

Kansas City Nudges Brooklyn Nine 5-4

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
Call 'em what you like—the Kansas City Athletics or the New York Yankees' American league farm club—but Lou Boudreau's team gave the fans something to talk about in their 1937 home debut.

The first major league team to reach home, the ex-Yankee sprinkled Athletics rallied with four runs in the ninth inning Thursday to shade the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5-4. Billy Hunter and Irv Noren contributed singles to the rally by way of emphasizing that old Yankees never forget how to beat the Dodgers.

First-baseman Vic Power of the Athletics was hit on the head by a throw by Don Zimmer in the ninth but was not believed seriously injured. He's being kept in Research hospital for a few days, however.

Pirates Cop Another
The Pittsburgh Pirates rolled to their 19th victory in 27 games when they walloped the Detroit Tigers, 10-2, behind the sixth-pitching of Dick Hall, Elroy Face and Bob Purkey. Dale Long blasted a two-run homer and rookie Paul Smith a three-run round-tripper for the Pirates.

The Chicago Cubs won their spring series with the Baltimore Orioles, 10 games to eight, with a 7-6 triumph over them. Dee Fondy led the Cubs' 12-hit attack with a pair of two-run homers.

Rookie Jack Sanford yielded only two hits in seven innings as the Philadelphia Phillies whipped the Boston Red Sox, 7-1, for their third win in four games with the American league rivals. Ted Williams produced the Red Sox' run when he clouted his fourth homer of the spring off Sanford in the seventh.

Mickey Mantle hit his third homer in as many games but the world champion New York Yankees suffered a 6-5 loss to Ed Lopat's Richmond Spiders of the International league. Neal Watlington singled home the winning run off Tom Sturdivant.

Lindy McDaniel pitched seven innings and Willard Schmidt two, allowing a total of five hits as the St. Louis Cardinals blanked the Chicago White Sox, 5-0. Homers by Stan Musial and Hobie Landrith led the Cardinals to victory on Billy Perce.

George Crowe's three-run homer in the eighth inning broke a tie and gave Cincinnati a 7-4 victory over the Senators at Washington despite homers by Ed Fitzgerald and Roy Sievers of the Senators.

Cleveland shoved over two runs in the ninth to beat the New York Giants, 6-4, at Miami. Giant lefty Johnny Antonelli, New York's opening game nominee, was blasted for 10 hits in eight innings but Early Wynn of the Indians, starting for the first time since March 17 because of an ailing hip, allowed only a homer by Willie Mays in five innings and walked none. It was Mays' 11th homer of the spring.

Randolph, Jessen Head Gal Golfers

Dallas, Tex. — (U.P.) — Bonnie Randolph and Ruthie Jessen who seldom dig very deep into the prize pot nursed a one-stroke lead into the second round of the Dallas Women's Open Golf tournament Friday.

They both cracked the coveted "70" barrier Thursday and staked themselves to two-under-par 69s over the 6,218-yard Glen Lakes Country club course and finished the opening round a stroke ahead of veteran Louise Suggs and young Wiffie Smith.

Marlene Bauer Hagge, one of the pre-tournament favorites, matched par and seven players, including top amateur Clifford Ann Creed of Opelousas, La., clogged the 72 bracket.

HERE'S A SWITCH—Where do Hawaiians go for vacation? Well, here's one arriving in San Francisco aboard the SS Leilani, Mrs. James Luby (left), for a California vacation. She's wearing a couple of Hawaiian hats that have made the islands famous. Meanwhile, Hawaiian-born Phyllis Pacheco, sitting in a 1957 Lancia by fog-shrouded Golden Gate Bridge, is looking forward to a vacation on her native island. Her sports car is one of the many entered in sports car races at Dillingham Field near Honolulu April 19-21. More than 150 Californians have entered the races.

RVRC Holds Picnic Trial

Rogue Valley Retriever club will have a picnic trial this Sunday at Hoover lakes in the Camp White area.

The public is invited to watch members work their dogs on retrieving problems.

RVRC dogs are doing well in trials on the coast this year. Last week end at Tacoma, Wash., Weldon Kline's Flash was victor in the amateur open. The win put Flash well within reach of amateur championship rating.

At a Klamath picnic event last Sunday, Kara, owned by Leonard Nelson and handled by Dave Nelson won the derby. Big Sam, handled by Tom Rickard took second in the qualifying stake despite a badly cut foot. Mrs. Dave Nelson and Charles Steele were other RVRC representatives at the Klamath event.

Members of the local club this Sunday intend to work their dogs on pheasants in preparation for the American Kennel club licensed trial the following week end in the Klamath Falls area. This event will be held on the public shooting ground of the national wildlife refuge on the California side of the state line road. Pheasants are traditionally used in the trial.

Cleveland — (U.P.) — Next Tuesday's scheduled Rory Calhoun-Joy Giardello middleweight bout at the Cleveland arena has been cancelled because of a cut sustained by Giardello while in training for the bout. An old cut on Giardello's cheek reopened during a recent workout and has not healed.

Bob Nieman's Injury Reported Not Serious

Baltimore — (U.P.) — The Baltimore Orioles received an important "lift" today with the announcement that outfielder Bob Nieman will be able to open the season next Monday against the Washington Senators.

Nieman, who hit .320 last season, was feared to have suffered a hairline fracture of the right shoulder last Tuesday, but X-rays taken Thursday by Dr. Erwin Mayer revealed no break.
