Sobles Enter Plea of Guilty To Spying for Soviet Russia

New York — (U.P.) — Jack and Myra Soble pleaded guilty today to charges of conspiring to spy for Soviet Russia.

The New York husband and wife were specifically charged with conspiring to transport documents vital to the national defense of this country to Russia.

The pair face a possible maximum sentence of 10 years each in prison. They will be sentenced May 3.

Ruled Mentally Fit

The change of plea before Federal Judge Richard H. Level came just one day after Level ruled that Soble, who had been undergoing psychiatric treatment, was mentally fit to stand trial.

The two had been indicted with Jacob Albam, another New Yorker, on the conspiracy charge.

Albam, unless he changes his plea, will stand trial May 22.

In an atmosphere of mystery, U.S. marshals brought the tall, balding Soble and his red-haired wife into the courtroom at the call of the criminal calendar.

Both seemed to be under a strain, fidgeting nervously.

William J. Tompkins, head of

Women's League To Provide Scholarship

Cave Junction—A $50 scholarship to Southern Oregon college, Ashland, for an outstanding Illinois Valley High school girl has been voted by members of the Illinois Valley Civic women's league.

The recipient who will be selected by Principal Vernon Larson and members of the faculty, is to receive a special certificate from the club.

Also planned at a meeting Wednesday was an Easter basket for a needy family in the valley. Members are working on hand made linens, to go into a basket which will be sold at the Labor Day Jubilee.

the Internal Security division of the Department of Justice, rose and advised the court that "Jack and Myra Soble have decided to withdraw their plea of innocence and substitute a plea of guilty to the second count of the six-count indictment."

George Wolfe, attorney for the accused couple, told Level that he had discussed the matter with his clients, and that he had read them the complete record of the penal law under

Truck Hits Group Of Children; 4 Die

Safford, Ariz. — (U.P.) — A pickup truck ploughed into a group of children walking along a quiet side street, killing four of them and critically injuring two others, sheriff's officers said Wednesday.

All of the dead and one of the injured were members of the same family.

Officers identified those killed in the incident Tuesday as Virginia Bracamonte, 12; Avelino Bracamonte, 5; Andy Bracamonte, 9; and Patsy Bracamonte, 7.

Critically injured were Roberto Bracamonte, 8, and Ray Arrellin, 14. Hospital authorities said these two were so seriously that they might die within a few hours.

The driver of the truck, identified by officers as Antonia Olivinas, a 62-year-old laborer, was booked in county jail pending charges of negligent homicide and driving under the influence of alcohol.

MARRIAGE TAX RAPPED

London — (U.P.) — Conservative member of Parliament O. L. Prior-Palmer complained Wednesday that Britain's new budget will force many couples to continue living in sin because of continued double taxation on married couples.
