Bill To Replace Unemployment Group in Senate

Salem — (U.P.) — A labor-backed bill to replace the State Unemployment Compensation commission with an employment security commissioner was before the Senate Wednesday with a favorable recommendation from its committee on labor and industries.

The same three commissioners now make up the Unemployment Compensation commission and the State Industrial Accident Commission. Under terms of Senate bill 62, the Unemployment Compensation commission would be abolished and operation of the agency would be placed under a one-man commissioner. The three present commissioners would remain as members of the state industrial accident commission.

Opposed To One-Man Rule

Sens. Lee Ohmart of Salem and Rudie Wilhelm Jr. of Portland did not concur in the "do pass" recommendation voted by the committee late Tuesday.

Ohmart said he felt such an important agency, dealing in millions of dollars, should not be a one-man operation.

Also sent to the floor with a favorable recommendation was Senate bill 211.

It would amend present law to provide that no person other than a registered architect or registered professional engineer shall plan design or supervise erection or enlargement of any building which has or will have a ground area of more than 4,000 square feet or a height of more than 20 feet.

Newsman Guilty On Contempt Charges

Washington— (U.P.) —A New York newspaperman was found guilty Tuesday on 19 counts of contempt of Congress for refusing to name former Communist party associates.

Alden Whitman faces a maximum sentence of one year in prison and a $1,000 fine or both.

Whitman, a New York Times copyreader, refused to answer questions by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in January, 1956, during the group's investigation of alleged Communist infiltration of press and radio.

Whitman told the subcommittee he had been a Communist from 1935 to 1949, before he joined the Times. But he refused to name other party members on the grounds that the subcommittee did not have the authority to inquire into his personal associations and beliefs.

Californians Trade Wives In Mutual Understanding

Millbrae, Calif.—(U.P.)—A Millbrae eye doctor and a merchant friend he met at Cub Scout and PTA meetings have decided to trade wives and homes.

"We hope to go on living here if public opinion will let us," said Dr. Frank E. Schwartz.

Schwartz, 38, disclosed details of the amicable wife-swap with his friend, Martin Brooks, who also lives in this San Francisco suburb.

Close Friends

The two couples have been close friends for a couple of years, he said. The switch in affections "gradually evolved," he said, and some time around Christmas they decided to make the change.

The two wives, Jean Schwartz, 33, and Betty Brooks, 35, now are living together in Reno while waiting for divorces. Schwartz said that the divorces should be final in five weeks and they will be remarried in Nevada about a week later.

The Schwartz's have two children and the Brooks' four, all under 11 years of age. Dr. Schwartz said the two women will continue to live in their present home with the children. Schwartz will move into the Brooks house and Brooks will move into the doctor's house.

Schwartz said the children have had the situation explained to them and they are pleased. "They feel like they're getting an extra daddy," he said.

Mutual Interests

He and his wife became close friends of the Brooks through their contacts at Cub Scout and PTA affairs, Schwartz said. He added that he and Mrs. Brooks found they had mutual interests in music, art and photography, while his wife and Brooks preferred sports events and watching television.

The doctor said an equitable property settlement with no alimony was reached between the two couples.

Brooks, 35, operates a garden and pet supply company.
