

Redlegs Top Senators With Homer Barrage

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Warren Hacker, who was plagued by the home run ball for many years, is discovering why Cincinnati Redleg pitchers call it their best friend.

Hacker, who won only three games for the Chicago Cubs last season, chalked up his fourth victory of the Grapefruit league campaign Tuesday when the Redlegs unleashed a barrage of six homers to beat the Washington Senators, 9-7. The Redlegs have walloped a total of nine homers behind Hacker this spring and scored 36 runs in the five games he's pitched.

Wally Post blasted two homers and Gus Bell, Ted Kluszewski, Frank Robinson and Jerry Lynch hit one each as the Redlegs made it 40 round-trippers in 29 exhibition games. That's a pace of 212 over 154 — game stretch compared to their record-tying total of 221 last season.

The National league champion Brooklyn Dodgers snapped a four-game losing streak when they whipped the Milwaukee Braves, 5-4, with a four-run rally in the ninth inning. A record crowd of 9,147 at Tulsa, Okla., saw Mr. Charley Neal's bases-filled double break up the contest after Warren Spahn in one of his few appearances against the Dodgers, yielded only three hits and one run over the first six games.

Al Worthington and Joe Margoneri collaborated in a five-hitter as the New York Giants dented the Cleveland Indians, 4-2. Worthington allowed both Cleveland runs and four hits in the first seven innings. Ray Narleski, working for the first time since he suffered a broken finger on March 13, pitched two hitless innings for the Indians.

Rookie Paces Cubs

Cal Neeman, a rookie who still hopes to beat out Ray Katt or Charley Silveira for the Chicago Cubs, regular catching job, drove in four runs with a homer and two doubles in an 8-3 triumph over the Baltimore Orioles.

The Chicago White Sox made only five hits but collected 14 walks to take a 6-5 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals. Sam Jones, Bob Mabe and Jim Davis were the pitching culprits for the Cardinals. Jones was the worst offender, yielding five hits and seven walks and hitting two men in five frames.

Andy Carey bopped an eight-inning homer that enabled the New York Yankees to beat the Milwaukee Braves' Jacksonville farm club of the Sally league, 5-4. Micky Mantle also homered for the Yankees and kept his spring average at .350.

George Brunet and Ken Johnson, optioned out by Kansas City only this week, pitched seven-hit ball as the Little Rock Travelers embarrassed the parent Athletics, 5-4.

NO GAME TODAY—Can the opening day of the 1957 baseball season be next week? If so, Mother Nature had better bring out Old Man Sun to help melt the six-inches of snow in the Cleveland Indians Stadium. If the snow remains, this fan may be the only one to show up for opening day.

Cubs Send Briggs To Portland Club

Glendale, Calif. (U.P.)—Johnny Briggs, a fast-balling righthander, Tuesday was optioned to the Portland Beavers by the Chicago Cubs. Briggs had a 15-15 record with Sacramento in 1955 but was only 5-5 with Los Angeles last season.

In 1954, Briggs had a 20-8 record with the Salem Senators.

Webfoots Down Bearcats Twice

Eugene (U.P.)—The Oregon Webfoots handed Willamette a double baseball defeat Tuesday, 8-2 and 8-6.

Stan Dmochowsky became the first Oregon pitcher to go the distance this year in the first game as he held Willamette to four hits and fanned nine.

Coach Don Kirsch used a different lineup in each game with 19 players taking part in the twin bill.

HOCKEY NATIONAL LEAGUE

Montreal (U.P.)—The Montreal Canadiens, powered by two clutch playoff victories in their own forum, are ready to move into Boston Thursday with a 2-0 lead over the Bruins in defense of their Stanley Cup hockey title.

The flexible Canadiens came off with "an oldtime playoff game" Tuesday night to edge the Bruins, 1-0, in the second game following a spectacular wide-open first game Saturday in which Maurice (Rocket) Richard scored four times.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Cleveland (U.P.)—Versatile Ron Ingram, who doesn't care where he plays so long as he plays, has the Cleveland Barons off and winging in pursuit of their sixth American Hockey League Calder Cup.

Ingram, an aggressive but unassuming workman on skates, slapped in the decisive overtime goal Tuesday night to give the Barons a 2-1 victory over the Rochester Americans in the opening game of the AHL's best-of-seven-playoff finale.

Butte Falls—Bill Irwin hurled a no-hit, no run triumph yesterday and Butte Falls high tipped Talent 1 to 0 in the opening Jackson County B league baseball ruckus for each school.

Irwin struck out seven batters and walked three. The Logger nine got its run with one out in the seventh inning to end the pitching duel. Fred Helm, Talent toser, gave only four safeties to the Loggers and also fanned seven batsmen.

In the final canto Jerry Dillon of BF drew a base on balls. He stole second. Then Jim Irwin lined the ball over second base to bring Dillen home and break up the contest.

Bill Irwin socked two hits in addition to his no hit tossing. Jim Irwin and Don Ellis each got one hit.

Loggers, Redskins Vie

Butte Falls faces its second league foe here on Friday, meeting Jacksonville which won the only other game played so far in the B circuit. The Redskins drubbed Rogue River 10 to 0, getting some fine patching from Clyde Smith as well as the help of Chieftain errors.

Other Friday B game will be Prospect at Talent. Rogue River is to meet St. Mary's at Medford on Thursday. The RR-SM game was moved up because of the Johnson was in trouble only once, in the sixth when Portland filled the bases with one out. But he promptly fanned the next two hitters.

McFadden gave up nine hits in the second game while OSC had eight off three Pilot hurlers but the Beavers bunched them successfully.

MH Netters Best Yreka

Medford high's tennis aggregation barged into the victory column here yesterday, defeating Yreka, Calif., 6 to 1, and now has its attention on Southern Oregon conference action with Klamath Falls. The Tornado meets the Pelicans here Friday.

Medford took all the singles and one of the doubles yesterday in the activity with the Miners.

Singles victories were Jim Gordon over Lou Karstenson 6-2, 6-0; Bob Schmidt over Jerry Friedman 6-2, 6-4; Chuck Finch over Bill Wilson 6-0, 6-2; John Root over Arlen Sanford 7-5, 6-4; and Dick Swinney over Merle Bowen 6-0, 6-0.

Schmidt and Gordon won in doubles from Karstenson and Friedman. Wilson and Sanford took a doubles match from David Oas and Paul Ryn of Medford 6-2, 6-4.

SOFTBALLERS MEET

A reminder for captains or managers of prospective Jackson County Softball league teams to convene at 8 p.m. today at the YMCA has been issued by vice president Gary Colton. He advised that team representatives must be at the meeting. All others interested also are invited.
