regarded Tien Chung of San Francisco in a three-rounder.

Pell was one of four New York City residents who advanced to the quarter-finals. The others were 119-pounder Earl Spence, who defeated Richard Beasley of Philadelphia; 125-pounder Rubin Pizarro, who defeated Johnny Britt of Philadelphia; and William Pickett, who scored an impressive unanimous decision over Harry Sandler of San Francisco in the 147-pound division.

PILOTS TRIUMPH

Portland — (U.P.) — University of Portland's tennis team Monday defeated Oregon 5-2. Bill Rose of Portland made it 24 wins in a row by defeating Larry Ottis of Oregon 6-1, 6-1.

Umpire Gets Sick Leave

Cincinnati — (U.P.) — Veteran Umpire Larry Goetz was given a sick leave by the National League Tuesday and the league also announced the addition of former catchers Bill Baker and Vinnie Smith to the umpiring staff.

The 57-year-old Goetz, an N.L. umpire since 1936, has not umpired any exhibition games this spring because of a nervous condition and has been advised by his doctor to take an extended rest from baseball.

Baker, who officiated last year in the American Assn., and Smith, from the staff of the Pacific Coast League, both have been umpiring major league exhibitions this spring on a trial basis.

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Earl Lennon, 28, San Diego, was signed Tuesday as a Pacific Coast league umpire to replace Vinnie Smith, veteran PCL arbiter who Monday signed a National league umpiring contract.

Seals Have 15-3 Preseason Record

Fresno, Calif. — (U.P.) — The San Francisco Seals, sporting a red-hot 15 to 3 Pacific Coast league exhibition record, play the Fresno State college team Tuesday night in their final practice appearance before the PCL season begins.

The Seals scored their 15th victory Monday by defeating the Sacramento Solons, 9 to 6, in a game that sparkled with homers. Al Heist hit a three run homer for the Solons in the sixth inning, and teammate Jerry Street blasted out a two run homer for the Seals in the second.

The Solons closed out the training season with a record 8-13-1.

Jesse Owens Advised To Avoid Exhaustion

Chicago — (U.P.) — Former Olympic gold medal winner Jesse Owens has been advised by his physician to take things easy for a while to avoid exhaustion. Owens, who has been on a speaking tour which carried him to many foreign lands, plans to continue with his work as director of the state youth program, however.

HANKS SIGNS

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Veteran driver Sam Hanks, generally regarded as dean of Indianapolis Speedway drivers, has signed to drive Sandy Belond's revolutionary Belond Exhaust Special in this year's Memorial Day 500-mile classic. It marks Hanks' 11th year of qualifying.
