Tri-District Meeting

Six Jaycees attended the tri-district meeting of the Oregon State Junior Chamber of Commerce last Sunday at Roseburg. The meeting is held annually before the state convention. Workshops were held in which state-wide and nation-wide Jaycee activities were discussed.

Ron James, district six vice-president, presided at a session for local secretaries and treasurers. John Gustafson, state convention chairman from Medford, presented Medford's bid for the state convention in 1958. Jones represented the Medford delegation at the meeting.

Other Medford Jaycees attending were Shuler, Cal McKibben and Leonard Howe.

Rare Spring Day In Most of Nation

By UNITED PRESS
A rarity this season, a spring-like day, arrived over most of the nation Wednesday.

The clear weather came as a sudden contrast to three weeks of damaging blizzards, deadly tornadoes and flooding rains.

Light snow occurred during the night over the northern Great Lakes and Montana. Heaviest accumulation was one-third inch at Cutbank, Mont., boosting its snow blanket to four inches.

A warming trend continued in the west and extended into the far west with readings in the 50s as far north as Washington during the night.

Each session will include a one hour lecture and 1½ hours of practical water work, he said.

Open House Slated At Chuck's Market

An open house will be held at Chuck's Market, formerly Al's Market, 838 West McAndrews rd., Medford, from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. April 19 and 20, to observe the store's new management, according to Charles Clark, new owner.

Clark purchased the store from Larry Young last month. Young owned the store for about two years.

Clark said work crews are expected to replace the market's name sign in the next two or three days. He added that no remodeling of store was anticipated soon. No staff or policy changes will be made, he said.

Clark will reside with his wife and four children in a residence adjacent to the market. Before coming to Medford in March Clark was a rancher in California.
